RESOLUTIONS

No. 443-I./SS/1A-174/64.—30th March 1966.—The Governor is pleased to direct that medical benefits under the Employees' State Insurance Scheme should be made available with effect from the 1st April 1966 to the families of insured persons of the implemented areas of the district of Hooghly in which the Scheme is at present applicable to the insured persons only. The Employees' State Insurance Corporation has issued the requisite notification in this behalf under the Employees' State Insurance (General) Regulations, 1950.

2. The medical benefits that will be available to the families of the insured persons should be according to the following scale:—

(a) General Medical Services which will include treatment at the clinics or dispensaries of Insurance Medical Practitioners or other authorised institutions and shall consist of—

(i) all treatments other than treatment involving the application of special skill or experience;

(ii) such preventive treatment as vaccination and inoculation;

(iii) free provision of drugs and dressings as are at present available to the insured persons in accordance with the provisions of rule 18 of the West Bengal Employees' State Insurance (Medical Benefit) Rules, 1955, but exclusive of such medicines as can be prescribed only by specialists for insured persons.

(iv) domiciliary visits to the members of the families by the Insurance Medical Practitioners when warranted.

(b) Free maternity service to the wife of an insured person consisting of–

(i) reasonable ante-natal and post-natal care by the Insurance Medical Practitioners.

(ii) Proper arrangements by the Insurance Medical Practitioner for confinement of the wife of the insured person under the Scheme either by himself or by registered Midwives or by trained Dais under his supervision.

3. For each maternity case when conducted by the Insurance Medical Practitioner either by himself or by registered Midwives or by trained Dais under his supervision a remuneration of Rs. 25 (Rupees twenty-five only) will be paid to him, which will include cost of dressings, ordinary medicines and all professional charges.

4. Governor is pleased to sanction remuneration to an Insurance Medical Practitioner in the shape of capitation fee at the rate of Rs. 17.50 p. (Rupees seventeen and fifty paise only) per family unit per annum for the treatment of the insured persons as well or their families in the said district with effect from the date of extension of the medical benefits to the families of the insured persons. The above remuneration includes the cost of ordinary medicines and dressings to be supplied by the Insurance Medical Practitioners to the insured persons and their families. Payment of the above remuneration at the above rate should be made quarterly on the basis of the number of family units of insured persons on the list of Insurance Medical Practitioners, who are entitled to medical benefits, on the first day of each quarter for which payment is due. No Insurance Medical Practitioner shall have more than 750 (seven hundred and fifty) family units on his list. In calculating the capitation fee of the Insurance Medical Practitioner the fraction of a rupee less than .50 p. (fifty paise) will be ignored and an amount of .50 p. (fifty paise) or more will be counted as a rupee.

5. Costly medicines will be supplied to the families of the insured persons on the same scale as are at present available to the insured persons on the prescription of the Insurance Medical Practitioners only.

6. The insured persons will continue to get medical benefits as are at present available to them.

7. Rules regarding indigent and disabled advocates under section 15(2)(b) read with section 28 of the Advocates Act, 1961

1. (a) An "applicant" means an advocate applying to the Council for financial assistance under these rules.

(b) An "indigent advocate" is one who is unable to maintain himself and his family.

(c) A "disabled advocate" means any advocate who by reason of any physical or mental infirmity is unable to practise.

(d) The "fund" means a fund constituted by the Council for giving financial assistance to indigent or disabled advocates under section 6(2) of the Act and shall include all accretions either by way of contributions, donations or otherwise made to the fund.

2. The Council shall set apart at the end of each financial year such a sum as it thinks fit. The funds shall be administered by the Executive Committee of this Council.

3. (a) The Council shall be at liberty to give financial assistance either from the corpus or from the interest realised by the fund.

(b) The application for financial assistance shall contain such particulars as may be prescribed by the Council.

(c) On receipt of an application the Executive Committee shall enquire whether the applicant deserves financial assistance and the extent thereof and shall submit a report to the Council for final decision.

4. The Council shall maintain a separate account in respect of the said fund which shall be subject to audit annually along with the other accounts of the Council. The amounts belonging to the fund shall be entered in a separate account and may be invested in any manner provided by the rules of the Council. The Council shall not ordinarily grant assistance exceeding Rs. 1,000 (Rupees one thousand) in any financial year to any applicant. In case the assistance consists of monthly contributions, it shall be open to the Council to reduce or enhance the contribution according to circumstances, and no contribution shall be made in case the applicant ceases to be indigent or if the disability ceases.

GOURANGA SUNDER CHATTERJEA,
Secretary.

LABOUR DEPARTMENT

ORDERS

No. 1376-I.R./IR/10L-34(A)/64.—5th April 1966.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 4612-I.R./IR/10L-34(A)/64, dated the 3rd October 1964, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Calcutta Electric Supply Corporation Ltd., Victoria House, Calcutta-1, and their workmen represented by the Calcutta Electric Supply Corporation Mazdur Union, 249 Bowbazar Street, Calcutta-12, regarding the issue mentioned in the said order being a matter specified in the second schedule to the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), was referred for adjudication to the Third Industrial Tribunal;

And whereas the said Third Industrial Tribunal has submitted to the State Government its award on the said industrial dispute;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Calcutta Electric Supply Corporation Ltd., Victoria House, Calcutta-1, and their workmen represented by the Calcutta Electric Supply Corporation Mazdur Union, 249 Bowbazar Street, Calcutta-12, referred under G.O. No. 4612-I.R./IR/10L-34(A)/64, dated 3rd October 1964. (Case No. VIII-30/64.)

BEFORE THE THIRD INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri S. K. DUTTA GUPTA, Judge.

Appearances:

Present for the Union: Shri Patit Paban Pathak.

Present for the Company: Shri Jyoti Ghosh, Advocate, instructed by Shri D. Gupta, Assistant of Messrs. Sandersons & Morgans, Solicitors.

By order No. 4612-I.R./IR/10L-34(A)/64, dated 3rd October 1964, the Government of West Bengal in its Labour Department referred under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Calcutta Electric Supply Corporation Ltd., Victoria House, Calcutta-1, and their workmen represented by The Calcutta Electric Supply Corporation Mazdur Union, 249 Bowbazar Street, Calcutta-12, regarding matters specified in the second schedule to the Third Industrial Tribunal, constituted under section 7A of the Industrial Disputes Act, by notification No. 808-I.R./IR/3A-2/57, dated the 11th March 1957, for adjudication.

Issue

Whether the dismissal of Shri Lalta Prasad is justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

AWARD

In pursuance of notices issued from this Tribunal, parties appeared and filed their written statements. In the written statement filed by the company, it has been alleged that on receipt of the report that Lalta Prosad had in the morning of September 19, 1962, attacked a number of workmen with a lethal weapon, i.e., a dagger with 13" long blade and started a fight with them in the vicinity of the company's cable shed at its Central Stores at Syed Amir Ali Avenue, the company had issued a notice upon him to show cause why disciplinary action should not be taken against him in accordance with its Standing Orders. By his letter, dated 21st September 1962, Lalta Prosad replied to the show-cause notice but as his reply was not satisfactory, on 26th September 1962 a charge-sheet was issued upon him charging him under clause 15(a)(v) of the company's Standing Orders. Thereafter a committee of enquiry consisting of two representatives of the employer and two representatives of the employees selected by the workmen, was constituted by the company in accordance with the provisions of the Standing Orders, to enquire into the charges against him, and the said committee on enquiry found Lalta Prosad guilty of the charges. The company's Deputy Commercial Manager accepted the finding of the committee and having regard to the gravity of his misconduct ordered his dismissal. The dismissal of Lalta Prasad was in the circumstances justified and he is not entitled to any relief whatsoever in this proceeding.

In the written statement filed on behalf of Calcutta Electric Supply Mazdur Union, the allegations made by the company against Lalta Prosad were denied and it was inter alia stated therein that Lalta Prosad himself was a victim of assault by some workers of another union for his non-severence of connection with the Mazdur Union and that he had been dismissed from service on false charges. As regards the enquiry, the union's case was, as stated in its written statement filed, that the enquiry was neither fair nor proper and was arranged only to put a rubber stamp on the pre-planned decision of the Management, to dismiss him from service for his connection with the Mazdur Union. In the circumstances, the union prays for his reinstatement in service with back wages during the period of forced unemployment.

Findings

It is not disputed that at the material time Lalta Prosad was a member of Messrs. Calcutta Electric Supply Corporation Mazdur Union and was working at the Central Stores of the company at Syed Amir Ali Avenue as a Mazdur. Further undisputed fact is that over some incident between 2 groups of workers, in the morning of 19th September 1962, in the Central Stores Yard, the Controller of Stores, Shri J. D. Gupta, had on 20th September 1962, sent Lalta Prosad a letter marked Ext. 1 in the case, asking him to show cause by 21st September 1962, why disciplinary action in accordance with the company's Standing Orders should not be taken against him. Lalta Prosad gave his explanation on 21st September 1962 by a letter of that date marked Ext. 2 in the case. The company considered this explanation unsatisfactory and on 26th September 1962 gave him a charge-sheet which is marked Ext. 1(a) in the case. This charge-sheet inter alia reads as follows:

> "You are hereby charged under Clause 15 (a) (v) of the company's Standing Orders:
> Riotous or disorderly behaviour, fighting or any act subversive of discipline or of the rules of the company, in that at about 8-20 a.m. on the 19th September 1962, you in the vicinity of the Cable Shed of Central Stores brandished a lethal weapon (dagger) which is now in police custody and also along with others were fighting in the vicinity of the above Cable Shed within the company's premises."

On this charge-sheet, an enquiry by a committee of four presided over by Shri J. D. Gupta, the then Controller of Stores, was held and on the findings of the enquiry as made by the committee Lalta Prosad was dismissed. It has been contended on behalf of the concerned worker Lalta Prosad that as Ext. 1, the company's letter, dated 21st September 1962, to Lalta Prosad was for all purposes a self-contained charge-sheet, the Controller of Stores was not justified to issue a second charge-sheet on Lalta Prosad on receipt of his reply to Ext. 1 or to hold any enquiry on the charge-sheet Ext. 1(a), dated 26th September 1962, and to recommend his dismissal on the charges as mentioned in Ext. 1(a). It was further argued that as the charges mentioned in Ext. 1a were altogether dikerent from those mentioned in Ext. 1, the original charge-sheet on Lalta Prosad, the company was not justified to dismiss Lalta Prosad on charges as made in the charge-sheet, Ext. 1(a). In support of all these contentions, reference was made to the Supreme Court case of Laxmi Devi Sugar Mills versus Ram Deo Kishore Singh reported in 1956, Vol. I, L.L.J., at page 489. In this case a worker was charged under the Standing Orders of the company for having instigated his fellow workmen to pass a resolution demanding removal of the General Manager of the company, but was dismissed by the Management for insubordination. The Supreme Court held that the dismissal on the charge of insubordination was not proper inasmuch as this charge was not in the charge-sheet served on the concerned workman.

I have carefully gone through the facts of the Supreme Court case and I have no hasitation to hold that the decision as made in this case, has no application to the facts of the instant case. Here, Lalta Prosad was dismissed for possession of a dagger and creating disorder in the company's Store Yard on 19th September 1962. The charge-sheet Ext. 1(a) also contained these very allegations against Lalta Prosad and he was asked to meet these allegations in the domestic enquiry held under the chairmanship of Shri Gupta. In the said enquiry he was found guilty of these charges. In this view of the matter the principle of law as enunciated in Luxmi Devi Sugar Mills' case referred to above can have no application to the instant case. It is true that this charge-sheet [Ext. 1(a)] was not in strict conformity with the charge as contained in the letter Ext. 1 which preceded it but the dissimilarities in the charges as contained in the charges [Exts. 1 and 1(a)] cannot in my opinion, vititate the proceedings. It will appear from Exts. 1, B/1, B/2 and B/3 that not only Lalta Prasad but several other workers of the company including Ramanand Missir and Jogdeo Thakur were asked by Ext. 1 to show cause why disciplinary action in accordance with the standing orders of the company should not be taken against them for their being involved in a fight inside the company's premises in the morning of 19th September 1962 and that after all these workers including Lalta Prasad had submitted their explanations in reply to the charge-sheet Ext. 1, the management has issued the charge-sheet Ext. 1(a) on Lalta Prasad and the enquiry was held on the charges as contained in Ext. 1(a) after proper notice to Lalta Prasad. The company had every right to alter/amend the charge previously brought against Lalta Prasad, before the enquiry and to hold the enquiry on the altered/amended charge after proper notice to him of the amendments/alterations and in my opinion company's holding the enquiry on the charges as contained in Ext. 1(a) can be no ground for concluding that the enquiry was not fair and proper even though the charge-sheet (Ext. 1) contained no allegation of riotous conduct, as evidence on record unmistakeably proves that the enquiry was held after proper notice to Lalta Prasad that in the enquiry he would have to face the charges as contained in Ext. 1(a). In this view of the matter, the union's contentions that Lalta Prasad's dismissial, as a result of the enquiry held on the charge-sheet Ext. 1(a), was unjustified, and that the management had no jurisdiction to issue the charge-sheet Ext. 1(a) after the letter Ext. 1 to Lalta Prasad, cannot be upheld. If, therefore, the enquiry on the allegations as contained in the charge-sheet, Ext 1(a), was fair and proper and it be found that at the said enquiry by a domestic Tribunal, the company has made a prima facie case for dismissal of Lalta Prasad on the allegations as contained in the charge-sheet Ext. 1(a), this Tribunal will not interfere with the order of dismissal of Lalta Prasad. In this context reference may be made to the case of Arati Cotton Mills Ltd., versus Fourth Industrial Tribunal reported in 1965 L.L.J. at page 616; Messrs. Indian Iron & Steel Co. Ltd., vs. their workmen reported in 1958 Vol. I, L.L.J. page 260. In course of his judgment delivered in the Arati Cotton Mills Ltd. Case, His Lordship Banerjee, J., observed:—

> "In adjudicating upon the question as to whether an order of dismissal of a workman after proper domestic enquiry, was wrongful, a Tribunal cannot sit as a Court of Appeal and substitute its own judgment for that of the management. It may interfere with the dismissal when—
> (1) there is want of good faith,
> (2) there is victimisation or unfair labour practice,
> (3) the management has been guilty of basic error or violation of the principles of natural justice, or
> (4) on the materials, the finding against the workman is completely baseless or perverse."

In the Sur Enamel & Stamping Works Ltd., vs. their workmen reported in F.L.R. Vol. 7 at page 236 it was observed by His Lordship Das Gupta, J., in course of his Judgment delivered in the case—

> "It has been laid down by this Court in a series of decisions that if an industrial employee's services are terminated after a proper domestic enquiry held in accordance with the rules of natural justice and the conclusions reached at the enquiry are not perverse the industrial tribunal is not entitled to consider the propriety or the correctness of the said conclusions. An enquiry cannot be said to have been properly held unless, (i) the employee proceeded against has been informed clearly of the charges levelled against him, (ii) the witness are examined ordinarily in the presence of the employee in respect of the charges, (iii) the employee is given a fair opportunity to cross-examine witness, (iv) he is given a fair opportunity to examine witnesses including himself in his defence if he so wishes on any relevant matter, and (v) the enquiry officer records his findings with reasons for the same in his report."

If the enquiry under consideration satisfies all these tests of a proper domestic enquiry and the Enquiring Officer's finding was not perverse certainly the dismissal of Lalta Prasad must be upheld. This naturally leads to the discussion of evidence touching the enquiry.

The enquiry, it is undisputed, was held by a committee of four including Shri J. D. Gupta, the then Controller of Stores who acted as the Chairman of the company. It is also undisputed that this enquiry was held in accordance with the rules as contained in clause 15 of the Standing Orders of the company marked Ext. C in the case. Sub-clause (b) of clause 15 lays down as follows:

> "The enquiry shall be made by a committee constituted as follows: The Superintendent of the Department concerned, the officer in whose group the accused is employed, and two representatives selected by, and from, workmen in the department".

The committee that held the enquiry consisted of Shri J. D. Gupta, Controller of Stores, Mr. G. E. Moyers, Factory Manager, Shri Rajendra and Shri Nazamuddin, the last two being the Workers' Representatives (vide Ext. A, the proceedings of the Committee of the Enquiry). It will appear from this proceedings as also from the evidence of Shri J. D. Gupta, examined as D.W. 1 in the case, Lalta Prasad himself and the written statement filed on behalf of the union that Lalta Prasad has not only attended the enquiry but has also cross-examined the company's witnesses examined at the enquiry and also examined witnesses in support of his case. It also appears and is proved by Ext. 1(a), the union's written statement and Lalta Prasad's own evidence that the date of enquiry had been duly communicated to Lalta Prasad and that he has attended the enquiry with full knowledge of the charges, he would have to face at the enquiry. In short, it was an enquiry in which Lalta Prasad was given all opportunities to defend himself and to exempt himself of the charges brought against him by the company. As a result of this enquiry Lalta Prasad was dismissed from service. In this enquiry several persons, viz., Mr. Knight, Shri B. N. Bose, Shri N. N. Ghosh, Shri S. K. Chakravarty, Shri Deo Saran Singh, Shri Ram Laggan Thakur, Shri Durga Singh, Shri Ramjosh Roy, Shri Naroi Driver, Shri Ram Narayan Roy, Shri Raghunath Thakur, Shri Sugarat Singh, Shri Bhodai, Shri Jagadish Roy, Shri W. C. Halder, Mr. Firth, Shri Jethu, Shri Hashan, Shri Wazedali and Shri Ser Muhammad gave evidence, the last five as witness for Lalta Prasad. In course of his cross-examination before this Tribunal Shri Gupta stated that he could not say on whose behalf the witnesses excepting Mr. Knight, Shri B. N. Bose and Shri N. N. Ghosh and Lalta Prasad's witnesses aforesaid were examined before the committee and that these three gentlemen were company's witnesses. I have, however, great doubts about the correctness of this statement of Shri Gupta regarding the other witnesses but even if this statement was correct, the enquiry was not fair and proper as has been argued on behalf of the union. In the Departmental Enquiry, the company and its workmen proceeded against and none else have the right to lead evidence and Shri Gupta's statement above referred to if correct, will not only indicate interference in the enquiry by outsiders interested in a verdict of guilty against Lalta Prasad, with the connivance of the management but will also lend support to the union's contention in the written statement filed that the enquiry was only arranged to put a rubber stamp on the pre-planned decision of the management to dismiss Lalta Prasad from service, and prove that the enquiry was not fair and proper. From the record of the proceedings on record of this case as Ext. A, it is abundantly clear that the three witnesses, viz., Mr. Knight, Shri B. N. Bose and Shri N. N. Ghosh had no personal knowledge about the incident of the 19th September 1962 and but for incriminating statements of Shri Deosaran Singh, Shri Ram Laggan Thakur, Shri Hakim, Shri Durga Singh, Shri Ramjosh Roy and Shri Sugarat Singh against Lalta Prasad regarding the charges as contained in the charge-sheet Ext. 1(a) it would have been impossible for Shri Gupta to give a verdict of guilt against Lalta Prasad. It is clear from the evidence of these witnesses before the enquiry committee that all of them belonged to a rival union whose President is Shri Deosaran Singh. This Deosaran Singh along with Sugarat Singh also were charge-sheeted over the incident of 19th September 1962 but no enquiry was held against them after they had submitted explanations to the charge-sheet. They as also Ramlagan, Hakim and Durga Singh and Ramjosh Roy were not, therefore, entitled to be heard before the enquiry committee excepting otherwise than as witnesses for the company. After the positive statement of Deosaran Singh before this Tribunal that in the enquiry he was company's witness, I have not the slightest hesitation to hold that all these witnesses before the enquiry were company's witnesses regarding the incident of the 19th September 1962, and I am of opinion that Shri Gupta has not ventured to admit this witness as witnesses for the company before the committee lest it may be argued on behalf of the union that the management was from before the enquiry siding the rival union to crush Lalta Prasad, an old member of the Mazdur Union. Selection of these witnesses by the company to prove the charge as made in Ext. 1(a), in my opinion, sufficiently substantiates this charge of the union against the management. It is not disputed that several workers including Lalta Prasad, Sugarat Singh, and Deosaran Singh were given the charge-sheet Ext. 1 for being involved in a fight inside the company's premises at about 8-20 a.m. on 19th September 1962 and that after these workmen had submitted their explanations to the charge-sheet the management has not chosen to proceed further against Deosaran Singh, a prominent member of the rival union and Sugarat Singh, another member of the same union and has given Lalta Prasad a fresh charge of riotous/disorderly behaviour by brandishing a dagger in the company's premises and held enquiry on this fresh charge. In this enquiry Deosaran Singh and Sugarat Singh figured as very important witnesses and though Shri Gupta has in his evidence stated that he could not say on whose behalf they had given evidence in this enquiry, I have not the slightest hesitation to conclude after Deosaran Singh's positive statement that he was company's witness at the enquiry, that in the said enquiry Deosaran Singh, Sugarat Singh, Ram Laggan Thakur, Hakim, Durga Singh and Ramjosh have deposed as company's witnesses and not on behalf of any of the accused person in the enquiry. In course of his cross-examination before this Tribunal Shri Deosaran Singh stated that over the incident of 19th September 1962 police had arrested himself, Sugarat, Ramnand and Paramanand. But still the management had not proceeded against Deosaran and Sugarat after they had submitted their explanations in reply to the charge-sheet not only that they were examined as company's witnesses in the enquiry to prove the charge against Lalta Prasad. All these fact and circumstances, viz., dropping of the charge as contain in Ext. 1, against Sugarat Singh and Deosaran Singh, the two members of the rival union, immediately after they have given their explanations to the charge-sheet, changing of the charge of being involved in a fight with Sugarat Singh, Deosaran and others to a charge of disorderly/riotous behaviour by brandishing a dagger against Lalta Prasad after Sugarat and Deosaran have submitted their explanations and examination of Deosaran and Sugarat and some other members of the rival union as company's witnesses in the enquiry proceedings, indicate that from before the enquiry against Lalta Prasad management was siding with the rival union of Deosaran Singh, Sugarat and others as has been suggested by the union in the written statement filed on its behalf. The enquiry was also not fair and proper even if these persons have deposed at the enquiry not as company's witnesses because as already observed above, they then had no locus standi to appear before the enquiry committee and make statements regarding the incident of the day.

The enquiry was also not a proper enquiry as Shri Gupta, Chairman of the committee has not in his report given any reasons for his concluding that the charge against Lalta Prasad has been established. The committee, I have already observed, was a four-man committee, consisting of two workers representatives and two representatives of the management. It was a committee formed in accordance with the Standing Orders of the company and under the Standing Order Shri Gupta has the then Controller of Stores acted as the Chairman of the Committee. Sub-clause (b) of clause 15 of the Standing Order provides "in the deliberation of committees the Superintendent of the Department shall have the privilege of casting vote in the event of the committee being unable to reach a decision." In the instant case as Controller of Stores Shri Gupta acted as a Chairman and also had as such the casting vote and it appears from the record of the proceedings that he had used these privileges as two workmen's representatives found Lalta Prasad not-guilty of the charge and company's representatives to the committee, namely, Shri Gupta and Mr. G. E. Mayers, found him guilty of the possession of knife and disorderly conduct. Shri Gupta gave casting vote against Lalta Prasad and commented in the proceedings: "He has considered the evidence and discussed the matter with the committee in detail and he is of the opinion that he in his casting vote finds Lalta Prasad guilty of possession of the dagger and creating disorder."

Why he has disagreed with the workmen's representative's verdict of not-guilty and has found Lalta Prasad guilty of possession of the dagger and creating disorder, Shri Gupta has not stated anywhere in the proceedings. Before him several witnesses have testified in support of Lalta Prasad's contention that he himself was an innocent victim of an assault that day and that the charge of riotous behaviour by brandishing dagger as brought against him was absolutely false. In his report Shri Gupta has not discussed the evidence of any of these witnesses or has not given any reason for his not disbelieving what they have stated before him regarding the incident of 19th September 1962. He has not also stated the grounds for his finding Lalta Prasad guilty. For these reasons the enquiry cannot be held to be a proper enquiry. On behalf of the union it was further submitted that in the enquiry the principle of natural justice that the same person cannot act as a prosecutor and the Judge in the same enquiry was also violated and that as such the enquiry was not fair and proper. It was argued on behalf of the union that as Shri Gupta has himself issued the charge-sheet against Lalta Prasad and also acted as the Chairman of the committee to enquire into the charges brought against Lalta Prasad, the enquiry was not a fair enquiry. Though I cannot accept this contention of the union because as the then Controller of Stores Shri Gupta had to issue the charge-sheet against Lalta Prasad over the incident of the 19th September 1962 and also to head the committee of the enquiry formed to investigate into the charges under sub-clause (b) of clause 15 of the Standing Orders, still in view of the discussions already made regarding the enquiry it must be held that the enquiry which has led to the dismissal of Lalta Prasad was not fair and proper. Dismissal of Lalta Prasad on the charges as made against him in Ext. 1(a), can, therefore, only be upheld if the evidence led by the company before this Tribunal can justify the dismissal. This leads to the discussion of evidence that the company has led before this Tribunal.

I have already stated in the body of this award that Lalta Prasad was charged for disorderly conduct by brandishing a knife in the store-yard in the morning of 19th September 1962. To prove this allegation against Lalta Prasad, company examined before this Tribunal several witnesses including Shri Ram Laggan Thakur, Shri Deosaran Singh, Shri Sugarat Thakur, Shri Ramanand Missir, Shri Gajdeo Thakur and Shri Naroi. It will appear from the evidence of these witnesses Ramlagan, Deosaran, Ramanand, Gajdeo and Naroi that in the enquiry they have all made statements regarding the incident of 19th September 1962. Here, however, Sugarat, Ramanand Missir, Gajdeo Thakur and Naroi gave no evidence regarding the incident itself. Their evidence as given before this Tribunal, has thus not much bearing on the question of dismissal of Lalta Prasad referred to this Tribunal for adjudication. The only two witnesses who have made positive statements regarding the incident of 19th September 1962 were: Deosaran Singh, President of the rival union and Ramlagan Thakur, another member of the same union. In course of his evidence before this Tribunal, Deosaran Singh stated: "On 19th September 1962 at about 8 a.m. I was called by Sugarat Thakur. I went to the Cable Shed and saw a Hullah being created there. I saw Lalta Prasad also creating Hullah. Ramanand Sirdar made over a knife to me and reported that Lalta Prasad was attempting to attack with that knife. I made over that knife to the Stores Manager Mr. Knight. The size of the knife was about 6 or 7 inches. It is not clear from the evidence whether Ramanand Missir examined before the Tribunal was Ramanand Sirdar referred to Deosaran Singh. If he was, his evidence was not favourable to the company as he has nowhere in his evidence said that he has made over a knife to Shri Deosaran Singh. If, however, Ramanand Sirdar was a different man, his non-examination before this Tribunal only indicates that Deosaran's statement that Ramanand Sirdar had made over a knife to him and reported that Lalta Prasad was attempting to attack with knife has no value whatsoever. Ram Lagan's evidence also indicates that Deosaran's statement of Ramanand's handing over the knife to him was not correct as Ram Lagan's specific statement before this Tribunal was that after the knife had dropped down from the hand of Lalta Prasad, Deosaran Singh had picked it up and made it over to Mr. Knight. This Ram Lagan, it has already been pointed out above, also deposed before the enquiry and the record of the proceedings shows that his evidence before the enquiry was that he had seen Deosaran Singh snatching the knife from the hand of Lalta Prasad. His present statement of Deosaran's picking up the knife from the ground was thus an improvement on his own statement before the Tribunal and I am of opinion that this improvement was made as Deosaran himself never claimed the credit of snatching the knife from the hand of Lalta Prasad. This deviation by Ramlagan from his original statement before the Tribunal, the material contradictions in his and Deosaran's evidence regarding the circumstances under which Deosaran had got the knife said to have dropped from the hands of Lalta Prasad, absence of any corroboration of Deosaran's statement that he had got the knife from Ramanand Sirdar and that the latter had reported to him that Lalta Prasad was attacking with that knife, greatly shaked the credibility of their evidence before the Tribunal and on their evidence it is not possible for the Tribunal to conclude that on the relevant date Lalta Prasad was creating disorder by brandishing a knife. It is not disputed that these two witnesses belonged to a rival union, and evidence of Deosaran Singh himself sufficiently dictates that the feelings between the two unions were anything but cordial. In this view of the matter far better evidence than those of Deosaran Singh and Ramlagan was necessary to justify the dismissal of Lalta Prasad on the charges as contained in Ext. 1(a) and I hold that the evidence led by the company is too meagre and insufficient to make out the case that in the morning of 19th September 1962 Lalta Prasad was in possession of a knife or was creating disorder by brandishing a knife. It must, therefore, be held that his dismissal on charges as contained in Ext. 1(a) was not justified. He should, therefore, be reinstated in service with back wages.

This is my award, which must be implemented within a month from the date of its publication in the "Calcutta Gazette".

No. 1371-I.R./IR/11L-200/64.—5th April 1966.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 2295-I.R./IR/11L-200/64, dated the 20th June 1964, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Hind Plastic Works (P) Ltd., 33 Mohanlal Bahalwalla Road, P.O. Bally, Howrah and their workmen represented by Plastic Workers' Union, Dawnagazee Road, Bally, Howrah, regarding the issue mentioned in the said order being a matter specified in the third schedule to the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), was referred to the Fifth Industrial Tribunal for adjudication;

And whereas during the pendency of proceedings before the said Industrial Tribunal Shri Gopal Chatterjee, a workman of the said company, made a complaint in writing to the said Industrial Tribunal against the said company;

And whereas in exercise of the powers conferred by section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the said Industrial Tribunal has adjudicated upon the said complaint and submitted its award to the State Government;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, filed by Shri Gopal Chatterjee (represented by Plastic Workers' Union, 80 Dawnagazee Road, P.O. Bally, Howrah), a workman, against his employer Messrs. Hind Plastic Works (Pvt.) Ltd., Mohanlal Bahalwala Road, P.O. Bally, Howrah, in connection with G.O. No. 2295-I.R./IR/11L-200/64, dated 20th June 1964. (Case No. 28/65, under section 33A.)

AWARD

This is a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act by a single worker of Messrs. Hind Plastic Works (Pvt.) Limited. The Government of West Bengal in its Labour Department order No. 2295-I.R./IR/11L-200/64, dated 20th June 1964, referred a dispute between Messrs. Hind Plastic Works (Pvt.) Limited (hereinafter called the 'company') and their workmen for adjudication. During the pendency of the said adjudication relating to wages, Shri Gopal Chatterjee, one of the workmen of the company, was involved in a criminal case and was convicted and sentenced to a fine of Rs. 200 in default to one month's simple imprisonment on 7th December 1964, under section 84 of Act 39 of 1948. He did not pay the fine. He went to jaid. He was in jail from 7th December 1964 to 7th January 1965. He absented himself from his work during the period. The company by a letter Ext. 1, dated 22nd December 1964, asked Shri Chatterjee to report to duty by 25th December 1964. He actually got the letter on 8th January 1965 (vide Ext. B). Naturally he did not report to duty as required by the letter Ext. 1. He was intimated by a letter (Ext. 2), dated 12th January 1965, that his services under the company had been terminated with effect from 12th January 1965. The company did not make any application before the Tribunal under section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act. The worker, therefore, filed the instant complaint under section 33A on 10th March 1965, praying for his reinstatement in his post from 8th January 1965, with full compensation for the period of unemployment.

The company in reply stated that the complaint was not maintainable as the company had not contravened section 33. It was further stated by the company that the worker is not entitled to reinstatement or back wages as his services had been terminated in accordance with the Standing Orders applicable to the worker.

The points that arise for consideration of the Tribunal are:—

Is the complaint under section 33A entertainable?

If so, what relief if any, is the workman entitled?

The complaint under section 33A can only be filed if the employer has contravened any provision of section 33 during the pendency of a proceeding before the Tribunal. The proceeding pending before the Tribunal was in respect of wages and ended in an award on 26th February 1965. The dispute raised in this complaint is about termination of service or dismissal from service of a workman, that is, it is in respect of industrial dispute or matter not connected with the dispute in the proceeding under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act in this Tribunal. Therefore, section 33(1) is not attracted. It is said that there has been contravention of section 33(2)(b). That provision of section 33 requires an employer discharging a worker or punishing a worker, whether by dismissal or otherwise, for any misconduct in accordance with the Standing Orders applicable to a workman to pray for approval of the Tribunal of its such action. It is said that the company has punished the workman Shri Chatterjee, by terminating his services for his misconduct in remaining absent from work, in accordance with the Standing Orders applicable to him. The company's case is that it has not punished the workman but has merely terminated his services. The company does not dispute that Standing Orders applicable to the workman are the Bengal Government's Model Standing Orders and that absence without leave for more than 10 days is a misconduct under para. 14(3)(e) of it. So, the admitted position is this that the workman has been removed from service for his misconduct in accordance with the Standing Orders. The question is whether the Standing Orders provide for termination of service for such misconduct without a disciplinary proceeding. It appears from para. 14 of the Model Orders that a workman cannot be removed from service without starting a disciplinary proceeding against him for misconduct for absence without leave for more than 10 days. The company referred to para. 9(3) of the said Model Standing Orders to say that the service of the workman may be dispensed with without any disciplinary proceeding. The said paragraph does not, however, support the contention of the company. That refers to a quite different matter. It necessarily follows that a disciplinary proceeding ought to have been started against the workman for this misconduct if the company wanted to end his services. The company contended that this termination of service is not any "punishment" and therefore, it was not required for the company to make an application under section 33(2)(b) before the Tribunal. The question as to whether the termination of services in a given case is the result of the bona fide exercise of the power conferred on the employer by the contract of service or whether in substance, it is punishment for misconduct would always depend on the facts and circumstances of each case [vide 1960 (I), L.L.J., 587]. Here, it is not disputed that the company's right to terminate the services has to be found out Model Standing Orders. Nothing could be shown from the Model Standing Orders that the company has any right to terminate the services of any of its workmen for mere absence from work without leave for more than 10 days. Again, para. 13 of the Model Standing Orders provides that in terminating employment of a permanent workman, a notice in writing for one month has to be given. It is not stated on either side whether or not this workman was a permanent workman. The Tribunal on a consideration of these circumstances decides that this has been a termination of service of the workman by way of punishment. Section 33 has been contravened. The complaint under section 33A is entertainable.

In view of the above conclusion, the Tribunal proceeds to consider whether the worker is entitled to any relief as claimed by him, that is, reinstatement and/or back wages for period of unemployment. The facts are not in dispute that the workman was convicted on his own plea on 7th December 1964 (vide Ext 4). He was sentenced to a fine and in default to imprisonment. He did not pay the fine. He went to jail. He remained there from 7th December 1964 to 7th January 1965. Naturally he remained absent from his work for that period. He did not say that he intimated the company about his confinment or that he applied for leave. He could not have been in jail from 7th December 1964 to 7th January 1965, for under the Jail Code he would have got some remission during that one month and was certainly out of jail before 7th January 1965. He stated that he had only 14 or 15 days leave at his credit when he went to jail. So, even if he had applied for leave, his entire period of absence would not have been covered by it. It appears, therefore, that he would have been held to have been guilty of misconduct under para. 14(3)(e) of the Model Standing Orders and would have been dismissed for that. The fact further remains that no disciplinary proceeding was started, no charge-sheet was issued to him, no reply was taken from him and there was no enquiry before his dismissal. The question is whether because of that the Tribunal would reinstate him and direct payment of wages for the back period to him. The company relied on the case in A.I.R. 1965, Assam and Nagaland, page 30 to argue that even though no charge was framed or no enquiry was held, the rules of natural justice had not been violated. The ground of dismissal in this case is the continued absence of the employee for a period that was a misconduct entailing dismissal. It was observed in the case reported in A.I.R., 1957, S.C., 38, that when the ground of dismissal was the continued absence if enquiry, being in jail, and his inability to do work, it was difficult to see what purpose would be served by a formal charge-sheet being delivered to him and that considerable answer he could give thereto. Relying on these views expressed in these two cases, it should be held that the dismissal of the workman was justified and there was not any violation of the principle of natural justice in not issuing a charge-sheet or making an enquiry in the present case. The worker relied on the case reported in 1965 (II), L.L.J., page 112 to argue that even in that case, it was necessary to frame a formal charge and to give an opportunity to the workman to answer to it. That case is not applicable. That was a case of detention under the Preventive Detention Act, 1950. Here it was a case of conviction in a Court and again that on the plea of the worker himself that he was guilty. Again in this case, the worker was sentenced to pay a fine and he went to jail not paying that. In fact, the facts in the case relied on by the worker are quite different and proceeded on a different line from the facts of the present case.

It is necessary to consider another aspect of the worker's plea. He stated that he went to the company's office on 8th January 1965, and reported for work and that he was then told that his services had been terminated and a communication to that effect had already been sent (vide para. 6 of his petition). So that must have been on or after 12th January 1965 as Ext. 2 was sent on 12th January 1965. At the hearing, he gave evidence to say that. It was denied on company's side that the worker went to the company to report for duty on 8th January 1965. On the evidence, the Trbunal is of the view that the worker's submission in this respect is not correct. If he had really reported for duty on 8th January 1965, and were informed that his services had already been terminated, he certainly would have made a written communication to the company that very day as he sought to do by Ext. 4. He got the letter Ext. 1 on 8th January 1965, and knew from it that he was required to report for duty by 25th December 1964. He came to know from Ext. 1 that his services had been terminated, he having failed to report to duty by 25th December 1964. Even if he had reported to duty as he had stated, that was of no avail to him on 8th January 1965. He is not truthful. He stated in para. 6 of his W.S. that he got the letter on 9th January 1965, but it is proved from Ext. B that he really got that on 8th January 1965. The company was quite within its rights to end his services on 8th January 1965, even if he reported to duty that day. But the Tribunal holds on the evidence that the workman did not report to duty on 8th January 1965, or on 9th January 1965. The company knew that a case was started against the worker under section 84 of Act 39 of 1948 (vide Ext. 3). It is not the worker's case that the company got him convicted for victimising him. But that would and did not stand in the way of the company taking action against the worker for his absenting from duty for his being jailed. As the worker absented from duty and as the rules permitted termination for that, the company should not be held to have acted unjustly in dispensing with the services on that ground. The worker is not entitled to any relief in this complaint.

Accordingly the Tribunal rejects the complaint under section 33A on merits.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Bengal Electric Lamp Works Ltd., 137 P. C. H. Road, Calcutta-32 and their workmen represented by Bengal Electric Lamp Workers' Union, 142 P. C. H. Road, Calcutta-32 and Bengal Lamp Sramik Panchayat, 4 Prince Baktiar Shah Road, Calcutta-33 (Case No. VIII-179 of 1965).

BEFORE THE SECOND INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri AMBICA PADA BHATTACHARYA, Presiding Officer, Second Industrial Tribunal.

Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, by its order No. 3109-I.R./IR/10L-126/65, dated 9th July 1965, referred an industrial dispute between Messrs. Bengal Electric Lamp Works Ltd. and their workmen, represented by Bengal Electric Lamp Workers' Union and Bengal Lamp Sramik Panchayet for adjudication regarding the only issue contained in the order of reference.

Issue

Gratuity

This is a reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act. Issue raised is gratuity. The workmen filed written statement stating that Messrs. Bengal Lamp Works Ltd. is a premium electric lamp manufacturing company in India. The company stands on a very sound financial position and it earns huge profits. The production and sale are increasing every year. The unions claim that the workmen should be paid gratuity according to the scheme framed by the Tribunal.

The workers of the company are represented by two unions namely, Bengal Electric Lamp Workers' Union and Bengal Lamp Sramik Panchayet. Both the unions appeared and filed written statements on similar lines. The company in their written statement opposed the claim of gratuity on several grounds. The financial position of the company is not very steady and sound. It is not earning increasing profits as claimed by the unions. The company has to stand in competition with other manufacturing units having enormous financial resources. The company is a member of the Indian Lamp Factories Association and none of the members of that Association is in existence any scheme of gratuity. The import licence for raw materials had been drastically cut since 1963-64 as a result of the restrictions imposed by the Government of India. As a part of the import policy there had been total cut in the import licence for 1965. The raw materials for manufacturing of general lighting service lamps are to be imported from abroad. The Tariff Commission, on the other hand, is insisting upon lowering of prices of such lamps and the Government of India is formulating policy of manufacture of such lamps with foreign combines so that the future of indigenous industries in this line shall suffer a slump in its sales. It is further contended that the company being a party to the Omnibus Engineering award and the question of grades of pay being mixed up with the claim of gratuity the issue of gratuity cannot be raised except industry-wise. In the aforesaid circumstances the claim of gratuity should not be entertained by the Tribunal at the present moment.

Appearances of the parties are as follows:—

For the Company: Shri P. K. Sen Gupta, Advocate.

For B.E.L. Workers Union: Shri P. P. Pathak and Shri Sushavan Roy, President of the union.

For B. L. Sramik Panchayet: Shri D. L. Sengupta, Advocate, with Shri Anil Das Chowdhury, Advocate.

Findings

It is true that the company pays provident fund in terms of the Employees' Provident Fund Act. At present 8-1/3 per cent. is contributed towards Provident Fund. Nevertheless double retirement benefit by introduction of gratuity can be introduced to supplement provident fund contribution, if the company can bear the burden of such a scheme of gratuity. This has been laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in a decision reported in 1964, II, L.L.J page 131. In introducing a scheme of gratuity the following two principles should be borne in mind as has been laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in a decision reported in 1965, 1, L.L.J page 482:—

(i) Financial capacity of the employer on a long term view;

(ii) Schemes existing in other comparable units. It is in evidence that there are a number of general lighting service lamp manufacturers besides Bengal Electric Lamp Works. There is a group of manufacturers known in this industry as E.L.M.I (Hind) group. There is gratuity scheme prevailing in those companies. Bengal Electric Lamp Works is a member of I.L.F.A (Indian Lamp Factories Association) and there is no scheme of gratuity prevailing in any of the member of those Association. There is no evidence that the other members of I.L.F.A are comparable units with Messrs. Bengal Electric Lamp Works Ltd. Since other members do not have a scheme of gratuity, it is argued on the side of the company that no such scheme should be imposed upon this company. I am not impressed with this argument. The financial capacity of this particular employer on a long-term basis should be considered before introducing any such scheme. I will turn to the financial position as disclosed in the union's chart Ext. 4. Ext. 4 is a compilation of figures showing the net profit, share capital, reserves, dividend, production, sales and bonus collected from the balance-sheets of the company by Shri Sushavan Roy (P.W. 2), President of Bengal Electric Lamp Workers' Union. Figures for the last 10 years are furnished therein. The starting year is 1955-56. There had been a steady rise in the net profit from 1 lac rupees to 19½ lac of rupees in the year 1964-65. The reserve rose from Rs. 8 lacs to Rs. 32 lacs. It is significant to note that the amount of reserve exceeds the share capital. The payment of dividend is from 6¼ per cent. to 15 per cent. The production shows a steady progress. The volume of sale increased from 28 lacs of rupees to 86 lacs of rupees. The company used to pay one month's bonus and it is now paying six months bonus. The picture which is reflected in the company's balance-sheets is one of unique prosperity and steady progress. The main contention of the company appears to be that though in the past the company was prosperous but the future of the company is gloomy. It is contended that in the manufacture of electric lamps certain components of raw materials are necessary which are to be imported from abroad. The Government of India has imposed restriction upon such import and the volume of import licence of the company has undergone drastic cut. The company examined its Director Shri Tapas Roy and exhibited some documents to prove this fact. The applications for import licence and relevant documents are Ext. D series. Since 1962-63 there had been some cut in the volume of import licence. There had been progressive cut and it will appear from the evidence of Shri Roy that in 1964-65 there had been 30 per cent. cut. It is significant to note that inspite of the cut in the import licence the company was flourshing and its prosperity did not come to a halt. The progress had been very steady and sound inspite of the cut. This fact will show that the cut in the import licence had not adversely affected the company's production. The company purchased indigenous components or raw materials and since such raw materials were available in the country there was no necessity for import of the same. That explains the cut in the import licence for the purpose of saving foreign exchange. Such import was considered redundant by the Government of India. It is urged that in the year 1965-66 the import licence had not yet been received. Inspite of what is said on behalf of the company certain very significant fact and circumstances cannot be ignored. The country is passing through a successive five-year plans. We are anxious for more generation of electricity. Most of the industries require electric lamps. The country is progressing and even the villagers are having the benefit of supply of electric energy. The demand for general lighting service lamp is bound to be on the increase from day to day. One cannot dispense with the necessity of electric lamps any time in future. The industry accordingly has a great future and the question of slum in the sale is fantastic. There is another branch of argument advanced on the side of the company to say that since the components are manufactured by a group of manufacturers who dictate the price, the cost of production of electric lamp is going up which is apprehended to reflect adversely on the future of an industry. In this connection it is significant to note that if the cost of production goes up the price of manufactured articles would also be increased proportionately. Only recently the price of electric lamp had been increased by at least 20 per cent. which is admitted by Mr. Tapas Roy. Union urges that the price had been increased by more than 25 per cent. Price increase is invitable with the rise in the cost of production and the question of payment of gratuity is more insignicant factor in this respect. There should be harmony between capital and labour and the laour should not be deprived of its legitimate dues in feeding the capital. A very sound return is paid to the capital by way of dividend. From the above evidence it emerges that the company stands on a very sound and steady financial footing on taking a long ranging view of the same.

Now let me consider what is the approximate financial burden on the company if a gratuity scheme of usual pattern is introduced. It is significant to note that there is no age of retirement among the workers. Unless one retires, be it voluntary or compulsory, the question of payment of gratuity does not arise. If there is no retirement within the next few years there is no burden on the company on account of gratuity. The gratuity is not a constant financial burden. It is a burden which is to be paid over a number of years. Though there is no evidence but it is a matter of common knowledge that about 2 to 3 per cent. of workmen retire every year. The total number of workmen are 800. If 3 per cent. retiries, annual retirement would be of 24 person. The burden will depend upon the scheme which is proposed to be framed. The usual pattern of the scheme is as has been laid down in several decisions of the Supreme Court i.e.—

(a) minimum qualified service should be 10 years,

(b) the gratuity would be payable on death, discharge, voluntary or forced retirement or resignation before reaching the age of superannuation;

(c) it would be payable on retirement on superannuation;

(d) it would be payable on termination of service by the company for any reasons whatsoever;

(e) if it is a case of dismissal for misconduct resulting in loss is to be deducted from the amount of gratuity payable to the employee;

(f) for each year of completed service 15 days gratuity would be payable;

(g) the maximum amount of gratuity in any case would not exceed 15 months basic wages.

This is the usual pattern which I am proposing to introduce in this respect. The burden of such a scheme may be calculated in the absence of any other evidence in the following manner. Wages are covered by the Omnibus Engineering Award Unskilled workers draw a basic pay of Rs. 35 to Rs. 37½, semi-skilled Rs. 40 to 65; skilled Rs. 75 to 115, highly skilled Rs. 110 to Rs. 155. If I take the average of last pay drawn at Rs. 70 the maximum would be Rs. 70 × 15 × 24 = 14,700. The annual burden on account of gratuity would be roughly Rs. 15,000 only. I have already analysed the financial position of the company and the company is certainly in a position to bear a burden of such a scheme.

With regard to the scheme I have proposed, on the side of the union it is argued that at least 20 months ceiling should be fixed because the basic wages of engineering workers are not very high and in support of the same a case reported in 1964, 1, L.L.J page 342 is cited before me. In the reported case the scheme of 20 months maximum was approved by the Supreme Court in view of the fact that the Tribunal had relied on a number of cases in which the maximum is higher than 15 months wages. There is not a single instance before me where there is payment of gratuity for more than 15 months as the maximum. In the E.L.M.I group the gratuity is spread over with a ceiling of 15 months basic wages. Since I am introducing gratuity for the first time in the company, I think the ceiling of 15 months would be proper to accept which can be revised in future. I do not accordingly accept the unions' suggestion in this respect. On the point of payment of gratuity to an employee for dismissal for misconduct, my attention is drawn by the learned Advocate of the union two decisions reported in 1961, I, L.L.J page 513 and 1964, I, L.L.J page 342. In the reported case of 1964 at page 351 the relevant discussion occurs:—

The gratuity scheme was attacked on the point of deduction from the gratuity only to the extent of the financial loss occasioned by misconduct in case of dismissal for misconduct. The Supreme Court observes that this is the usual provision that is being made in that region. There is therefore authority for upholding the particular clause I have introduced in my scheme of gratuity. Shri Sengupta on behalf of the union wants me to frame the scheme of gratuity on total wages. In repelling this scheme advanced by Shri Sengupta I am supported by a decision of the Supreme Court reported in F.L.R 1966 Volume XII page 145—British Paint. In this case the Hon'ble Supreme Court considered as to whether gratuity should be paid on basic wage or on total wages and approved the Tribunal's scheme that it would be paid on basic wages excluding dearness allowance. Supreme Court has observed that this is the usual pattern. In conclusion therefore I hold that a gratuity scheme should be introduced with effect from 1st of April 1966 according to following pattern:

(a) minimum qualified service should be 10 years,

(b) the gratuity would be payable on death, discharge, voluntary or forced retirement or resignation before reaching the age of superannuation;

(c) it would be payable on retirement on superannuation;

(d) it would be payable on termination of service by the company for any reasons whatsoever;

(e) if it is a case of dismissal for misconduct resulting in loss to company in money or property, gratuity will be payable but the amount of loss is to be deducted from the amount of gratuity payable to the employee.

(f) for each year of completed service—15 days' gratuity would be payable; six months and above shown in a year will be treated one year service in calculating gratuity.

(g) the maximum amount of gratuity in any case would not exceed 15 months' basic wages.

This is the Tribunal's award. It will have effect from 1st April 1966.

Shri AMBICA PADA BHATTACHARYA, Presiding Officer, Second Industrial Tribunal.

By order No. 2406-I.R./IR/10L-140/65, dated Calcutta, the 9th August 1965, Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, referred an industrial dispute between Messrs. Ebrahimji Hassanbhoy and Sons and their workmen represented by Iron and Steel Workmen's Union for adjudication regarding the only issue contained in the order of reference.

Issue

Whether the refusal of employment to Shri Balai Ch. Naskar is justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

This is a reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act. The refusal of employment of Shri Balai Ch. Naskar is the issue. The union was served with notice and the acknowledgement will show that the notice was served on the Secretary on 27th August 1965. The notice was also served on the company. The union appeared through its Secretary on 14th September 1965, and prayed for an adjournment. The prayer was allowed to 16th October 1965. On that day the union again applied for time and time was allowed till 11th November 1965. On that day the union did not appear or file any written statement. Several dates were given but the union was not taking any step nor filing any written statement. Today was fixed for hearing of the matter but none of the parties appears. A 'no dispute' award is accordingly made.

AWARD

This relates to a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act by five workmen stating that their employer, Gopal Pure Oil Mills, has, in contravention of section 33 of the Act, laid them off without pay, during pendency of the proceeding in respect of gratuity, referred to this Tribunal under section 10 of between the said Oil Mills and their workmen. The workmen claim payment of full wages for the period of lay-off.

The employer in reply states that the workmen are not entitled to claim any wages for the period of lay-off as they themselves by the agreement, mentioned in the complaint, gave it up.

The complaint should be rejected as not maintainable. A complaint under section 33A cannot be entertained if it is not found that there has been any contravention of section 33. It is not disputed that the employer laid off those five workers from 1st August 1955, during the pendency of the proceeding in respect of gratuity started on the Labour Department order No. 1206-I.R./IR/15L-3/64, dated 19th March 1964, of the Government of West Bengal. It is also found in evidence that the number of workers employed in the Mill is less than 50. The workers did not say or prove that the lay-off was unjust. Again, the question whether a lay-off is justified or not cannot be a matter for investigation by a Tribunal—(1962 I, L.L.J., 382). Their only case is that non-payment of wages, during period of lay-off, is a contravention of section 33. The Supreme Court has held that "lay-off compensation" cannot be awarded on the ground of social justice or equity in case of workmen employed in an establishment employing less than 50 workmen—1962 (III, L.L.J., 667). So, more non-payment of wages during lay-off period is not any alteration of the conditions of service applicable to workmen nor is discharged or dismissal or any punishment. Again, payment of wages during lay-off period is not a condition of service. Lay-off is not concerned with condition of service or a dispute with the workmen. See 12 F.J.R. 378, section 33 has no application to payment of wages or compensation for lay-off period.

The question as to whether the workmen gave up their claim for wages during lay-off by settlement must also be answered in the affirmative. The settlement is Ext. 3. The workmen admit their signatures on it. They also state in para. 3 of their complaint that they were told, when giving signatures on it, that they were being laid-off without pay. P.W. 2 Ram Dular said that a copy of the settlement was given to them and he gave that to the union's representative. It is found that they gave up the claim of wages for the period voluntarily. Oral evidence of workers that their signatures were taken on a blank paper without informing them of the arrangement for non-payment of wages during lay-off period cannot be accepted. On this ground also, the complaint was not entertainable.

In the result, the Tribunal rejects the complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act.

BEFORE THE FOURTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL, CALCUTTA

Present:

Shri R. BHATTACHARYA, M.A., LL.B., Judge,
Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

For the Union: Shri J. Banerjee, Advocate.

For the Company: Shri P. P. Ginwala, Counsel.

The present reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act arises out of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Shalimar Paint Colour and Varnish Co. Ltd., (hereinafter described as the company), P.O. Botanic Garden, Howrah and their workmen represented by Shalimar Paint Employees' Union (hereinafter described as the union), 5 Dakshin Baksara Lane, Andul Road, Howrah, relating to the following issue:

Issue

Should the members of the clerical staff be paid gratuity in the event of death or permanent incapacity for further service before completion of the minimum qualifying period of service for gratuity under the company's Gratuity Scheme? If so, what should be the amount of such gratuity and the conditions for its payment?

The scope of this reference is very limited. The relief prayed for in this case relates to the clerical staff of the company's factory. Both the parties have filed their respective written statements. The union wants to say that the minimum qualifying period of service for gratuity under the company's gratuity scheme in the event of death or permanent incapacity for further service should be cut down to five years. The company, on the other hand, has stated that in case of death or incapacity for further service on medical ground the company under its rules pays gratuity if ten years of service is completed by the victim. It is contended that the qualifying period of service for gratuity should not be reduced to five years.

The union has examined its General Secretary as P.W. 1 and the company has examined its Personnel Officer as O.P.W. 1. No other witness has been examined in this case. On the side of the company an agreement between the company and the Shalimar Paint Works Workmen's Union representing the workmen has been filed. This is Ext. A. and it is dated 12th February 1965. It may be noted that there is another union of the workmen of the company known as the Shalimar Paint Works Workmen's Union. The union mentioned in the order of reference represents a section of the workmen of the company as well. At the time of argument, of course, locus standi of the union has not been challanged. It is not necessary that the majority of the workmen should support the union. It will be enough if a union representing an appreciable number of workmen raises a dispute on their behalf. In the present case however, I am satisfied that the union before me represents an appreciable and sufficient number of workmen of the company and I have no hesitation to hold that the present dispute is an industrial dispute. Witnesses examined in this case do not help the Tribunal materially by their evidence. It is proved that the company has following rule regarding gratuity:

"Gratuity is payable if an employee has to leave the service of the company on medical grounds or in case of death after completion of 10 years of service. The company may also at its discretion pay gratuity to an employee who resigns after completion of 10 years service.

Gratuity could also be payable in lieu of pension if an employee has to retire due to incapacity after he has completed 20 years of service.

Schedule of Gratuity:

10 years of service—4 month's salary.
15 years of service—6 month's salary.
20 years of service—10 month's salary.
25 years of service—13 month's salary.
30 years of service—16 month's salary.
35 years of service—19 month's salary.
40 years of service and over—20 month's salary.

Salary means basic salary based on an average basic salary of last 60 months, less 1/200 of the company's contribution to the Provident Fund. No dearness allowance is added.

For any period between the slabs in the Schedule of Gratuity proportionate gratuity is paid".

This rule applies to all the workmen of the company's factory irrespective of their union. The clerical staff of the company's factory want that in case of death or incapacity on medical ground every workman should be entitled to gratuity as soon as he completes five years of confirmed service. The union, of course, claims that gratuity equivalent to three workers basic wages or salary for each year of confirmed service should be paid to the employee or his nominee, heirs or executor, as the case may be. In the present reference my scope being very limited, I cannot revise and change the entire scheme of gratuity. I am only to see whether members of the clerical staff should be paid gratuity in the event of death or permanent incapacity for further service before completion of the minimum qualifying period of service before completion of the minimum qualifying period of service for gratuity under the existing gratuity scheme. If I am to extend the qualifying period for gratuity to the five years of service, the question of the amount of gratuity and the conditions for its payment will arise. According to the company's rule of gratuity, in case of death of a workmen or his leaving the service of the company on medical ground, he will be entitled to a gratuity if he completes ten years of service. The union, as I have already stated, wants to minimise the period to five years of service. The company, on the other hand, challenges the claim. Shri Ginwalla on the side of the company has contended that the company pays Provident Fund and pension under certain circumstances. Besides this double retiral benefits, the company allows gratuity in case of death or permanent incapacity provided the workmen in question completes ten years of service. Shri Ginwalla's contention is that gratuity being a reward for long service cannot be claimed by the workmen as a matter of right. Gratuity certainly in the ordinary sense implies reward for the service to the employer. The question is "when should the worker expect reward for his service?" Shri Ginwalla has said that unless a worker rendered long service, he cannot expect reward or gratuity. What is long service? "Long" means measuring much from and to end in space or time or protracted. There is no specific measure to define long service. On the whole, it implies a reasonably or fairly continuous or protracted service which may call for special consideration. In the present day society the relation between the employer and the employee has much improved. This relation should be tempered with human considerations and mutual sympathy and regard. The employer wants dependable and sincere workmen. Workmen also want that the employer should be considerate, sympathetic and sincere. There must be sense of security on either side. Social and moral justice demands that these considerations must be respected. A workman offers his service to the employer on the expectation that during his sincere service he will get all assistance and security from the employer. If this sense of security is lost, the entire atmosphere will be vitiated and an out burst may be the result at any time. The empolyer also expects that the employees will render his sincere service to him and that as a reward he will offer all his assistance to the empolyer especially in his distress. If a workman unfortunately in course of his sincere service in the prime of his youth suddenly meets an accident and gets incapaciated for further service on that account, will he not be disappointed if he finds that the employer turns his back to him without any sympathy or offering any reward for his hard and sincere work. This attitude of the employer will certainly add distress upon distress of the victim. If the employee dies in course of his service after rendering reasonable service to the employer, will not his families expect some sympathetic behaviour from the employer by way of consolation or otherwise? The mutual sympathy and consideration not only improve production in any industry but it also generates a spirit of friendliness and security between the workmen and the employer. Unless a workmen finds an atmosphere of security in the industry, he cannot work confidently and also sincerely. From all these considerations I am inclined to fix the minimum qualifying period of service for earning gratuity at five years of confirmed service. In the present case the company is not a loosing concern. It has means to pay gratpity in case of some casualties which may or may not occur in a year. Moreover, the burden will not be much. Five years of confirmed service is, I believe, a sufficiently long period for a workman or his family to earn gratuity in case of his permanent incapacity for further service on medical ground or unfortunate death. This gratuity will not only be a source of much assistance in sudden calamities but also be a source of consolation and satisfaction after the sincere service of the workman concerned.

When I have decided that the minimum qualifying period for earning gratuity should be five years of confirmed service, the question arises as to what should be the amount of gratuity payable after the completion of five years a confirmed service. The schedule of gratuity in the rule of the company is, on the whole, reasonable, and inconformity with the same I am inclined to allow two month's salary for the completion of five years of service as indicated. In the rule for gratuity hereinbefore quoted, in place of "after completion of ten years' service" substitute in the first sentence "after completion of five years of confirmed service". Under the column "schedule of gratuity" insert "five years of confirmed service... 2 (two) months' salary" above the line "10 years of service... 4 months' salary". The other rules regarding gratuity will remain the same. The meaning of salary will also remain the same.

The above decision of mine will not adversely affect the finance of the company. Neither will it prejudice any interest of the company in any way. On the other hand, the workmen will go on rendering service with easy heart and a sense of security. This award shall take effect from 1st of May 1965.

I should make it clear that my decision in this award will apply to the clerical staff only of the company's factory. The company, however, may, if it likes, consider whether this scheme for the clerical staff should be extended to all categories of workmen.

AWARD

The Government of West Bengal by order No. 2741-I.R./IR/11L-166/65, dated 28th June 1965, referred the following industrial dispute between Messrs. Alpine Dairy, Agarpara, P.O. Issue

Is the dismissal of Shri Sukharam justified? To what relief if any, is he entitled?

After the service of the usual notice, the employer had put in their written statement at first as directed and thereafter the workman represented by the union had put in their written statement. In the written statement submitted by the employer, validity and legality of the reference has been challenged. It has been stated that there was never any conciliation proceeding with regard to the alleged wrongful dismissal of Shri Sukharam and no failure report under section 12(4) of the Industrial Disputes Act has been submitted to the Government by the Conciliation Officer. In fact, there was a proceeding under section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act before the Conciliation Officer Shri S. K. Mitra, Assistant Labour Commissioner, West Bengal, Barrackpore, as a conciliation proceeding with regard to another industrial dispute was pending before him. The union had made representation regarding the proceeding under section 33(2)(b) before the Conciliation Officer and after hearing the employer and the concerned workman Shri Sukharam, the Learned Officer Shri Mitra had granted on 10th June 1965 the application under section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act and had approved the action of the management in dismissing Shri Sukharam from service. There had been no conciliation proceeding regarding the alleged wrongful dismissal of Shri Sukharam after 10th June 1965 and before 28th June 1965 when the reference was made by the Government of West Bengal to this Tribunal. In these circumstances it is said that the reference is invalid and illegal and the Tribunal cannot proceed to adjudicate regarding the alleged dispute over the alleged wrongful dismissal of Shri Sukharam from service. With regard to the merits it is said that Shri Sukharam had committed gross misconducts on 24th March 1965 and 25th March 1965 and accordingly a charge-sheet was issued to him. The concerned workman had submitted explanation which appeared to be unsatisfactory and thereafter a domestic enquiry was held with due notice to the workman. The workman appeared at the domestic enquiry and every reasonable opportunity was granted to him to establish his defence. Subsequently the Enquiring Officer had submitted his finding and the management, after considering the materials collected at the domestic enquiry and the findings of the Enquiring Officer, had dismissed the concerned workman. But as some dispute which was not connected with the dismissal of Sukharam was pending before Shri S. K. Mitra, the employer had filed the petition under section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act, and the officer by his order, dated 10th June 1965, had approved the action of the management holding inter alia that the action of the company was bona fide.

In the written statement submitted on behalf of the workman it is alleged that there are about 200 workmen in various departments, sections and other establishment including Head Office and Sales Office, that the employer did not like that the workmen should be engaged in Trade Union activities, that on or about September 1961, the workmen had formed a Trade Union Organisation under the name and style of the "Alpine Dairy Workers' Union" and the union was also duly registered under the Indian Trade Union Act, 1926, and that most of the employees are members of this union. The concerned workman Shri Sukharam had taken the leading part in the formation of the union and he is one of the signatories in the application for registration of the union. After the formation of the union it had placed a charter of demands and also raised a dispute regarding the bonus for the years 1961, 1962 and 1963. The concerned workman Shri Sukharam had taken the leading part in placing the demands before authorities and the Manager tried many a time to pursuade Shri Sukharam to give up his trade union activities. Shri Sukharam had been working in the Dairy since 1st December 1951 and was elected as the Secretary to the union on 13th June 1964. Shri Sukharam had represented the union in connection with the industrial disputes and in fact, had signed agreements with the employer. The employer knew of the union activities of Sukharam. Subsequently on 11th February 1965, a representation was submitted to the Assistant Labour Commissioner, Barrackpore, claiming security of service and the permanency of the so-called temporary workmen. On 1st March 1965 a charter of demands was placed with the Manager of the Dairy claiming recognition of the union, classification and designation of the workmen, formation of a Standing Orders, permanency, quarters or quarter-allowance, rate of contribution to the Provident Fund, opening of fair price shop, night shift and fooding allowance, etc. After the submission of that charter of demands, the employer tried to break the solidarity of the union by victimising the leading officials and Shri Sukharam was made the first victim. On 12th March 1965, a reminder was sent to the Manager regarding the charter of demands and thereafter on 24th March 1965, the Assistant Labour Commissioner convened tri-partite meetings to settle the dispute through conciliation. During the pendency of his conciliation proceeding, the management served a charge-sheet, dated 26th March 1965, on the concerned workman containing false allegation with evident motive of victimisation. Shri Sukharam was suspended forthwith. He however, submitted his fitting reply to the charge-sheet on 25th March 1965. On that date, a general representation by the workmen was submitted to the Manager. Subsequently by the letter, dated 29th March 1965, the Manager informed that there would be an enquiry regarding the allegations contained in the charge-sheet. It also stated that Sukharam would be allowed apportunities to cross-examine the witnesses of the company and to produce witnesses, oral and documentary in his defence. After the receipt of this notice, Shri Sukharam sent a letter, dated 31st March 1965, to the Manager informing him that Shri Abdul Hakim, one of his co-workers would represent him before the enquiry and he was therefore authorised to examine his witnesses and to cross-examine the witnesses of the management. Shri Sukharam also submitted the names of the witnesses who were to be examined in defence. On 31st March 1965, a show of enquiry was held by Shri S. N. Chatterjee, the Enquiring Officer. It then transpired that Md. Idris and Shri H. Chakraborty had made written complaints against Shri Sukharam to the Manager. Shri Hakim asked the Enquiring Officer to produce the said report and to prove the said report with copies to him. The Enquiring Officer however, refused to comply with the request and also did not allow Shri Hakim to examine the witnesses for Sukharam. The proceedings which had not been correctly recorded were also not read over and explained to Shri Sukharam and to the witnesses by the Enquiring Officer and no copy of the proceeding was also made over. Therefore, the principles of natural justice has been grossly violated. In fact, Shri Hakim had sent a written protest on 1st April 1965 against the procedure adopted by the Enquiring Officer. This letter, dated 1st April 1965, was replied to by the letter, dated 2nd April 1965, and subsequently on 5th April 1965 Shri Sukharam had sent another letter reiterating the contentions of Abdul Hakim. However, the employer dismissed Shri Sukharam by the letter, dated 5th April 1965, during the pendency of the conciliation proceeding and thereafter had submitted the application under section 33(2)(b) of the Inlustrial Disputes Act, for approval. On 8th April 1965 a representation was submitted by the union to the Manager against the illegal and unjustified dismissal of Shri Sukharam and claiming his reinstatement with all back wages. Subsequently on 25th April 1965 a mass representation was submitted to the Manager against the dismissal of Shri Sukharam. Though the conciliation proceeding in respect of other disputes and also the disputes regarding the dismissal of Shri Sukharam was pending before the Conciliation Officer, the Conciliation Officer had approved the action of the management regarding the dismissal of Shri Sukharam. As the workmen were dissatisfied with the decision of the Conciliation Officer, they had staged one day strike to record their protest against the decision of the management and of the Conciliation Officer. Thereafter the Conciliation Officer had submitted his report to the Government and the Government had referred the dispute to the Industrial Tribunal for adjudication. With regard to the question of invaildity and illegality of the reference, it is stated that as the dispute could not be settled through conciliation proceeding, the Conciliation Officer had submitted the report under section 12(4) of the Industrial Disputes Act to the Government and the Government on being satisfied regarding the existence of the dispute, had made the reference to this Tribunal for adjudication. The reference is therefore, quite legal and valid. It is paid that the charge-sheet contained false and baseless allegations, that the domestic enquiry was not held in accordance with the principles of natural justice and that in view of the infirmities regarding the domestic enquiry including the putting of motivated questions to the concerned workman and witnesses, the dismissal must be regarded to be unjustified. It has been prayed that the concerned workman may be reinstated in service with all back wages.

The case was opened on 18th March 1966, and the learned Advocate Shri A. K. Dutta appearing for the employer, had raised a preliminary objection regarding the invalidity of the reference. I have heard both Shri Srimani appearing for the union and Shri A. K. Dutta appearing for the employer. Shri Srimani was unable to produce any document to show that in fact, any dispute regarding the alleged wrongful dismissal was at all raised before the management or before the Conciliation Officer Shri S. K. Mitra. Shri Srimani thereafter filed a petition praying that the file of the Conciliation Officer including the failure report under section 12(4) of the Industrial Disputes Act may be called for from the Assistant Labour Commissioner, Barrackpore, in the interest of justice. I have acceded to that request of Shri Srimani. The file has been inspected both by Srimani and Shri Dutta and also by me. It appears that after Shri Mitra had passed the order approving the action of the management on 10th June 1965, no dispute was at all raised before the Conciliation Officer or before the management after 10th June 1965. Shri Srimani had conceded ultimately that in fact, no dispute was raised after 10th June 1965 and no conciliation proceeding was held regarding the dispute in respect of the alleged wrongful dismissal of Shri Sukharam. There is no doubt, that there is the failure report by Shri Mitra, dated 11th June 1965, Shri Mitra has perhaps overlooked that he did not give notice to the parties to appear before him for the purpose of conciliation regarding dispute over the alleged wrongful dismissal of Shri Sukharam. There is no doubt that there were some letters by the union before 10th June 1965, in which the legality and validity of the dismissal of Shri Sukharam had been challenged. There is only one letter after 10th June 1965, viz., the letter, dated 13th June 1965. In that letter also, the question of the legality and validity of the alleged wrongful dismissal had not been raised. I do not understand, how the letter, dated 13th June 1965, can be regarded to be relevant because the failure report was submitted by Shri Mitra on 11th June 1965. It is therefore, abundantly clear that there had been no conciliation proceeding at all regarding the alleged wrongful dismissal of Shri Sukharam and therefore there cannot be any reference by the Government of West Bengal regarding the alleged wrongful dismissal of Shri Sukharam on the basis of the alleged failure report under section 12(4) of the Industrial Disputes Act, dated 11th June 1965. The preliminary objection raised by Shri Dutta is therefore, upheld and the reference is held to be invalid and illegal.

In view of my above findings, the parties did not adduce any evidence regarding the enquiry or regarding any other facts which had been alleged in the written statements. I therefore express no opinion regarding any other contention which had been in the written statements of the parties.

The result is that the reference by the Government of West Bengal is held to be illegal and invalid and is therefore, rejected.

This is my award.

AWARD

This is an application under section 33A of the I. D. Act. The grievance of the employee as set forth in the said application is as follows :

An industrial dispute covered by reference No. 3444-I.R./IR/11L-57/58 of 18-8-58 was ponding between the parties. In spite of the pendency of the industrial dispute aforesaid the company oposite party terminated the service of the instant applicant on 6-5-63 without any reason or rhyme whatsoever, thus violating section 33 of the I. D. Act. The company did so evidently because the employee happened to be a member of the Hindusthan Refractories Shramic Union and this was of course never liked by the company itself. Hence with intent to do harm to the employee and to punish him the termination order was issued in favour of the employee much to his prejudice. Hence the instant application under section 33A for reinstatement and for back wages with compensation.

The aforesaid application has been seriously opposed by the company opposite party. The company's case is that the termination of service of the applicant is nothing but a case of simple termination effectd in accordance with clause 8(f) of the Standing Order of the company. The company has denied that the employee was ever victimised as alleged or that the employee was ever dismissed on the ground of misconduct. As there was no violation of section 33, section 33A of the I. D. Act is not attracted and as such this Court has got no jurisdiction whatsoever to entertain the instant application preferred by the employee.

The points for my consideration in the instant case will be whether the termination of the employee-applicant is a case of simple termination in accoroance with the Standing Orders of the company or whether in substance it is a punishment imposed upon the employee with intent to do him harm. It is well-known now-a-days that section 33A of the I. D. Act occupies a very unique place in the Act itself, in the sense that this section alone allows a person to raise on individual dispute before a Court of Law so much so that the Court is bound to look into the matter and to decide for itself as to whether the grievence is real. Naturally the entire burden is cast upon the applicant to prove that the company has violated the provision laid down in section 33 of the I. D. Act and that he has been victimised by the company most unlawfully during the pendency of an industrial dispute between the parties. Now in the instant case it is an undisputed fact that an industrial dispute covered by reference No. 3444-I.R, dated 18-8-58 was pending in the year 1963, that the applicant employee was an occupant of the company's quarter situate within the factory, that for some reason or other the applicant did not turn up to join his work on and from the 23rd of April 1963, and that a registered letter was served upon him requesting him to explain his absence. The case of the employee as adumberated in para. 16 of the Written Statement is that he was in the bad book of the company for his being a member of the Hindusthan Refractories Shramik Union, that the entire thing was never favoured by the management and that therefore with intent to do him harm his service was suddenly terminated by the company on and from 6th May 1963 without any reason whatsoever. The question naturally arises whether the employee has tried to prove this case as set up in the said para.

The answer is clearly in the negative. No parole evidence was adduced by the employee during trial nor a scrap of paper was filed to show why, how and in what fashion the company wanted to do him harm. The company has filed some documents and these documents have been admitted by the applicant. These documents would show that the applicant remained absent for more than 10 days, thus attracting rule 8(f) of the Standing Orders. The Standing Orders filed by the company (vide page 3 thereof) lays down that "if the employee remains absent for more than 8 days without due intimation and notice thereof his name shall stand struck off from the factory's roll". The applicant employee wants me to believe that he had come to join his duties all these 8 or 10 days but that the company did not allow him to do so. This is a most strange and improbable plea. I would have believed even this strange or absurd thing provided the applicant would have come forward to stand the test of cross-examination. The applicant has not venturd to do so nor he cited any dis-interested witness from outside to provide his fantastic story. As admittedly the worker did not work from 23rd April to 6th of May 1963 and as there is no credible evidence on record to show that the applicant was restrained from doing so it must be presumed that the Standing Orders laid down in clause 8(f) was wilfully violated by the employee applicant disentitling him thus to get any relief whatsoever under section 33A of the I. D.Act The result is that the instant application under section 33A stands condemned. It is dismissed on contest. In my award the applicant is entitled to no relief whatsoever.

AWARD

The Government of West Bengal by order No. 4032-I.R./IR/11L-204/65, dated 13th September 1965, had referred the following industrial dispute between Messrs. Mahakali Rice Mill, Calcutta-53 and their workmen represented by the Food Mazdoor Union, 97 Hazra Road, Calcutta-26, to this Tribunal for adjudication.

Issue

Is the termination of service of Shri Mulchand Sukla justified ? To what relief, if any, is he entitled ?

After the service of usual notice, the employer had put in the written statement at first as directed and thereafter the workman represented by the union had submitted the written statement. In the written statement submitted on behalf of the employer it is said that the Mill is a seasonal factory and remains closed for 5 months during the rainy season from July to October in the year. But due to unavoidable reasons including non-availability of paddy at controlled rates, no work was done in the Mill since March 1964. The concerned workman began to work as a durwan of the Mill from July 1955 but he had only worked for a certain period as mentioned below :—

From			To

16-6-56	..	..	30-4-57
1-9-57	..	..	25-4-58

29-5-60	..	..	4-4-63
1-7-63	..	..	15-5-64
12-6-64	..	..	24-10-64

It is also stated that during the intervening period Shri Sukla used to go home without leave, that Shri Sukla had worked till 24th October 1964 and had received in full his dues and went away to his home. He did not at all rejoin his work at the rice Mill and so far as the Rice Mill is concerned Shri Sukla had ceased to be in employment on and from 24th October 1964. Lastly, it is stated that Food Mazdoor Union is connected with Dal Mills and it is not a recognised union of the Rice Mills. In the circumstances, it is said that the concerned workman is not entitled to get any relief from this Tribunal.

In the written statement submitted on behalf of the union it is said that Shri Sukla had been working as a durwan for the last 30 years, that the allegations regarding the period of service are frivolous and false, that Shri Sukla obtained leave and permission from the Mill whenever he went home and in fact obtained permission from the Mill when he went home on 24th October 1964. He again joined service on 15th December 1964 and had worked from that date till 7th March 1965. On 7th March 1965 the employer asked him not to work but did not issue any charge-sheet or show any reason. As Shri Sukla is a permanent durwan, he is entitled to get retrenchment benefit at the rate of 15 days' wages per year of service and also one month's pay in default of notice. It is prayed that the concerned workman may be given retrenchment benefits and also damages.

After the case was opened by the learned Advocate Shri H. N. Roy for the employer and the learned Advocate Shri R. P. Sukla for the union, there was a talk of compromise and both parties had filed a joined petition of compromise signed by Shri H. N. Roy for the employer and Shri Behari Lal Agarwalla, Proprietor of Shree Mahakali Rice Mill and by Shri R. P. Sukla for the union. It appears that the employer is to pay Rs. 500 as compensation on 4th April 1966 in full and final settlement of all the claim of Shri Sukla against the Mill. I have heard the persons who had signed the petition of settlement and also the concerned workman. It appears that the terms of settlement are reasonable, legal and proper and should be given effect to. I therefore, pass a "No-dispute" award making the petition of settlement an annexure to this award.

This is my award.

AWARD

The Government of West Bengal by order No. 3427-I.R./IR/11L-142(B)/65, dated the 10th August 1965, had referred the following industrial dispute between Messrs. Behar Potteries Ltd., P.O. Hindusthan Cables, Rupnarayanpur, district Burdwan and their workmen represented by the Behar Potteries Ltd. Mazdoor Union, Rupnarayanpur, P.O. Hindusthan Cables, district Burdwan, to this Tribunal for adjudication.

Issue

Whether the dismissal of Shri Sarju Mahato is justified ? To what relief, if any, is he entitled ?

After the service of usual notice, the employer had put in the written statement at first as directed, and thereafter the union representing the workmen had put in their written statement. In the written statement submitted by the employer, it is stated that Sarju Mahato was found to be sleeping on duty at 2-45 a.m. on 19th September 1964 and accordingly a charge-sheet was issued on that date. Sarju Mahato had replied to that charge-sheet by the letter, dated 23rd September 1964. As the explanation was not found to be satisfactory, the employer decided to hold the enquiry, and accordingly, by the letter, dated 23rd September 1964, intimated to Shri Mahato that the enquiry would be held on 26th September 1964. At the time of enquiry Shri M. P. Gurjar, who is the Secretary of the company, the Manager and Sarju Mahato were present. The worker Shri Antu and Shri Dukhit Show were also present. The Manager conducted enquiry and the proceedings were recorded by Shri B. K. Roy. Subsequently by the letter, dated 30th October 1964, the enquiring officer had submitted his finding to the Director-in-charge and requested for his instructions and the Director-in-charge asked the Manager to use his own discretion. Subsequently the company after careful consideration of the facts and circumstances had dismissed Shri Mahato from service with effect from 12th November 1964 by the letter, dated 11th November 1964. The company, however, verbally told Shri Mahato who worked as the Kiln fireman, T. No. 47, that he might be taken back in service on giving an undertaking that he will not sleep on duty in future. Subsequently at the instance of the union, the matter, was referred to the Assistant Labour Officer, Asansol, and before him the company explained the facts and circumstances of the case. It is further stated that the klin firing is a final and most sensible stage in the process of manufacturing refractory and any kind of negligence in firing can damage the whole contents and that Sarju Mahato has got employment in Busukh Ceramics Ltd. at Serampore, district Burdwan, in the same week he was dismissed. Sarju Mahato is therefore no longer interested to serve the company. In the cirmustances, it is stated that Sarju Mahato is not entitled to any relief.

In the written statement submitted by the union, it has been stated that at the enquiry, the principle of nutral justice has been violated as the workman concerned was examined and cross-examined at first and as leading questions had been put to the witnesses on behalf of the company. It is further stated that Sarju Mahato was dismissed from the services of the company with effect from 12th November 1964, though the enquiring officer had mentioned that the dismissal is not the only punishment that could be inflicted for the misconduct, that Sarju Mahato was promised employment on condition that he would give an undertaking that he would never sleep during duty hours and work diligently and that it is not correct to say that Sarju Mahato had been serving elsewhere. It is therefore prayed that an award may be passed directing the company to reinstate Sarju Mahato with full back wages for the period of unemployment.

Decision

At the time of the opening of the case Shri S. R. Singh appearing for the employer had very fairly conceded that there are infirmities regarding enquiry, as pointed by Shri Phani Ghose appearing for the union. Shri Singh stated that in the circumstances, he will not rely on the enquiry being held regarding the charge-sheet against Sarju Mahato and will proceed on the basis that there had been really no enquiry, and will therefore, try to establish the allegations made in the charge-sheet by adducing evidence before this Tribunal. In view of this submission made by Shri Singh appearing for the employer it is not necessary for me to discuss the evidence regarding the issue of the charge-sheet and the holding of the enquiry. I shall proceed to consider the evidence adduced before the Tribunal regarding the alleged misconduct. Now the charge-sheet was issued under paragraph 12(x) of the standing orders of the company (Ext. H). It has been provided therein that sleeping whilst on duty is misconduct. Now the charge-sheet (Ext. A) shows that Shri Mahato was sleeping during his duty time i.e. at 2-45 am. on 19th September 1964. Before me, Shri Gurjar (P.W. 1) had stated that he had found Shri Mahato sleeping at about 2-45 a.m. on 19th September 1964 and then came back and asked another fireman Shri Antu to wake him up. His further evidence is that Dukhit who is another fireman was also sleeping and by the time Antu came there, Sarju and Dukhit awoke and thereafter, he asked both the persons to fire and went away. It is also said by him that in the morning of 19th September 1964, he had reported the matter to the Manager and subsequetnly the charge-sheet was issued to Sarju Mahato. At the time of cross-examination, P. W. 1 had stated that excepting himself, nobody saw Sarju sleeping. Nothing therefore appear in the crosx-examination which would show hat the evidence of P. W. 1 cannot be accepted. hri Phani Ghose appearing for the union had declined to adduce any oral or documentary evidence. He did not also examine the concerned workman, Shri Mahato. In the circumstances, I cannot accept the submission of Shri Phani Ghose that the charge against Sarju Mahato has not been established. It is of course ture that Shri Antu had not been examined in this case by the employer to corroborate the evidence of Shri Gurjar, but according to the evidence of Gurjar, both Sarju and Dukhit woke up by the time Antu came there. Therefore, nothing turns on the fact that Antu had not been examined by the employer. Further, though there was a defective enquiry, still the fact remains that the management has issued the charge-sheet and had proceeded to hold some sort of enquiry into the alleged misconduct of Shri Mahato. That is a circumstance which in a way corroborates the evidence of Shri Gurjar. It may also be pointed out that in paragraph 3 of the written statement of the union, it has been admitted that Sarju Mahato was promised employment on condition that he would give an undertaking that he would never sleep during duty hours and would work diligently. Evidently this undertaking was never given by Shri Mahato. Now, if really Sarju had not slept during working hours, there would be no occasion for the employer to ask for a written undertaking that Sarju Mahato would not sleep any further during duty hours. Considering the evidence and circumstances, there is no doubt at all that Shri Mahato is guilty of misconduct of leeping during duty hours.

Shri Phani Ghose next submitted that even if it be supposed that the charge has been brought home against Sarju Mahato, the punishment of dismissal must be regarded to be out of proportion to the guilt. I do not think that this question really arises for consideration in this case when the enquiry is conceded to be no enquiry at all. The order of dismisaal consequent on the enquiry must fall with the enquiry itself. It is quite true that the letter of the enquiring officer (Ext. E), dated 30th October 1964, shows that the enquiring officer had pointed out that the workman can either be dismissed or suspended for a maximum 4 days, but this letter has relation only to the enquiring proceeding and as the enquiry proceeding has failed, no importance now attaches to the recommendations made by the Manager who held the enquiry.

The next submission by Shri Phani Ghose appearing for the union is that at least the concerned workman is entitled to full wages for forced unemployment and the award which this Tribunal may pass, must be regarded to be effective only from the date of the award itself. In this connection, Shri Ghose had referred me to the ruling reported in 1961 L.L.J., (II), 644 (Bharat Sugar Mill Ltd., v. Jaysingh). In that case, the Supreme Court held that the Tribunal's order in refusing permission to dismiss some workmen was entirely wrong and unjust. Their Lordships, however, had granted the permission only from the date of the judgment of the Supreme Court, as stay of the order was not granted when the special leave was given and still the workmen concerned were not allowed to work or paid their wages. Therefore, there were special circumstances in the case referred to above by Shri Ghose, Shri Singh appearing for the company had submitted that Shri Mahato got his employment soon after the dismissal by the company, and therefore, he cannot be ordered to be reinstated in service. As I have found above that the misconduct against the concerned workman had been established I do not think the workman can be ordered to be Reinstated in service. After all the work of a fireman is a responsible job and unless the fireman attends to his duty during duty hours, there is a risk of loss to the company who is the employer. I think the concerned workman should, however, be paid 3/4th of his wages for the period of forced unemployment up to this date (31st March 1966).

I direct the employer to pay 3/4th of his wages for the period of forced unemployment up to 31st March 1966 within one month of the date of the publication of the award in the "Calcutta Gazette".

This is my award. The prayer for reinstatement is refused.

AWARD

The Government of West Bengal, by order No. 3204-I.R./IR/11L-400/64, dated the 17th July 1965, has referred the following industrial dispute between Messrs. East Indian Railway Employees, Co-operative Credit Society Ltd., 17 Netaji Subhas Road, Calcutta-1 (hereinafter referred to as the employer) and their workmen represented by the E.I. Rly. E.C.C.S. Men's Congress, 177B Lower Circular Road, Calcutta-14 (hereinafter referred to as the Congress), to this Tribunal for adjudication.

Whether the workmen are entitled to pay protection in basic pay as a result of the introduction of new pay scales in 1964 effective from 1959? If so, what should be the quantum of such pay protection?

After the service of usual notice, the workmen represented by the Congress had submitted their written statement at first as directed, and thereafter, the employer had submitted the written statement. In the written statement submitted by the Congress, on behalf of the workmen, it has been stated that the Co-operative Credit Society had been registered under the Co-operative Societies Act, the membership being confined to the employees of the Eastern Railway, Allahabad Division of Northern Railway, Chittaranjan Locomotive Works, Railway Board and Railway Electrification Project, and the number of share-holders would exceed one lac. The society about 220 workmen belonging to different categories, such as, cashier, assistant cashier, internal auditor, clerks, stenographers, typists, comptometer operators, record-keepers, store distributors, dauftry, jamaders, peons, farash, etc. Before September 1961, the grades and scales of pay and other amenities were meagre, even though in most of the Co-operative Societies of all the employees of other Railways grades and scale of pay and other amenities were at par with the Railways. In September 1961, the Society had passed a resolution in a meeting of the Managing Committee on 4th September 1961, and inter alia revised grades and scales of all the employees, and the intention was that the revised grades and scales would be at par with the grades and scales of the Railways as recommended by the Second Central Pay Commission. These revised grades and scales were given effect from 1st July 1959. In Annexure A. a statement has been submitted showing revised grades and scales of pay. In that statement, besides the other employees, the grades and scales of pay of the Secretary, the Deputy Secretary, Accountant and the Assistant Secretary and also the special pay and special allowances of Comptometer operators, and signature verifiers, had been shown. After the revision, certain anomalies and disparities were discovered and representations were made to remove them. Subsequently, the Managing Committee of the Society by the resolution, dated 28th February 1963—being resolution No. 15A, had removed the said anomalies and discrepancies. By that resolution, it was, inter alia, provided that the Managing Committee would adopt the Railway pay scales and allowances for the Society staff except the grant of city compensatory allowance which the committee was not in a position to sanction in view of the increase in emoluments by the acceptance of the Railway pay scales and in view of the financial position of the Society. It is also provided that the age of superannuation for the staff would be raised from 55 to 58 years with effect from 1st July 1963, and that the staff attaining the age of 55 years between 28th February 1963 and 1st July 1963 would be treated as on continuous service, and would be brought under new rules when the same came into effect from 1st July 1963. There were also certain other provisions regarding the promotion of office staff to the intermediate grades and also regarding the supervisory clerks. These conditions continued till the end of May 1964. The Managing Committee of the Society by the resolution, dated 22nd May 1964, again purported to revise the grades and scales of pay with effect from 1st July 1959 and stated that the members of the staff would be fitted in the grades and scales in accordince with the rules in the railway authorised scales. In the matter of fixation, however, the Society had deviated from the principle and effected the fixation to the detriment of the interests of the employees. The result was that about 150 employees had been more or less prejudicially affected so far as their emoluments are concerned. The majority of the employees made a representation to the Secretary of the Society by the letter, dated 22nd April 1964 and sought for redress. The letter had been marked as Annexure B to the written statement. As the Secretary did not reply to the letter, dated 22nd April 1964, another letter, dated 15th June 1964, was written to the Chairman of the Society. The copy of the letter had been marked as Annexure C. The Chairman also did not reply to that letter, and therefore, the workmen wrote to the Labour Directorate, Government of West Bengal, by their letter, dated 27th June 1964. The workmen have also submitted Annexure D showing the nature and extent of loss in the matter of emoluments, in the matter of fixation in the revised grades and scales of pay introduced in June 1964. In columns 3 and 4 of that statement, the correct position according to the Congress, on proper fixation, had been stated. In the matter of fixation of the pay of the Secretary, the Society had decided to fix his pay in the authorised scales at Rs. 80 plus Rs. 20 as personal pay with effect from the relevant date and also decided that the personal pay would be absorbed in future increments. Though this has been done in the pay of the Secretary, the Society did not adopt the same principle in the cases of clerical and other staff. It is also stated that there had been reduction of the basic wages of the employees varying from Rs. 16 to Rs. 24. It is therefore prayed that pay protection in the basic pay may be granted on the basis of the relevant figures as given in column 3 of Annexure D by way of illustration.

In the written statement submitted on behalf of the employer, a preliminary objection has been taken. It has been alleged that in view of sections 86 and 87 of the Bengal Co-operative Society Act, 1940, the reference is invalid and the Tribunal has no jurisdiction to adjudicate upon the alleged dispute which touches the business of the Society. It is further stated that in view of section 31 of the Industrial Disputes (Amendment and Miscellaneous Provision) Act, 1956, the Industrial Disputes Act has no application in the present case, and the Registrar of Co-operative Society is the proper authority to decide the dispute. There is another objection to the effect that the existing pay structure was brought about on the demand of the E. I. R. E. C. C. S. Employees' Union which was the only existing union at the time representing the workmen of the Society and that the E. I. R. E. C. C. S. Men's Congress which represents only a minor section of the workmen of the Society came into being only in 1964. It may be mentioned here that Shri Das Gupta appearing for the employer did not press this objection even at the time of opening the case. It is therefore unnecessary to refer to this matter any further.

Regarding merits, it is stated that with effect from 1st January 1947, the Indian Railways introduced the Central Pay Commissioner's scales of pay for all their staff and the committee also adopted from that date the same for their ministerial staff. With effect from 1st July 1949 the Central Pay Commission's scales were replaced by authorised scales of pay of the Railways and the Society while mainly adopting the scales decided that the city compensatory allowance paid to their staff should be merged in their pay while fixing them in the authorised scale. This decision was arrived at by the Managing Committee on 4th September 1961 and the effect was given from the relevant date, viz., 1st July 1959. The result was that the fixation was made at a much higher level taking into account the compensatory city allowance enjoyed by them. The city compensatory allowance was thereafter not granted separately, but the members of the staff got the house rent allowance and the D.A. when the railway accepted different rates regarding D.A. The Society also paid the D.A. at the railway rates. It had, however, its own scales of house rent allowance which continued to be in force. The then union, viz., E. I. R. E. C. C. S. Employees' Union, however, continued to press for introduction of the railway rules in their entiety, namely, pay scales and all other allowances percentage of higher grades, percentage of selection posts in higher grades, method of promotion to higher grades etc. After the discussion by the sub-committee, it was felt that while the railway rules should be introduced for the Society staff in all the matters, there was no justification for grant of compensatory city allowance separately, inasmuch as the Society staff were not transferable outside Calcutta proper and also inasmuch as the city compensatory allowance has already been merged in the basic pay. The recommendation made by the sub-committee was accepted by Managing Committee and as a result, the members of the staff got other benefits as per railway rules, and the establishment charges of the Society was increased to the tune of Rs. 1,200. This, however, did not satisfy the union and it had pressed for introduction of railway authorised scales of pay and allowances in toto, and the grant of railway benefits to the Society staff as introduced by the railway from time to time. Therefore, the case was further examined and the Society accepted the demand of the union with the proviso that while fixation of all staff in the authorised scales may be carried out with effect from 1st July 1959 as per railway rules in toto, the monetary benefit to be paid to the staff or the loss sustained by them as a result of overpayment should have effect only from 1st July 1963. As a result of this decision, the arrears to the extent of Rs. 15,375.01 were paid to the staff and the establishment charges were further increased by about 2,700 per month. The Committee again went into the question on 29th March 1965 and decided to give option to the staff who had not yet accepted the scales as introduced, finally either to opt for the same or to remain in the scales as initially fixed by the Society in 1961 having effect from 1st July 1959. The total number of office staff is 219 including the members of the railway staff who came on deputation to the Society. The employer had denied that most of the Co-operative Societies on other railways had adopted the scales of pay and amenities as per the railway rules and had said that three other railway Co-operative Societies operating in Calcutta have not done so. It is further alleged that in the matter of fixation of pay of the staff in the authorised scale with effect from 1st July 1959, railway rules have been strictly followed after taking into account the Central Pay Commissions scales enjoyed by them on 30th June 1959. With regard to the question of diminution of the basic pay, it is said that only in the cases of 35 employees, there have been slight diminution in the total employments for the time being and that it is inevitable and is caused by their own demands. The employees, however, would get benefit ultimately by an increase in the various allowances to which they would be eligible with the increase according to the scales of pay. With regard to the option, it is said that more than 60 employees had opted for the railway authorised scale. With regard to the fixation of the pay of the Secretary, it is alleged that the incumbent joined the office much after 1st July 1959 and the city compensatory allowance was not merged in his pay. The employer further pointed out that the complaining workmen would also be given personal pay in accordance with the railway rules on their fixation from Central Pay Commission's scales to authorised scales of pay with effect from 1st July 1959, if there had been any loss in their pay as a result of such fixation. With regard to the city compensatory allowance, it is stated that it was separated from the pay proper in order to draw higher rate of such allowance with the rise in pay from time to time. It is also pointed out that members of the staff who desire to continue under the old arrangement have been given option to do so, and therefore, they cannot make any complaint regarding this matter. In the circumstances, it is said that no question of pay protection arises and the workmen are not entitled to get any relief.

Decision

Before I discuss the facts and circumstances regarding the merits, I shall dispose of the preliminray objection which has been raised by Shri Das Gupta appearing for the employer. Now the substantial argument advanced by Shri Das Gupta is that the dispute regarding the pay protection in the basic pay is a dispute regarding the active business of the Co-operative Society and therefore, under sactions 86 and 87 and section 2(j) of the Bengal Co-operative Societies Act (Bengal Act XXI of 1940), the dispute can only be decided by the Registrar of the Co-operative Society. The argument cannot be accepted in view of the ruling reported in 62 C. W. N. 405 (Co-operative M.S. Union, v. State of West Bengal). It was held in that case that the dispute between a Co-operative Society and its workmen, does not relate to the actual business of the Co-operative Society, and therefore, does not touch the business of the Co-operative Society and that the claim for fixing wages and wage scales general and D.A. is not a matter capable of being subject of civil litigation and is also not a claim in respect of any sum payable. Now the dispute regarding the question whether any pay protection in basic pay should or should not be given, cannot be regarded to be a matter touching the business of the Co-operative Society and the claim for giving pay protection in basic pay, is also not a matter capable of being the subject of civil litigation and cannot also be said that the dispute is regarding a sum payable. The question of payment of any sum cannot possibly arise, unless it is held that the workmen are entitled to get pay protection in the basic pay and unless it is next decided as to the quantum of pay protection regarding the different employees of the Society. Reference may also be made to the ruling reported in F.L.R., 280 in which similar view had been expressed by his Lordship B. N. Banerjee J. Incidentally I would also refer to the ruling reported in 1966 (I) L.L.J., 90 (Rambhau v. Vimkur Co-operative Society). In that case, their Lordships of the Bombay High Court had referred to the corresponding sections of the Maharashtra Co-operative Societies Act and held that the industrial dispute as to the service conditions and as to the reinstatement, are not within section 91(1) of the Maharashtra Co-operative Societies Act. I would accordingly overrule the contention raised by Shri Das Gupta regarding the alleged invalidity of the reference to this Tribunal. Regarding the other objection, Shri Das Gupta did not argue that under section 31 of the Act 36, of 1956, there could not be any reference to this Tribunal for adjudication regarding the pay protection, and the quantum thereof. It has been provided under section 31 of Act 36 of 1956 that if, immediately before the commencement of this Act, there is in force in any State any provincial Act or State Act, relating to the settlement or adjudication of disputes, the operation of such Act in that State in relation to the matters covered by that Act, shall not be affected by the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, as amended by this Act. Under section 31 as mentioned above, the State Act regarding the settlement or adjudication of disputes, are not to be overridden by the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, as amended by Act 36 of 1956. It is quite obvious that the State Industrial Laws are expressly saved by section 31 of Act 36 of 1956. The objection therefore, that in view of section 31 of Act 36 of 1956, the reference is invalid, must also be overruled.

I shall now turn to discuss the merits. But before I do so, it is necessary to clear the ground. In the letter of reference, there is no schedule showing the name of the workmen whose cases are to be considered in relation to the question of pay protection in basic pay as a result of the introduction of new pay scale of 1964 effective from 1959. In the written statement which has been submitted by the workmen represented by E. I. Rly. E. C. C. S. Men's Congress and by the employer, there is no list of workmen whose cases for pay protection in the basic pay are to be considered. It has been stated in paragraph 3 of the written statement of the workmen that there are 220 workmen belonging to different categories. In paragraph 5 of the written statement of the employer, it has been stated that the total number of office staff working in the Society is 219 including the members of the railway staff who have common deputation to the Society. Therefore, there is little variation regarding the number of workmen of the Society, but it appears that there are some workmen who had been employed by the Society after 1st July 1959. It would appear from Ext. II which has been prepared by the employer that the cases of 120 workmen had been mentioned there, that Shri N. C. Sarkar (page 77) has been appointed as lower division clerk on 12th December 1960 at the railway authorised scales of Rs. 110—3—131—4—155—EB—4—175—5—180 of Ext. 11 (on admission) (chart No. 36) shows that A. K. Sett (page 78) had been appointed as lower division clerk and signature verifier on 22nd September 1959 at the same scales of pay, that Shri D. P. Bhattacharjee (page 80) was appointed on 15th December 1959 as lower division clerk at the same scales of pay, that Shri N. K. Sen Gupta was appointed as lower division clerk on 28th April 1960 (page 81) at the same scales of pay, that Shri Janmenjoy Bose was appointed as lower division clerk on 15th February 1961 (page 83) at the same scales of pay, that Shri J. N. Mazumdar (page 84) was appointed as lower division clerk on 21st September 1959 at the same scales of pay, that Shri D. B. Mazumdar (page 85) was appointed as lower division clerk on 3rd September 1960 at the same scales of pay, that Shri Bimal Kumar Chatterji (page 86), Shri S. K. Sanyal (page 87) and Shri Samar Kumar Ghosh (page 89) were appointed as lower division clerks on 12th December 1960 at the same scales of pay, that Shri Vivekananda Banerjee (page 88) Shri Sukumar Roy Chowdhury (page 90) and Amiya Kumar Sarkar (page 91) were appointed as lower division clerks on 15th February 1961 at the same scales of pay, that Shri J. Basack (page 93) was appointed as the lower division clerk on 3rd October 1959 at the same scales of pay, that Shri Anil Kumar Dutta was appointed as the routine clerk on 9th September 1960 (page 94) at a pay of Rs. 105—3—135—EB—5—145 (chart No. 43 of the railway authorised scales), that Shri Surajit Lahiri (page 102) had been appointed as the routine clerk from 5th September 1960 at the same scales of pay, that Shri Narendra Nath Bhattacharjee (page 111) was appointed on 12th December 1960 as the records keeper at the scale of Rs. 80—1—85—2—95—EB—3—110 (chart No. 46 of the railway authorised pay rules), that Shri Somnath Saha (page 112) was appointed as the records keeper from 15th December 1960 at the same scales of pay, that Shri B. B. Sahu was appointed as the records keeper on 14th December 1960 (page 115) at a pay of Rs. 70—1—80—EB—1—85 (chart No. 54 of the railway authorised pay rules), that Shri N. K. Mahanto was appointed as the records keeper on 21st August 1961 (page 116) at the same scales of pay, and that Shri Bimanendra Nath Roy was appointed as the peon of grade B on 14th December 1960 (page 120) at the same scales of pay. Therefore, there are certain employees who had joined the service of the Society after 1st July 1959. Therefore, so far as they are concerned they can only get the protection, if any, calculated from the dates of their appointments and also having regard to the rules regarding promotion which is prevalent in the Society. Some of the persons whose cases have been mentioned above had been promoted by the Society to the higher grades and therefore, in considering the question of pay protection in basic pay, the increased pay on promotion must also be taken into consideration. There are also others who had earned their promotion from one post to another; for example Shri Bhupati Nath Roy Choudhury (page 24) has started as a clerk, perhaps an upper division clerk, and was promoted to the grade of the supervisory clerk from 25th February 1960 at a scale of Rs. 210—10—290—15—320—EB—15—380. There are also promotions of other clerks as would appear from Ext. 1 (vide pages 25 to 34). Similarly there are promotions from lower division clerks to upper division clerks (vide Ext. 1, pages 50 to 52). The promotions are on different dates. There is another clerk (Ext. 1 page 62) who has not only been promoted to an upper division clerk, but also has been working as a comptometer operator for which he is getting some special pay. These are mainly the special features which must be borne in mind in deciding the question which had been referred for ajdudication. So far as the other employees are concerned, there are no special features of the kind which I have mentioned above. I need only add that as far as I have been able to gather, it appears that the relevant prescribed scales are in items Nos. 17, 27, 36, 41, 46, 51 and 56. The corresponding railway authorised scales bear the same chart numbers. I shall now proceed to discuss whether the employees are really entitled to get the pay protection in the basic pay as a result of the introduction of the new scales of 1964 effective from 1959. It appears to me that at least some of the employees have been appointed after 1st of July 1959, and therefore, so far as they are concerned, the effective date must be the date or the dates of appointments. Both the learned Advocates appear to have proceeded on the basis that all the employees are covered by the new pay scales introduced in 1964. Now the question of pay protection in basic pay can only arise if there had been any diminution of the basic pay as a result of the introduction of the new pay scales in 1964. As I understand the learned Advocates of both sides, they had not disputed that where the basic pay had been reduced as a result of the introduction of the new pay scales, the particular employee or employees would be entitled to pay protection of the basic pay. Shri Das Gupta appearing for the employer had submitted that, in fact, there had been no diminution in the pay, and therefore, the question of pay protection itself cannot arise. Shri N. Roy, on the other hand, contended that there had been diminution in the basic pay of the employees, and therefore, the employees are entitled to pay protection. He had referred me to the Chart compiled during the course of the proceedings (Ext. 20) and had submitted that, that chart would show that 88 employees are entitled to pay protection in basic pay for amounts ranging from Rs. 7.03 paise to Rs. 24 and also ranging from 3 to 7 years. This specific allegation is not to be found in the written statement submitted on behalf of the employees. But I do not think, anything turns on the absence of the allegations in this behalf in the written statement. If the employees are really entitled to get the pay protection in the basic pay, they would get the pay protection in the basic pay notwithstanding the absence of specific allegation in the written statement in that behalf mentioning the details regarding the pay protection in the basic pay. It is not disputed by the employers and the employees that prior to 30th June 1959 the employees used to get pay according to the prescribed scales of pay, and also city compensatory allowance separately. It is further not disputed that on 11th September 1964, the then union made a representation for adoption in toto of the revision made by the Second Pay Commission and in 1963, the Society introduced the railway scales of pay with D.A. and house-rent allowance, as per rules and did not allow any compensatory city allowance. It would appear that after the merger of the compensatory city allowance with the pay in accordance with the decision of the Society, dated 4th September 1961 (Ext. 1 on admission), certain anomalies were found. The representation of the Employees' Union regarding the anomalies has been marked Ext. 3 on admission. In that letter, dated 11th September 1962, Haridas Misra, who is the President of the E. I. Rly. E. C. C. S. Employees' Union which was the only existing union at the time, had stated that the committee of the management of the Society had previously accepted in toto the First Pay Commission Award, and therefore, there had been no discontentment amongst the staff till 1956. It was further stated that the union demanded that the Second Pay Commission Award should also be implemented in toto and the employees should get the same pay and allowances and other benefits as enjoyed by the railwaymen, and that proper protection should be given to the present emoluments and the excess, if any, should be allowed to be absorbed in future increments. The Society by the letter, dated 15th March 1963 (Ext. 2 on admission), had stated that the Managing Committee had decided to adopt the railway pay scales and allowance for the Society staff except the grant of city compensatory allowance which the Committee is not in a position to sanction in view of the increase in emoluments by the acceptance of the railway pay scales and the financial position of the Society. The relevant resolution of the Committee of the management of the Society is resolution 15A, dated 28th February 1963 (Ext. II on admission). That resolution says, inter alia, that in view of the increase in emoluments which will accrue to the individual staff by the acceptance of the railway scales of pay and the financial position of the Society, the Committee accepted the recommendations of the sub-committee without any modification. There is something also regarding the raising of age of superannuation, but it is not necessary to refer to it, in view of the scope of the reference. Subsequently, there had been another representation by the then union on 5th June 1963 (Ext. 5 on admission). It has been stated therein that though the Managing Committee had agreed to adopt the railway pay scales and allowance for the Society staff, it could not at the same time grant city compensatory allowance to them in view of the fact that the city compensatory allowance is a part and parcel of the railway pay scales. The union, therefore, asked for a meeting to be arranged for discussion regarding the effect of railway pay scales and allowance from 1st July 1959, and payment of city compensatory allowance and regarding other matters. It does not appear from the documents filed as to what discussions the representatives of the union had with the management. The only thing that I can find is that there has been revision of the pay scales with effect from June 1964. The relevant document appears in Ext. 9 on admission which the minute of the meeting of the Managing Committee held on 22nd May 1964. The item No. 6 is the Secretary's note, dated 12th May 1964, showing the financial implication on introduction of the railway pay scales and allowance for the Society staff and fixation of pay accordingly from 1st July, 1959 as per Committee's decision, dated 21st October 1963. The Managing Committee had considered the Secretary's note, dated 12th April 1964 and also the joint representation, dated 1st May 1964, received from some members of the staff and the recommendation of the Administrative sub-committee. It was decided that there would be pro forma fixation of staff in the railway authorised scales from 1st July 1959 and monetary benefit should be given only with effect from 1st July 1959. It was further decided that in the event of any staff having been fitted at a lesser pay with effect from 1st July 1959 in comparison to the pay he was drawing prior to this date, the difference should be treated as personal pay to be absorbed in future increments, that excess payment, if any, made uptil June 1963 should not be recovered, that the committee had agreed to introduce the railway authorised scales of pay for the Society staff, who, on being fitted in these scales, would also be eligible for the allowance pertaining to the railway authorised scales as introduced from time to time. There is a reference to the revision of the two Assistant Secretaries but for the present purpose, it is not necessary to refer to them. Therefore, it would appear from the document that with the introduction of the Second Pay Commission's award in toto and acceptance of the railway authorised pay scales, the Committee of management of the Society had agreed that if in the case of any employee there is any deduction in the pay as a result of fixation in the railway authorised scales, the excess amount must be regarded to be personal pay which is to be absorbed in future increments. As I have mentioned earlier, the learned Advocates did not dispute the proposition that there is no question of any pay protection in the basic pay, unless there has been a reduction of the basic pay as a result of the introduction of the new pay scales. Shri Das Gupta, however, had contended, as mentioned earlier, that there had been no such reduction. I do not think this submission of Shri Das Gupta can be accepted. Shri Das Gupta had pointed out particularly to one instance, viz., the case of Shri Sachindra Nath Ghose in Ext. 20 which was prepared by the union; that instance certainly does not support his contention. His case has been dealt with in page 6 of Ext. I. There only the basic pay of June 1964 has been shown to be Rs. 163 and the city compensatory allowance has been shown to be Rs. 13.44 paise. This has also been shown in columns 11 and 13 of Ext. 20, but the question is whether there has been any reduction of pay in June than the pay which the same employee drew for May 1964 It would appear from Ext. 20 that this particular employee had drawn Rs. 192 as basic pay for May 1964. As there is no contrary evidence, the statement in Ext. 20—column seven must be accepted. Therefore, there has been a reduction of basic pay to the tune of Rs. 24. I need not discuss the cases of all the employees, because I am satisfied on the basis of Ext. 20 that there had been reduction of varying amounts ranging from Rs. 7.03 paise to Rs. 24. Shri Das Gupta lastly, contended that there had been no reduction in the total emoluments payable to the different classes of employees. I do not think that this argument can be accepted. The question which has referred for adjudication is the pay protection in basic pay and therefore, the material question would be whether there has been any reduction in the basic pay. I enquired of Shri Das Gupta and also of Shri Roy whether they can refer me to the definition of the basic pay. They were unable to refer me to any definition of the basic pay. It appears to me that the basic pay must be the pay as drawn prior to June 1964. It is true that there had been merger previously of the city compensatory allowance in the basic pay, but for more than two years, the total amount has been regarded to be the basic pay of the employees. I would point out that there is a definition of basic pay in the fixation chart issued by the Railway (Ext. 11). There is also definition of the emoluments. Basic pay has been defined to mean pay as defined in rule 2003(21) (a)(i) of the Indian Railway Establishment Code, Vol. II. There is a proviso which says that where special pay forms a part of the existing scale and is merged in the authorised scale, basic pay includes special pay. Emolument has been defined to mean basic pay and where admissible, also dearness pay and dearness allowance. The Society had accepted the railway authorised scales of pay and had been paying to its employees according to the railway authorised scales of pay, and therefore, it must be regarded that it also accepted the definitions of the basic pay and emoluments as mentioned in Ext. 11. In the circumstances, I am unable to accept the submissions made by Shri Das Gupta that there had been no reduction in basic pay. After the merger of the city compensatory allowance with the basic pay, the amount representing the city compensatory allowance lost its character as such, and after the merger was treated as basic pay both by the employees and the Society. Therefore, the whole amount must be treated to be basic pay. As there has been reductions consequent on the introduction of the new pay scales from June 1964, the employees who are affected by the reduction in the basic pay are entitled to get pay protection to the extent of the reduction in the basic pay. As I have menioned earlier, this pay protection is to continue till the amount of reduction in the case of the different employees is actually absorbed in the next increment or increments. I have mentioned the range of reduction in the basic pay and I would only mention that till the full amount of reduction has been absorbed in the basic pay by increment or increments, this protection in the basic pay must continue.

The result is that the employees who are affected by the reduction in the basic pay, except those persons who have opted to remain on the prescribed scales of pay, that is to say, the scales of pay as it existed before the introduction of the new scales of pay from June 1964, are entitled to get pay protection till the reductions are absorbed in the increment or increments. The Society must carry out the directions contained in this award and revise the pay rolls within one month from the date of the publication of this award in the "Calcutta Gazette".

This is my award.

The draft by-laws are set forth hereinbelow and are hereby published for information of the public under section 530 of the said Act. A copy of the aforesaid draft by-laws has been kept in the office of the Secretary to the Corporation of Calcutta for inspection of anyone free of charge, on any working day during office hours. The draft by-laws shall not be further proceeded with until after the expiration of a period of one month from the date of publication of this notice and any objection or suggestion with respect thereto, which may be received by the undersigned by that time, shall be considered.

Printed copies of the draft by-laws will be obtainable by any person requiring the same on payment of a fee of 25 paise for each copy.

Draft by-laws for granting of extracts from the births and deaths registers and for prescribing the fees for the same under section 527(63) of the Calcutta Municipal Act, 1951

1. The Health Officer and Chief Registrar of Births and Deaths of the Corporation of Calcutta may issue on receipt of requisite fees and applications certified copies of entries of births and deaths maintained under section 504 of the Calcutta Municipal Act, 1951. All such certified copies shall be issued under his signature.

2. (a) The birth and death registers maintained under section 504 of the Calcutta Municipal Act, 1951, shall be available for inspection and search to any person on submission of a proper application for searching and on payment of the requisite fees on week days excepting Saturdays, between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. and on Saturdays between 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. in the office of the Keeper of Records in the office of Health Officer and Chief Registrar of Births and Deaths, as the case may be.

(b) A sum of Rs. 2 (Rupees two only) shall be charged for the inspection of one birth or one death register.

(c) Applications for inspection or search for entries in birth or death registers shall be made by the applicants stating clearly the purpose of such inspection or search. The Keeper of Records or the Health Officer may refuse inspection of any birth or death register to private parties if he has reasons to believe, which reasons shall be recorded in writing, that the inspection and search of the registers will be prejudicial to the interests of the Corporation, the State or Central Government. Every application shall be scrutinised by the Keeper of Records or the Health Officer in whose custody the registers may remain. If after scrutiny of the application the Keeper of Records or the Health Officer, as the case may be, does not refuse inspection or search, the inspection or search of the relevant birth and death registers may be allowed after realising the inspection fee referred to in clause (a).

(d) The inspection or search of the birth and death registers shall be made in the presence of a responsible officer authorised in this behalf in the Records or the Health Department, as the case may be.

(e) At the time of inspection or search of the birth and death registers nobody will be allowed to take any note from the registers in pen and ink. Pencil notes may be allowed with the permission of the Keeper of Records or the Health Officer, as the case may be.

(f) No fees shall be charged in the following cases that is to say, when it would appear on the face of the application that inspection and search of a birth or death register is required:

(i) For issuing certified copies of entries of births or deaths of members of the families of deceased Indian Military personnel for furnishing them with the death certificates of the deceased members or birth certificates of their children in connection with the investigation of their family pension claims;

(ii) For issuing death certificates of deceased employees of the Corporation of Calcutta in connection with their Provident Fund and other claims;

(iii) in obedience to any directions or orders from any Court of Law in India;

(iv) in obedience to any direction from the State or Central Government for purposes of the State or Central Government or in connection with the imposition of "Death Duties" or other Duties of the State or the Central Government;

(v) for purposes of the Corporation in regard to Assessment or other matters.

3. A fee of Rs. 5 (Rupees five only) including searching fee, to be called the "Certificate Fee", shall be charged for the issue of the 1st copy of an entry of birth or death certificate from the death or birth register as the case may be. A fee of Rs. 3 should be charged for the second copy and all subsequent copies should be charged at the rate of Rs. 2 for each subsequent copy whether they be taken simultaneously or separately. No such fee shall be charged in cases referred to in clause 2(f) of the Bye-laws.

4. A searching fee of Rs. 10 (Rupees ten only) to be called the detailed searching fee shall be charged for every application for issue of a copy of an entry of birth or death from the birth and death register when definite information regarding any of the particulars given below is not furnished in the application:

(a) in case of births —

(i) the date of the birth of the child;

(ii) the names of the father and mother of child;

(iii) the date of registration of the birth of the child;

(iv) applications where the birth in question was registered by the Corporation authorities.

(b) in cases of applications for entries from the death register—

(i) the date of death of the deceased;

(ii) the full name of the deceased;

(iii) the address of the premises where the death took place;

(iv) the place, viz., burning ghat, burial ground or crematorium, etc., where the dead body was disposed of.

Provided that no such fee shall be charged in cases referred to in bye-law 2(f) and provided that an application for a copy of an entry of birth or death from the birth or the death register which requires search of registers of more than one year shall not be entertained by the Health Officer or the Keeper of Records and further provided that on the certificate of a Ward Councillor a fee of Rs. 10 shall be reduced to Rs. 5 in case of hardship for death certificates only.

5. That fee for copy of an entry for special registration of births and deaths, shall be fixed at Rs. 10 for each copy of such entry from Special Registration of births or from Special Registration of deaths.

6. If after careful search in the birth or the death register a particular entry be not found and a certificate to that effect be demanded by the applicant, a certificate to be called a "No-entry Certificate", containing particulars of search made in the registers, may be issued by the Health Officer in such form as he thinks fit, in lieu of the certified copy applied for.

7. A fee of fifty paise only shall be charged for 100 (one hundred) words of an affidavit produced in connection with birth and death certificates if a certified copy of the same be applied for. A similar fee of fifty paise only shall be charged for one hundred words of a medical certificate produced at places for disposal of the dead under the administration of the Corporation of Calcutta.

8. Bye-laws 1 to 7 shall apply mutatis mutandis to certified copies of entries in the registers of burial kept at the different burial grounds within the administrative jurisdiction of the Corporation of Calcutta.

9. The Health Officer shall keep in stock sufficient number of birth and death certificate forms in a manner contemplated by schedules XX and XXI to the Calcutta Municipal Act, 1951, and shall cause them to be bound in books with counterfoils and shall keep a proper account of the same. He shall also keep sufficient number of application forms containing therein the particulars wanted for search in connection with the issue of birth and death certificates.

10. Fees once deposited in connection with the purposes stated in bye-laws 2 to 8 shall not be refunded under any circumstances.

S. N. BOSE,
Secretary to the Corporation.

S. C. BANERJEE,
Clerk of the State

Common Jury List

List of persons liable to serve on Common Juries in the High Court at Calcutta for the year ensuing from 1st May 1966 pursuant to Act V of 1898.

Remarks.—Persons claiming exemptions should communicate their claims and grounds thereof to the Clerk of the State as soon as possible after service of the summons, and persons summoned and unable to attend for any cause should state such cause, so that if sufficient cause is shown, the Sheriff may be directed to summon other jurymen.

LABOUR DEPARTMENT

ORDERS

No. 1510-I.R./IR/11L-11/65.—19th April 1966.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department order No. 538-I.R./IR/11L-11/65, dated the 8th February 1965, the industrial dispute between Messrs. The Jay Shree Chemicals and Fertilisers, Nanda Bose Road, Khardah, 24-Parganas, and their workmen represented by Chemical and Phosphate Workers' Union, Shramik Shivir, Park Road, Talpukur, 24-Parganas, regarding the issue mentioned in the said order being a matter specified in the second schedule to the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), was referred for adjudication to the Third Industrial Tribunal;

And whereas the said Third Industrial Tribunal has submitted to the State Government its award on the said industrial dispute;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. The Jay Shree Chemicals and Fertilisers, Nanda Bose Road, Khardah, 24-Parganas, and their workmen represented by Chemical and Phosphate Workers' Union, Shramik Shivir, Park Road, Talpukur, 24-Parganas. (Case No. VIII—27 of 1965.)

BEFORE THE THIRD INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present: Shri S. K. Datta Gupta, Judge, Third Industrial Tribunal.

For the Union: Shri N. R. Roy, Advocate.

For the Company: Shri J. R. Jain, Labour Adviser.

AWARD

By order No. 538-I.R./IR/11L-11/65, dated the 8th February 1965, the Government of West Bengal, in the Labour Department, referred under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Jayshree Chemicals and Fertilisers, Nanda Bose Road, Khardah, 24-Parganas, and their workmen represented by Chemical and Phosphate Workers' Union, Shramik Shivir, Park Road, Talpukur, 24-Parganas, regarding the matter specified in the Schedule, to the Third Industrial Tribunal, constituted under section 7A of the Industrial Disputes Act, by notification No. 808-I.R./IR/3A-2/57, dated the 11th March 1957, for adjudication.

Issue

1. Whether the dismissal of Shri D. L. Biswas is justified? What relief, if any, is he entitled to?

On receipt of notices from this tribunal, parties appeared and filed their written statements.

In the written statement filed on behalf of the union, it has been inter alia stated that the concerned worker Shri D. L. Biswas was one of the Secretaries of the Union and had been dismissed from service entirely on false charges for his union activities. It is said in the written statement filed by the union that on 4th April 1964, the company had unreasonably and without justification whatsoever served on Shri Biswas a charge sheet untruly alleging that on the said date he had threatened one Dilip Singh with assault outside the factory by using most filthy language. Shri Biswas gave his explanation to the charge sheet on 5th April 1964, denying the charge. Thereafter without holding any proper enquiry in presence of Shri Biswas, the company has by its letter, dated 11th May 1964, illegally dismissed him from service. The dismissal of Shri Biswas was in these circumstances unjustified and the union wants his reinstatement with back wages.

In its written statement filed on 26th April 1965 the company alleged that Shri Biswas was charge-sheeted on 4th April 1964, for acts of gross misconduct and has been subsequently dismissed from service as the said charge was established in a domestic enquiry held on 5th May 1964. It is said on behalf of the company that Shri Biswas was present throughout the enquiry proceeding and cross-examined the management's witness and was also given full opportunity to defend his case. Dismissal of Shri Biswas was in these circumstances, just, legal and bona fide.

The case was taken up for hearing on 30th March 1966 when the parties filed a joint petition informing the tribunal that the industrial dispute referred to this tribunal for adjudication has been amicably settled out of Court, on terms mentioned in the petition. This petition was signed by Shri J. R. Jain, Labour Adviser of the Company, workman Shri D. L. Biswas and Shri Nirmal Banerji, President of the Union. I have heard the parties representatives on the petition. The terms of compromise as embodied in the petition, appear to me to be fair and reasonable. I am satisfied that the parties have settled their dispute on terms mentioned in the petition and that there is no outstanding dispute between them. Accordingly I pass a compromise award in terms of the joint petition which do form part of the award as Annexure A.

This is my award.

ANNEXURE A

Before the Third Industrial Tribunal, West Bengal.

In the matter of an Industrial Dispute

Between

Messrs. Jayshree Chemicals and Fertilisers

And

Their workmen, represented by Chemical and Phosphate Workers' Union

And

In the matter of Government of West Bengal, order No. 538-I.R., dated 8th February 1965.

The humble joint petition of compromise of the parties abovenamed.

Most respectfully Sheweth—

1. That the dispute under the present order of reference has been settled amicably and out of Court on the terms hereunder:

(A) That Shri D. L. Biswas, the workman concerned in the present order of reference will be paid the following dues in full and final settlement of all his claims including that of reinstatement:—

(a) one month's pay as offered to him—vide the Company's dismissal letter, dated 11th May 1964.

(b) fifteen days wages per completed year of service with the company, i.e. forty-five days wages.

(c) earned wages, if any.

(d) bonus as due for the year 1964.

(B) That the above payments will be effected to the said Shri Biswas on any working day from the factory during working hours.

It is therefore, prayed:

That this Hon'ble Tribunal be pleased to accept this compromise as fair and reasonable and pass an award in terms thereof.

And for this act of your kindness, we as in duty bound, shall ever pray.

For the Union.

No. 1543-I.R./IR/8L-3(A)/64.—20th April 1966.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal Labour Department, order No. 6143-I.R./IR/8L-38/64, dated the 11th November 1964, the industrial dispute between Messrs. The India Ball Thread Co. (P.) Ltd., 100/1 Cossipore Road, Calcutta-2 (H.O. at 8 Burtolla Street, Calcutta-7), and their workmen represented by India Ball Thread Workers' Union, 29/1(Cossipore Road, Calcutta-2, regarding the issues mentioned in the said order being matters specified in the second and the third schedules to the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), was referred for adjudication to the Third Industrial Tribunal;

And whereas the said Third Industrial Tribunal has submitted to the State Government its award on the said industrial dispute;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. The India Ball Thread Co. (P.) Ltd., 100/1 Cossipore Road, Calcutta-2 (H.O. at 85 Burtolla Street, Calcutta-7), and their workmen represented by India Ball Thread Workers' Union, 29/10 Cossipore Road, Calcutta-2. (Case No. VIII —331/64.)

BEFORE THE THIRD INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present: Shri S. K. Datta Gupta, Judge, Third Industrial Tribunal.

For the Union: Shri P. Pathak with Shri Chitta Moitra, President, India Ball Thread Workers' Union.

For the Company: Shri K. P. Mukherji, Counsel with Shri J. D. Mukherji, Advocate and Shri K. L. Mohta, Managing Director of the Company.

AWARD

By order No. 6143-I.R./IR/8L-38/64, dated the 11th November 1964, the Government of West Bengal, in the Labour Department, referred under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the industrial disputes between Messrs. The India Ball Thread Co. (P.) Ltd., 100/1 Cossipore Road, Calcutta-2 (H.O. at 85 Burtolla Street, Calcutta-7), and their workmen represented by India Ball Thread Workers' Union, 29/10 Cossipore Road, Calcutta-2, regarding the matters specified in the Schedule to the Third Industrial Tribunal, constituted under section 7A of the Industrial Disputes Act, by notification No. 808-I.R./IR/3A-2/57, dated the 11th March 1957, for adjudication.

Isssues

1. Grades and Scales of Pay.
2. Dearness Allowance.
3. Permanency.

In pursuance of notices issued from this tribunal, the parties appeared and filed written statements.

In the written statement filed on 26th December 1964 on behalf of the Union, representing the workers of Messrs. India Ball Thread Co. (P.) Ltd., it has been stated that the company employs thirty-six workmen including Watch and Ward staff. The total minimum wages of a workman is Rs. 2.00 per day but there is no separate D.A. There is also no grade and scale, nor any provision for annual increment; nor is there any rule of permanency. Time and again the Union represented to the Management for a fair deal but the Management did not listen. Accordingly by a letter, dated 23rd November 1963 the Union placed a charter of demands containing a number of points including the above. The Management, however, did not take any step to remedy the grievances of the workmen. So, the Union requested the Labour Commissioner by letter, dated 4th May 1964 to take up the matter in conciliation. The Conciliation Officer Shri S. Ghosh tried his best to effect the settlement but in vain. As conciliation failed, the matter was referred to this Tribunal for adjudication.

In the written statement filed on behalf of the company it has been inter alia stated that as the existing consolidated wages paid to the workmen are fair and proper and were settled by a bi-partite agreement between the Management and workers, the Union is not entitled to get any relief with respect to issues Nos. 1 and 2. Company further stated that as the life of the said agreement has not yet expired, the reference is bad in law. As regards issue of permanency the company's specific case was that the permanency of the workers depends upon the suitability, experience, etc., and from time to time the company has made permanent many workers according to the exigencies of the circumstances.

The case was fixed for hearing on 25th March 1966, but on 24th March 1966 parties filed a joint petition stating that the disputes under order of reference have been amicably settled and that they have entered into a collective settlement, dated 24th March 1966. The joint petition was signed by Shri K. L. Mohta, Managing Director and Shri Chitta Moitra, President of the Union. The terms 1, 2 and 4 as mentioned in the joint petition relate to the issues under reference and they appear to me to be quite fair and reasonable. I am satisfied that the parties have settled their disputes relating to the issues sent for adjudication on those terms and that there is no subsisting dispute between them regarding the issues. The term No. 3 of the petition relates to standing Orders. But this term is extraneous to the proceedings and accordingly no comment is made on this term. Parties' representatives insisted that the standing orders annexed to the joint petition may be made part of the award but as there is no reference relating to the Standing Orders. I cannot accept this submission of the parties and make the standing order a part of the award.

In view of the foregoing discussions, a compromise award on terms 1, 2 and 4 as mentioned in the joint petition, be passed in the case and the joint petition do form part of the award as Annexure A.

Dictated and corrected by me.

ANNEXURE A

BEFORE THE THIRD INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

In the matter of Order of Reference No. 6143-I.R./IR/8L-38/64, dated 11th November 1964

And

In the matter of Messrs. India Ball Thread Company Private Ltd. and their workmen.

The humble joint petition of the abovenamed parties most respectfully—

Sheweth:—

1. That the parties abovenamed have mutually settled disputes under the present Order of Reference amongst other matters and hence entered into a collective settlement, dated the 24th March 1966. A copy whereof together with its two Annexures are annexed hereto and marked.

2. The parties herein jointly submit that an award be made by this learned Tribunal incorporating the said collective Agreement, dated 24th March 1966, together with the two annexures referred to above.

In the circumstances stated above, it is jointly prayed that this learned Tribunal be pleased to accept the terms of settlement referred to above and make the same as part of its award.

Your petitioners, as in duty bound, shall ever pray.

Calcutta, the 24th March 1966.

MEMORANDUM OF SETTLEMENT

Names of the parties: (1) Messrs. India Ball Thread Co. (P.) Ltd., represented by Mr. K. L. Mohta, Managing Director. (2) Workmen of Messrs. India Ball Thread Co. (P.) Ltd., 100/1 Cossipore Road, Calcutta-2, represented by Shri Chitta Moitra, President of India Ball Thread Workers' Union.

Short recitals of the case

The union raised a number of disputes in connection with revision of wages, grades and scales, permanency, etc. Conciliation meetings were held: but there was no settlement. Then the matter was referred to Hon'ble Industrial Tribunal under Government Order No. 6143-I.R./IR/8L-38/64, dated 11th November 1964. During the pendency of the Tribunal the parties felt that they would be able to settle the disputes through bi-partite discussions. After protracted negotiations they have come to a settlement.

Terms of settlement

(I) Issues Nos. (1) and (2) are taken up together: (a) The existing consolidated wages of the workers will be revised as per list Annexure 'A' to the settlement. The parties agree that the minimum consolidated wages will be Rs. 3 per day and the maximum will be Rs. 4.75 per day with annual increment of 17 paise per day. This will not apply to a worker who may be employed by the company in future on piece rate basis.

(b) The provisions of clause 1(a) will not apply to workers who may be engaged by the company in future on piece rate basis which may be fixed either through the union or individually.

(II) Issue No. 3—Permanency: The parties agree to the rules of confirmation which are as follows:

(i) After one year's continuous service a worker will be made permanent.

(ii) If a worker works for one and a half year intermittently, he will be declared permanent.

(III) Standing Orders: The parties agree to adopt as a part of the settlement the provisions of Standing Orders annexed hereto and marked "B".

(IV) The settlement will be binding on the parties for three years from 29th November 1965.

Dated the 24th March 1966.

ANNEXURE B

STANDING ORDERS OF INDIA BALL THREAD COMPANY (P.) LTD.

100/1 Cossipore Road, Calcutta-2.

1. (a) This Standing Orders shall come into force with effect from the 1st April 1966.

(b) The Management and the workmen as defined hereunder in the industrial establishment are subject to the following standing orders regulating the conditions of service.

Definitions

(I) "Management" means Management of Messrs. India Ball Thread Co. (P.) Ltd. having its factory at No. 100/1, Cossipore Road, Calcutta-2.

(II) "Manager" shall mean the person for the time being managing the establishment or any one duly authorised to act on this behalf.

2. Definition and Classification of Workmen: (a) "Workman" means any person (including an apprentice) employed in any industrial establishment to do any skilled or unskilled manual, supervisory, technical or clerical work for hire or reward, whether the terms of employment be expressed or implied, but does not include any such person—

(i) who is subject to the Army Act, 1950, or the Air Force Act, 1950, or the Navy (Discipline) Act, 1934; or

(ii) who is employed in the police service or as an officer or other employee of a prison; or

(iii) who is employed mainly in a managerial or administrative capacity; or

(iv) who, being employed in a supervisory capacity, draws wages exceeding five hundred rupees per mensem or exercises, either by the nature of the duties attached to the office or by reason of the powers vested in him, functions mainly of a managerial nature.

(b) "Workmen" shall be classified as follows:—

(1) Permanent.

(2) Probationers.

(3) Badlies.

(4) Temporary.

(5) Casual.

(6) Apprentices.

(c) A "permanent workman" is a workman who has been engaged on a permanent basis and includes any person who has been confirmed in writing as a permanent workman after satisfactory completion of a probationary period of six months.

Note.—"Probationary period" of service includes breaks due to sickness, accident, leave, lock-out strike (not being an illegal strike) and involuntary unemployment.

(d) A "probationer" is a workman who is provisionally employed to fill a permanent vacancy in a post and has not completed six months' service therein. On completion of six months' service, if the probationer is not confirmed, either the probationary period may be extended or the probationer may be informed that services will be terminated. If a permanent employee is employed as a probationer in a new post he may, at any time during the probationary period, be reverted to his permanent post.

(e) A "Badli" is a workman who is appointed to act in the post of a temporarily absent permanent workman or a probationer who is temporarily absent.

(f) A "temporary" workman is a workman who has been engaged for a work which is essentially of a temporary character likely to be finished within a limited period or who is temporarily employed in connection with a temporary increase in work of a permanent nature.

(g) A "Casual" workman is a workman whose employment is of a casual nature.

(h) An "Apprentice" is a learner who may or may not be paid an allowance during the period of his training. The period of unpaid apprenticeship shall not exceed six months.

3. Service Records and Tickets: (a) The establishment shall maintain service record cards of standard size as nearly as may be in Form I appended to these orders for the purpose wherein particulars of every workman, except a casual workman, shall be recorded:

Provided, however, that if the establishment is already maintaining service record cards containing all the particulars required in Form I, the use of such service record cards in their present form may continue.

(b) Every workman shall be provided with a token, a badge or other means of identification which shall be carried on his person and shall, on being required to do so, be produced to any person authorised by the Manager to inspect it or, as the case may be, surrendered to anybody authorised by the Manager in his behalf.

(c) Loss of departmental ticket shall immediately be notified to the Manager. A duplicate shall be issued on payment of the actual cost of replacement by the workman concerned.

4. Publication of working time: The periods and hours of work for all classes of workmen shall be exhibited in English and in the language understood by the majority of the workmen employed in the establishment on notice boards maintained at or near the main entrance of the establishment and at the time-keeper's office, if any (hereinafter referred to as the said notice boards).

5. Publication of holidays and pay days: Notices specifying—

(a) the days observed by the establishment as holidays, and

(b) pay days, shall be posted on the said notice boards.

6. Publication of wage rates: Notices specifying the rates of wages payable to all classes of workmen and for all classes of work shall be displayed on the said notice boards.

7. Shift working: Shift working shall be regulated in accordance with the Factories Act, 1948, as amended from time to time. More than one shift may be worked in a department or departments or any section of a department of the establishment at the discretion of the employer. If more than one shift is worked, the workmen shall be liable to be transferred from one shift to another. No shift working shall be discontinued without 21 days' notice. If as a result of discontinuance of shift working, any workman has to be discharged, he shall be discharged according to the provisions of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947. If shift working is restarted, a week's notice thereof shall be given by posting a notice on the said notice boards. The workmen discharged as a result of the discontinuance of the shift, shall, if they present themselves at the time of the restarting of the shift, have preference in being re-employed having regard to the length of their previous service under the establishment, those with the longest term of service being ordinarily re-employed first.

8. Attendance and late coming: All workmen shall be at work at the establishment at the time fixed and notified under paragraph 4 of these orders. Workmen attending late shall be liable to the deduction provided for in the Payment of Wages Act, 1936. No workman shall be allowed access inside the workshop after the expiry of half an hour from the scheduled time for starting work, except in the cases where the Manager allows it. A period of five minutes may be allowed as Grace period for attendance, subject to a maximum of 15 (fifteen) minutes per week. Any workman who, after checking in, is found to be absent from his proper place of work during working hours without permission or without sufficient reason, shall be liable to be treated as absent without leave. The workmen shall not be permitted to leave the premises of the establishment during working hours without special permission of the Manager.

9. Leave and Holidays: (1) Leave and holidays with pay may be allowed as provided for in the Factories Act, 1948, as amended from time to time, and in accordance with adjudication award, law, contract, agreement, custom and usage. The list of festival holidays shall be published at the beginning of each year after consultation with the workmen concerned. Such consultation will not be necessary where holidays are specified in any agreement or award.

(2) A workman whose leave is due and who wishes to take leave shall apply to the Manager at least fifteen days prior to the date of commencement of leave and the Manager shall issue orders on the application within a week of its submission. If the leave is required for urgent matters, the period of fifteen days' notice ordinarily required may be waived and the Manager shall pass orders on the date of application, if it is to commence on the same day or within three days thereof.

If the leave asked for is granted, a leave pass shall be issued to the worker and the worker shall intimate to the employer the address which will find him during his leave. If the leave is refused or postponed, the fact of such refusal or postponement and the reasons thereof shall be recorded in writing in a register maintained for the purpose, and if the worker so desires, a copy of the entry in the register shall be supplied to him. If the workman after proceeding on leave desires an extension thereof, he shall apply to the Manager who shall send a written reply either granting or refusing the extension of leave to the workman to the address, given by the worker to the employer before proceeding on leave, if such reply is likely to reach him before the expiry of the leave originally granted to him.

(3) If the workman remains absent beyond the period of leave originally granted or subsequently extended, he shall lose his lien on his appointment unless (a) he returns within eight days of the expiry of the leave and (b) explains to the satisfaction of the Manager his inability to return before the expiry of his leave. In case the workman loses the lien on his appointment, his name shall be kept on the "badli" or "waiting" list.

(4) A workman may be granted casual leave of absence with or without pay, not exceeding ten days in the aggregate in a calendar year. Such leave shall not be for more than three days at a time, except in the case of sickness. Ordinarily, the previous permission of the head of the department in the establishment shall be obtained before such leave is taken; but when this is not possible, the head of the department shall, as soon as may be practicable, be informed in writing of the absence from duty and the probable duration of such absence.

10. Requirements for entering premises by certain gates and liability to search: All workmen shall enter or leave the premises of the establishment by the gate or gates specified for this purpose.

During working hours the gates may be closed at the discretion of the Manager. The workmen intending to go out of the factory during working hours shall have to take permission of the Manager or any other persons authorised in this behalf. The workmen are liable to be searched at the time of entering and leaving the establishment and at other times whilst on duty by any person authorised by the Manager, provided that such searches shall be conducted in the presence of witnesses, where practicable. No woman shall be searched except by a woman and, where practicable, in the presence of another woman.

11. Payment of wages: (1) Any wages due to a workman, but not paid on the usual pay day on account of the wages being unclaimed, shall be paid by the employer on the unclaimed wage pay day in each week, which shall be notified on the notice boards.

If the workman is unable to present himself the employer shall send his pay by Money Order at the workman's cost, if requested by him to do so.

(2) Wages due shall be paid daily, weekly, fortnightly or monthly in accordance with the provisions of the payment of Wages Act, 1936.

12. Stoppage of work: (1) Subject to the provisions of Chapter VA of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the employer may, at any time, in the event of fire, catastrophe, breakdown of machinery or stoppage of power supply, epidemics civil commotion or other cause beyond his control whether of a similar nature or not, stop any section or sections of the establishment, wholly or partially for any period or periods without notice.

(2) In the event of such stoppage during working hour, the workmen affected shall be notified by notices put up on the notice boards in the departments concerned and at the office of the Manager as soon as practicable, when work will be resumed and whether they are to remain or leave their place of work. The workmen detained shall be entitled to receive wages for the whole of the time during which they are so detained. The workmen not detained will receive wages up to the time they are told to leave the establishment. Such wages in the case of piece-rate workers shall be the average daily earnings for the previous month. Wherever practicable, reasonable notice shall be given for the resumption of normal work.

(3) The procedure and payment in the event of the workmen being laid off as a result of any stoppage referred to in clauses (1) and (2) of this order shall be regulated in accordance with the provisions of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947.

(4) The employer may in the event of a strike affecting either wholly or partially any section or department of the establishment close down either wholly or partially such section or department and any other section or department affected by such closing down. The fact of such closure shall be notified by notices put on the notice boards in the section or department or departments concerned and in the time-keeper's office, if any, as soon as practicable. The workmen concerned shall also be notified by general notice prior to resumption of work, as to when work will be resumed. A copy of such notice shall be sent to the registered trade union/unions, if any, functioning in the establishment.

13. Termination of employment: (1) For termination of employment except as a measure of punishment, a notice, shall be given in writing either by the employer or by the workman for the periods noted below:—

In the case of monthly paid permanent workmen, probationers and apprentices one month's notice shall be necessary. In the case of permanent workmen, probationers and apprentices, paid on any other basis, two weeks' notice shall be necessary.

It will be optional for the employer to pay wages for the notice period in lieu of notice. No notice shall be necessary in the case of badli, temporary or casual workmen. Notwithstanding anything contained in this order, no notice shall be necessary if termination of service is under an agreement which specifies a date for such termination.

(2) Where the employment of any workman is terminated, all wages earned and unpaid shall be paid to him at the time of discharge, if convenient, or in any case, within the period of time prescribed by the payment of Wages Act, 1936.

14. Disciplinary action for misconduct: (a) A fine may be imposed on any workman in respect of an act or omission on his part, in accordance with section 8 of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936.

(b) A workman may be suspended for a period not exceeding four days at a time, or dismissed without notice or without any compensation in lieu of notice, if he is found to be guilty of misconduct.

Explanation.—The following acts and omissions shall be treated as misconduct:—

(i) Wilful insubordination or disobedience, whether along or in combination with others, to any lawful or reasonable order of a superior, including the order to work overtime in accordance with the Factories Act, or any other law;

(ii) theft, fraud or dishonesty in connection with the employer's business or property;

(iii) wilful damage to or loss of the employer's goods or property;

(iv) taking, giving, offering or asking for bribes or any illegal gratifications whatsoever;

(v) habitual absence without leave or absence without leave for more than ten days;

(vi) habitual late attendance;

(vii) habitual breach of any law or standing orders applicable to the establishment;

(viii) drunkenness, intoxication, riotous or disorderly behaviour during the working hours at the establishment or any act subversive of discipline;

(ix) negligence or habitual neglect of work;

(x) frequent repetition of any act or omission for which a fine may be imposed;

(xi) striking work or inciting others to strike work in contravention of the provisions of any law or rule having the force of law or of any contract;

(xii) engaging in trade within the factory premises without the permission of the Management;

(xiii) disclosing to any person information in regard to process or secrets of work without authority;

(xiv) habitual breach of rules or instructions for the maintenance or running of any department or the maintenance of the cleanliness of any portion of the factory premises or factory compound;

(xv) allowing an unauthorised person to operate his machine;

(xvi) collection of money within the factory premises during working hours for purposes not sanctioned by the management;

(xvii) smoking in the factory or godown premises where smoking has been specifically prohibited by a notice to that effect;

(xviii) holding meetings or aiding or abetting in holding meetings inside the premises of the industrial establishment without the previous sanction of the employer;

(xix) conviction in any court of law for a criminal offence involving moral turpitude;

(xx) refusal to accept a charge sheet, order or other communication intended for service on any workman in accordance with these standing orders;

(xxi) sleeping while on duty;

(xxii) participation in slow-down strike or wilful go-slow tactics in the performance of work;

(xxiii) gambling within the factory;

(xxiv) money lending or borrowing within the factory premises.

(c) Without prejudice to the foregoing provisions, it shall always be optional to the Management to impose a fine in accordance with the provisions of payment of Wages Act instead of dismissing.

(d) No order of dismissal shall be made unless the workmen concerned is informed in writing of the alleged misconduct and is given an opportunity to explain the circumstances alleged against him, and to adduce evidence, if any, in his favour, at an enquiry to be held for this purpose. The workman shall have the option of having a fellow workman of the same establishment to represent him at the enquiry. The approval of the Managers of the establishment and where there is no Manager, of the employer, is required in every case of dismissal, and when circumstances appear to warrant it, the Manager or the employer may, whether an appeal has or has not been preferred, institute independent enquiries before dealing with the charges against a workman.

(e) When a workman is suspended before enquiry into the charges of misconduct against him the order of suspension shall be in writing and may take effect immediately on delivery to the workman. Such order shall set out in detail the alleged misconduct and the workman shall be given an opportunity of explaining the circumstances alleged against him. The enquiry should be held as soon as possible and the workman shall have the option of having a fellow workman of the same establishment to represent him at the enquiry. If on an enquiry the order is confirmed, the workman shall be deemed to have been absent for the period of suspension and shall not be entitled to any remuneration for the period. If however, the order is rescinded, the workman shall be deemed to have been on duty during the period of suspension and shall be entitled to the same wages as he would have received if he had not been suspended.

(f) In awarding punishment under this standing order, the Manager shall take into account the gravity of the misconduct, the previous record, if any, of the workman and any other extenuating or aggravating circumstances that may exist. A copy of the order passed by the Manager shall be supplied to the workman concerned.

15. Complaints: All complaints arising out of employment including those relating to unfair treatment or wrongful exaction on the part of the employer or his agent, shall be submitted in writing to the Manager or other person specified in this behalf with the right of appeal to the employer.

16. Certificate on termination of service: Every permanent workman shall be entitled to a service certificate at the time of his dismissal, discharge or retirement from service.

17. Liability of employer: The Manager or in his absence the employer of the establishment shall personally be held responsible for the proper and faithful observance of the standing orders.

18. Exhibition of standing orders: A copy of these orders in English and in the language understood by the majority of workmen shall be posted at the Manager's office and on a notice board maintained at or near the main entrance to the establishment and shall be kept in a legible condition.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

Marketing and Warehousing

NOTIFICATION

No. 435-M&W.—21st January 1966. The following draft of rules which, in exercise of the power conferred by section 34 of the West Bengal Warehouses Act, 1963 (West Ben. Act XLI of 1963), the Governor proposes to make, is hereby published, as required by sub-section (3) of the said section, for the information of persons likely to be affected thereby.

The draft will be taken into consideration on or after the 3rd June 1966 and any objection or suggestion with respect thereto which may be received by the undersigned before that date shall be considered:—

DRAFT RULES

CHAPTER I

Preliminary

1. Short title: These rules may be called the West Bengal Warehouses Rules, 1965.

2. Definitions: In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) "Act" means the West Bengal Warehouses Act, 1963 (West Bengal Act XLI of 1963);

(b) "Form" means a form appended to these rules;

(c) "negotiable receipt" means a warehouse receipt which is transferable by endorsement and delivery and in which it is stated that the goods therein specified will be delivered to the bearer or to the order of a named person;

(d) "non-negotiable receipt" means a warehouse receipt in which it is stated that the goods therein specified will be delivered to the person who tendered the goods for storage in the warehouse;

(e) "section" means a section of the Act;

(f) "year" means a year reckoned according to the British Calendar.

CHAPTER II

Licensing of Warehouses

3. Application for license: (1) Applications for taking out a license under section 5 or for the renewal of a license under section 6 shall be made to the Warehouse Authority in Form No. 1. Every application shall be signed by the applicant(s) and he/they shall be bound to supply such additional information as may be required by the Warehouse Authority for the purposes of section 5 or section 6 as the case may be.

(2) The application for license for the first time may be made at any time but that for the renewal of a license shall be made at least one month before the commencement of the year for which it is required. Every application for the grant or renewal of a license shall be accompanied by the fee as laid down in rule 5.

4. Form of license: A license granted under section 5 or renewed under section 6 shall be in Form No. 3.

5. License fee: Fee for the grant of a license under section 5 or for the renewal of a license under section 6 shall be charged as under:—

(i) for a warehouse having a storage capacity up to 1,000 cubic metres—Rupees fifty.

(ii) for every additional 1,000 cubic metres of storage capacity or fraction thereof—Rupees fifty.

Provided that in the case of a Co-operative Society registered under the Bengal Co-operative Societies Act, 1940 (Bengal Act XXI of 1940), a fee of Rupees ten shall be charged for each warehouse to be licensed by such Society irrespective of the size or capacity of the warehouse.

6. Terms and conditions of license: A license taken under section 5 or renewed under section 6 shall be subject to the following terms and conditions:—

(1) Every warehouseman other than a Corporation established under the Agricultural Produce (Development and Warehousing) Corporations Act, 1956 (Act 28 of 1956), or deemed to be established under the Warehousing Corporations Act, 1962 (Act 58 of 1962), shall have and maintain in respect of each warehouse for which the application for a license has been made, net assets liable for the payment of any indebtedness arising from the operation of such warehouse to the extent of at least Rupees ten per three cubic metres of storage capacity of the warehouse licensed or to be licensed. Such assets may include or consist of moveable or immoveable property of the required valuation. If buildings, machinery or merchandise are included among such assets, the warehouseman shall keep them insured against loss or damage by fire, burglary, theft and such other risks as the Warehouse Authority may notify from time to time, with a company or companies approved by the Warehouse Authority for these purposes.

(2) Immediately upon receipt of the license, the warehouseman shall post the license and keep it so posted until it is cancelled or its validity has expired, in a conspicuous place of the warehouse licensed, where receipts issued by the warehouseman are delivered to the depositors.

(3) When any of the events contemplated in clauses (a) and (b) of sub-section (1) of section 7 occurs, it shall be the duty of the warehouseman to notify such occurrence with its details to the Warehouse Authority.

(4) Every warehouseman shall permit and provide necessary facilities or assistance to the Warehouse Authority or any officer authorised by the said Authority to enter, inspect or examine a licensed warehouse, and to examine or inspect its machinery and equipment, the goods stored therein, the office thereof, the books, records, papers and accounts relating thereto and the contents thereof, on any business day during the normal hours of business.

(5) Every warehouseman shall carry out any instructions given in writing by the Warehouse Authority or any officer authorised by it and abide by such other terms and conditions as may be notified from time to time by the Warehouse Authority for the efficient conduct of business of the warehouse or for the efficient maintenance thereof in the interest of the warehousing industry or of the depositors.

(6) In the case of a licensed warehouse dealing in excisable goods, the warehouseman shall abide by the provisions of such excise laws of the Central or State Government and rules made thereunder as may be for the time being in force.

(7) Every warehouseman shall maintain his warehouse in the following conditions:

(i) The warehouse shall be so made and maintained as to be damp-proof and protected against entry of, or damage to goods by, birds, pests, noxious insects, rats and other rodents;

(ii) The goods warehoused shall be kept and arranged in such a manner as to prevent their deterioration from damp, moisture or water from the floor, side walls and the roof;

(iii) The warehouse shall be repaired whenever necessary and shall be kept disinfected;

(iv) The goods warehoused shall be kept and arranged in such a manner as to render their inspection, stock taking or verification easy and effective;

(v) Stacks shall not be so constructed that they touch the walls or the roofs and sufficient space in between such stacks shall be left so as to facilitate the inspection of each stack from all sides and from the top;

(vi) Goods received for storage in the warehouse shall be measured in cubic metre (length, breadth and height) or weighed, in metric units, as the case may be, and such measure or weight shall be taken by a licensed measurer or weigher and duly and distinctly stenciled on each container or package or labelled on each stack or lot showing the date and quantity of weight or measure, the nature of the commodity, grade or class of the goods, if any, the name of the depositor and these descriptions shall be in bold letters;

(vii) All leakages in roof or dampness in the walls or floors, particularly during the monsoons, shall be carefully watched and repaired or removed in good time;

(viii) All equipments or appliances in the warehouse such as scales, weights, measures, ladders, pokers, dusting and spraying machines, etc., shall be maintained in working conditions;

(ix) Every warehouseman shall appoint trained staff to handle disinfectants, insecticides, pesticides and such other chemicals as are to be applied for the prevention of damage to the goods warehoused:

Provided that where the warehouseman himself has the necessary knowledge and experience of handling such disinfectants, insecticides, pesticides, etc., and of handling the appliances for their use, then and in that event appointment of the above mentioned staff shall not be compulsory;

(x) Every warehouseman shall have, at all times, adequate stocks of such disinfectants, insecticides, pesticides and chemicals as may be necessary to be applied to the warehouse or to the goods stored, to prevent damage to or deterioration of the goods stored from attack of insects, pests, rodents, etc., and such application shall be made as frequently or in such doses as may be necessary for the preservation of the goods stored or for the keeping of the warehouse itself free from any infection or from attack of insects, pests and rodents, etc.;

(xi) Every warehouseman shall keep in serviceable condition adequate fire-fighting equipments and materials within the warehouse premises and shall have trained staff to handle such equipments and materials:

Provided that if the warehouseman himself has the necessary knowledge and experience of handling such equipments and materials, appointment of staff as mentioned above shall not be compulsory;

(xii) The warehouseman shall at all times keep the warehouse and the goods warehoused reasonably clean and free from dusts, straw, rubbish and accumulation of such other materials as may increase the risk of fire, interfere with the handling and inspection of the goods or be otherwise detrimental to the goods warehoused.

7. Security: Every warehouseman other than a Corporation established under the Agricultural Produce (Development and Warehousing) Corporations Act, 1956 (Act 28 of 1956), or deemed to be established under the Warehousing Corporations Act, 1962 (Act 58 of 1962), or a Co-operative Society registered under the Bengal Co-operative Societies Act, 1940 (Bengal Act XXI of 1940), shall, at the time of applying for a license—

(1) either, furnish to the Warehouse Authority, security deposit in cash or in public securities, assessed at the rate of Rupees ten per three cubic metres of the storage capacity of the warehouse to be licensed, subject to a minimum of Rupees five hundred and a maximum of Rupees one thousand and five hundred and execute a bond in Form No. 4 for the observance of the conditions and obligations arising out of his business as a warehouseman,

(2) or, execute a bond with two sureties in Form No. 4a to the satisfaction of the Warehouse Authority for a like amount.

8. Period of validity of license: A license whether issued for the first time under section 5 or renewed thereafter under section 6 shall be valid for the period from the date on which it is granted or renewed up to the 31st December following inclusive of both these dates.

9. Notice of cancellation of license: When a notice is issued by the Warehouse Authority cancelling a license under section 7, a copy of the notice shall forthwith be sent to the warehouseman by registered post or left at the last known place of his residence or business and such notice shall also be published by the Warehouse Authority in the Official Gazette as early as possible for general information.

10. Publication of lists of licensed warehouses, warehousemen and their address, and cancellation of licenses: Consolidated annual lists of names and locations of warehouses licensed and the names and addresses of the respective warehousemen, as on the 1st day of January of every year shall be published in the Official Gazette before the 31st of March of the same year. Supplements to such lists indicating subsequent grant or cancellation of licenses if any during the year in question shall also be published in the Official Gazette.

CHAPTER III

Duties of Warehouseman

11. Facilities for inspection of goods by depositors: On being approached by the depositor or his authorised agent for inspection of his goods at any time during normal hours of business of the warehouse, and on production of the warehouse receipt(s) for identification, every warehouseman shall permit the depositor or his authorised agent to enter the warehouse and to inspect or examine his goods remaining in the warehouse. The warehouseman shall also show the depositor or his authorised agent the exact location of the goods warehoused and intended to be inspected or examined and give him such assistance as may be required by the depositor or his authorised agent for inspection or examination of the goods and for satisfying that his goods are being duly stored and cared for.

12. Disposal of goods deteriorating or about to deteriorate, issue of notice for sale, accounting of sale proceeds, etc.: (1) The notice to be given to the depositor under section 12 shall be sent by registered post with copies thereof to all such persons who hold interest in the goods as may be known to the warehouseman on the date of issuing such notice.

(2) A copy of the notice shall also be sent by registered post to the Warehouse Authority or to such local representative of the said authority as may be notified by it for any particular areas from time to time.

(3) Before effecting any sale of goods under sub-section (2) of section 12, which shall always be made by public auction, the warehouseman shall duly notify to the depositor and all other persons interested in the goods as may be known to the warehouseman, the date, time and place of auction at least a week before the date of such auction. A notice of such auction shall also be published by the warehouseman in a reputed and well-circulated news daily at least once, and if there is no local news daily, in any important news daily within the State. Copies of such notice shall be sent by the warehouseman to the Warehouse Authority or to its local representative, as referred to in sub-rule (2), and exhibited in important public places within the locality such as market places, Panchayat Office, Municipal or Town Committee Office, etc. The cost of auction and publicity shall be borne by the depositor.

(4) In the case of such sale every warehouseman shall furnish to the depositor correct accounts with details of expenses incurred for the auction sale and of the proceeds of such sale and tender to the depositor within thirty days from the date of such sale, payment of the proceeds of the sale after deducting all charges legally due to the warehouseman including all reasonable costs incurred by the warehouseman for the removal of the goods, publicity and auction sale. Actual payment of the dues of the depositor on account of the sale proceeds shall however be made on surrender by him of the warehouse receipt duly discharged and on payment by him of all charges reasonably due to the warehouseman.

(5) If the depositor fails to take payment of any sum due to him and tendered for payment under sub-rule (4), within ninety days of the sale of the goods, the amount shall then be deposited as a revenue deposit at the nearest Treasury to the credit of the Warehouse Authority under appropriate head to be notified by the Warehouse Authority and a copy of the receipted challan in this respect shall be forwarded to the Warehouse Authority immediately after such credit.

13. Allowable limits of shortage or excess of goods warehoused: For the purpose of sub-section (1) of section 13—

(i) loss of weight or bulk by dryage or shrinkage within the limits specified in Appendix I to these rules, and

(ii) gain in weight or bulk by absorption of moisture within the limits specified in Appendix II to these rules, shall not be deemed to amount to deterioration or to show signs that the goods are about to deteriorate.

14. Insurance of goods warehoused: (1) Goods in a licensed warehouse shall be insured against loss or damage by fire, theft, riot and civil commotion with a company or companies approved by the Warehouse Authority for this purpose, for an amount not less than the market value of such goods on the date on which they were deposited in the warehouse.

(2) Insurance covers shall also be taken by the warehouseman in respect of any particular class of goods or in respect of a warehouse situated in a particular class of localities, against such other risks or events and in such manner as may be notified by the Warehouse Authority from time to time.

(3) Every warehouseman shall be entitled to recover from the depositor of the goods or its owner, the insurance premia and other incidental expenditure incurred by him for the insurance of the goods deposited in his warehouse, if such premia and expenditure are not included in the storage charge levied by the warehouseman for the goods stored.

(4) A warehouseman being a Corporation established under the Agricultural Produce (Development and Warehousing) Corporations Act, 1956 (Act 28 of 1956), or a Corporation established or deemed to be established under the Warehousing Corporations Act, 1962 (Act 58 of 1962), may be exempted by the State Government in exercise of the powers conferred by section 31, and on the recommendation of the Warehouse Authority, from the operation of section 15, provided that the State Government is satisfied that such warehouseman has in respect of the warehouse licensed, arrangements for the protection of the interests of depositors in the incidence of loss or damage of their goods and/or has a self-indemnification scheme in lieu of insurance undertaking to indemnify the depositors against loss or damage of their goods while warehoused with such warehouseman.

15. Maintenance of accounts by the warehouseman: Every warehouseman shall maintain such records and accounts relating to his warehouse or his business as warehouseman as may be required by the Warehouse Authority and shall, in particular, maintain—

(1) a stock register in Form No. 8;

(2) a ledger for each depositor of goods in Form No. 9;

(3) a general insurance account in Form No. 10; and

(4) a register of warehouse receipts issued and cancelled in Form No. 11.

16. Information regarding persons authorised to sign receipts or to act on behalf of warehouseman: Every warehouseman shall file in the office of the Warehouse Authority, information regarding names and addresses of the persons, if any, with specimens of their signature, authorised by the warehouseman to sign receipts on his behalf or to act as his agent, and shall so file similar particulars in case such persons are changed immediately after such changes take place. If new persons are authorised, such information or particulars in respect of those persons shall also be submitted to the Warehouse Authority forthwith.

CHAPTER IV

Inspection and Grading of Goods

17. Licensing of weighers, measures, samplers and graders, license fees, etc.: (1) No license shall be granted under section 19 to any person—

(a) to act as a weigher or measurer unless he is able to read and write in the regional language and in English and has workable knowledge of taking weights and measures of goods;

(b) to act as a sampler or grader unless he has passed—

(i) the Higher Secondary School Certificate Examination,

or

(ii) any examination declared by the Prescribed Authority as equivalent thereto, with Agriculture as one of the subjects or has received training in an agricultural school or has sufficient experience in the classification and grading of goods and of articles used for agricultural purposes.

(2) The provisions of sub-rule (1) regarding academic qualifications may be relaxed by the Prescribed Authority on application by any person to act as a licensed weigher or measurer or sampler or grader provided the Prescribed Authority is satisfied that the applicant has the requisite knowledge and experience of the work and is otherwise fit to act as a licensed weigher or measurer or sampler or grader as the case may be.

(3) Every application for a license under section 19 or for renewal of a license under section 20, to act as a weigher or measurer or sampler or grader and to issuee certificate as to weight, measurement, quality or grade of any goods deposited or to be deposited in a warehouse shall be made in Form 12 to the Prescribed Authority and such application shall be accompanied—

(a) by a fee of Rupees five in the case of an application for a license to act as weigher or measurer, and

(b) by a fee of Rupees ten in the case of an application for license to act as a sampler or grader.

(4) Nothing in this rule shall prevent one and the same person from acting at the same time as a weigher, measurer, grader and sampler or in any two or more of these capacities, provided he has the necessary knowledge, qualification and experience and has been granted necessary license accordingly by the Prescribed Authority to act as such.

(5) The Prescribed Authority shall, on receipt of an application under sub-rule (3) and after making such enquiries as may be considered necessary to ensure efficient working of the warehouse or to meet the purposes of the Act, and to satisfy itself that the applicant is suitable for the grant of a license as applied for, grant the applicant a license in Form No. 13 on his executing a bond in such form as may be determined by the Prescribed Authority, agreeing to comply with the provisions of the Act and these rules and also to conform to the following terms and conditions—

(i) every weigher, measurer, sampler or grader licensed under the Act shall keep such books and in such forms and submit such returns and at such times and manners, as the Prescribed Authority may from time to time direct or notify;

(ii) no weigher, measurer, sampler or grader shall realise from his customer charges exceeding the rates laid down by the Prescribed Authority from time to time, for services rendered by way of weighing, measuring, sampling or grading, etc., of goods;

(iii) the license shall be liable to be suspended or cancelled for contravention of any of the provisions of the Act and these rules and for violation of the conditions of the license or of the bond executed under this sub-rule.

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in this rule, the Prescribed Authority may refuse to grant or renew a license to any person to act as a weigher, measurer, sampler or grader who in its opinion is not solvent or whose operations are not likely to further the efficient working of a warehouse:

Provided however that before refusing to grant or renew a license under this sub-rule the Prescribed Authority shall communicate to such person the ground or grounds on which it is proposed to refuse to grant or renew the license as applied for and shall give him reasonable opportunity of showing cause against such refusal.

(7) Every license granted under section 19 or renewed under section 20 shall be valid for the period up to the 31st of December following with effect from the date of issue of the license granted or renewed, inclusive of both the dates.

18. Authority for deciding disputes regarding weight, measurement, bulk, quality or grade of goods: The District Agricultural Marketing Officer in the districts and the Superintendent of Agricultural Marketing, Headquarters, in Calcutta shall be the authority to decide any dispute as and when referred to them under the proviso to sub-section (2) of section 19.

CHAPTER V

Warehouse Receipt

19. Form of warehouse receipt and conditions of issue thereof: (1) Every warehouseman shall for the purpose of section 22 issue receipts in Form No. 7, which shall contain the following particulars along with such other particulars, if any, specified by the Warehouse Authority from time to time, for the purpose of the Act or these rules:—

(i) the location of the warehouse receiving the goods for storage;

(ii) the name(s) of the person(s) by whom or on whose behalf the goods are deposited;

(iii) the date of issue of receipts;

(iv) the rate of storage, weighment or measurement, grading or sampling or classifying and handling charges;

(v) the description of the goods or of the packages containing the goods, their number or quantity by weight or measurement, etc.;

(vi) particulars showing the ownership of and liens or mortgages or other encumbrances, if any, on the goods covered by the receipt, as declared by the depositor(s) in his/their application for deposit under rule 28;

(vii) an endorsement to clearly state whether the receipt is negotiable or non-negotiable; and

(2) No receipt shall, by reason of the omission therein of any of the particulars as required by sub-rule (1), be invalid for any of the purposes of the Act or of these rules or for the settlement of disputes and claims arising from either deposit of the goods covered by the receipt or from the warehousing thereof.

(3) Every depositor shall be bound to supply to the warehouseman copies under his signature of any endorsement regarding transfer, mortgage or encumbrance of the goods deposited as may be recorded on the warehouse receipt, forthwith after making such endorsement.

20. Fee for and proceduure of issuing duplicate warehouse receipt: (1) Every application for the issue of a duplicate warehouse receipt under section 24 shall be made by the depositor to the warehouseman stating the number and date of the original receipt, if possible, and shall be accompanied by—

(a) a fee of Rupees two;

(b) an affidavit showing that the applicant(s) is/are lawfully entitled to the possession of the original receipt, that he/they has/have not negotiated or assigned it, the circumstances in which the original receipt was lost, torn, damaged, defaced or destroyed or otherwise rendered illegible and if lost, that diligent efforts had been made to find out the receipt without success;

(c) when the original receipt has been lost, a declaration undertaking to indemnify the warehouseman against any loss, liability, cost or expenses which the warehouseman may have to incur or may be put into by the contingency of the original receipt remaining outstanding or its being fraudulently used by anybody; and

(d) the original receipt as it is, when it is not lost or destroyed.

(2) On receipt of such application and on satisfying himself that the conditions of sub-rule (1) have been duly met by the applicant(s), the warehouseman shall issue a duplicate receipt as early as possible:

Provided that where a duplicate receipt is wanted to replace an original receipt lost or destroyed, on receipt of the application the warehouseman shall also notify at least once in such local newspaper or newspapers or in such other manner as may be specified by the Warehouse Authority from time to time, that the original receipt is reported to have been lost or destroyed, as the case may be, that an application has been made for the issue of a duplicate receipt and that the application will be complied with within a week from the date of such notification, and only on the expiry of the notified period, a duplicate receipt shall be issued by the warehouseman as prayed for, provided he is satisfied that the conditions of sub-rule (1) have been duly met. The expenses connected with such notification shall be borne by the applicant(s).

(3) A duplicate warehouse receipt duly stamped "duplicate" shall be issued by the warehouseman after making an entry in the remarks column of the Warehouse Receipt Register recording therein the fact of the issue of such duplicate receipt with the date of its issue.

(4) After a warehouse receipt stated to be lost or destroyed has been replaced by a duplicate receipt, the original receipt, if produced, shall not be valid or acted upon and it must be immediately surrendered to the warehouseman.

(5) Every receipt issued under Chapter V of the Act shall bear a stamp of the value as required by the provisions of the Indian Stamp Act, 1899 as in force in the State of West Bengal.

CHAPTER VI

Miscellaneous

21. Fees for and procedure of issuing duplicate licences: (1) Application under section 28 for the issue of a duplicate licence under Chapter II or Chapter IV of the Act, shall be made to the Warehouse Authority or to the Prescribed Authority, as the case may be, in Form No. 2 and shall be accompanied by—

(a) a fee of rupees five in the case of a licence under Chapter II or a fee of rupees two, in the case of a licence under Chapter IV of the Act; and

(b) when the duplicate licence is wanted to replace a licence lost, an indemnity bond in Form No. 5 duly executed by the applicant(s), undertaking to indemnify the State Government against any loss or damage, which may be caused by any one using the outstanding licence lost or stated to be lost by the applicant(s).

(2) A licence, which is torn, defaced or otherwise rendered illegible, shall be surrendered as it is by the applicant(s) to the Warehouse Authority or the Prescribed Authority, as the case may be, along with the application for the issue of a duplicate licence.

(3) Immediately after receipt of application, the Warehouse Authority or the Prescribed Authority as the case may be, shall, after satisfying itself that the conditions of sub-rule (1) and/or sub-rule (2), as far as they may apply to the particular case under consideration, have been met by the applicant(s), issue a duplicate licence as prayed for:

Provided that when the duplicate licence is wanted to replace an original licence lost or destroyed before the issue of such duplicate licence the fact that the original license has been lost or destroyed shall also be notified by the Warehouse Authority or the Prescribed Authority, as the case may be, at least once in the important local newspapers, or, if there is no local newspaper, in the important newspapers within the State, stating that the application shall be complied with within one week from the date of such notification and the cost of such notification in the newspapers shall be borne by the applicant(s).

(4) Every duplicate licence issued under section 28 shall bear in its face the number and date if the original licence of which it is the duplicate and shall be stamped "Duplicate".

22. Appeals and reference: Any appeal or reference under the provisions of section 25 shall be made to the Appellate Authority within one month from the date of the order, decision or dispute which may be the cause of action in making such appeals or reference, along with a fee of—

(a) Rupees twenty-five, in the case of any appeal or reference under clauses (i), (ii) or (iii) of sub-section (1) of section 25; or

(b) Rupees fifteen, in the case of any appeal under clause (iv) of sub-section (1) of section 25.

23. Special provision for Co-operative Societies: If at any particular time, a Co-operative Society and other parties apply under rule 28 to the warehouseman for storing their goods, the application of the Co-operative Society shall receive priority over those of other parties and when two or more Co-operative Societies apply at a time, the relative priority as between such Societies shall be fixed by the order in which their applications are received by the warehouseman, provided, however, that acceptance of goods for storage or the giving of such priorities by the warehouseman shall always be subject to the condition of the goods tendered, availability of space in the warehouse and compliance with the provisions of the Act and these rules, as far as they apply to acceptance of goods and their warehousing.

24. Refund of fees: When an application for the grant or renewal of a licence under Chapter II or under Chapter IV of the Act is refused, the applicant(s) will be entitled to get refund of the fees paid by him/them or such parts thereof as may be determined by the Warehouse Authority or the Prescribed Authority as the case may be:

Provided that the fees paid under rule 22 shall not be refundable under any circumstances.

25. Display of signboard of licensed warehouse: Every warehouseman shall display prominently by a suitable signboard for each warehouse for which he has a licence under the Act that the warehouse has been licensed.

26. Hours of business of licensed warehouses: Every licensed warehouse shall remain open for transacting business for at least eight hours a day between 7 a.m. and 7 p.m., the actual hours when business can be transacted being such as may be appointed by the warehouseman with the approval of the Warehouse Authority and such appointed hours of business shall be conspicuously and prominently exhibited at each licensed warehouse:

Provided that a warehouseman may observe weekly, national or other holidays under the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 (XXVI of 1881) and notice of observance of such holidays shall well beforehand be prominently displayed by the warehouseman on the notice board of the warehouse for general information.

27. Certificates to be issued by weighers, measurers, samplers and graders: (1) The certificates issued by licensed weighers, measurers, samplers or graders shall be in Form No. 14.

(2) If a certificate issued by any licensed weigher, measurer, sampler, or grader is lost, damaged or destroyed, a duplicate certificate shall be issued by the licensed weigher, measurer, sampler or grader, as the case may be, if so required by the holder of such certificate and on payment by him of a fee of Rupee one.

28. Application for depositing goods to and taking delivery thereof from licensed warehouse: For depositing goods in a licensed warehouse application shall be made to the warehouseman in Form No. 6 and application for taking delivery of goods from a licensed warehouse shall be made to the warehouseman in Form No. 6A.

29. When warehouseman may determine weight, measurement, class or grade of goods: In areas where there are no licensed weighers, measurers, samplers or graders, the weight, measurement, quantity, class, quality or grade of the goods tendered for deposit in a warehouse or covered by a warehouse receipt shall be as determined by the warehouseman.

(Department of Food)

ORDER

New Delhi, the 21st March 1966

G.S.R. 425.—Whereas the Central Government is of opinion that for maintaining supplies of adequate quantities of foodgrains, it is necessary so to do;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 3 of the Essential Commodities Act, 1955 (10 of 1955), the Central Government hereby makes the following order, namely:—

1. Short title Extent and Commencement: (1) This order may be called the Foodgrains (Prohibition of Use in Manufacture of Starch) Order, 1966.

(2) It extends to the whole of India except the State of Jammu and Kashmir.

(3) It shall come into force at once.

2. Definitions: In this order,—

(a) "foodgrains" means all foodgrains other than hybrid maize grown in India;

(b) "owner" in relation to a starch factory, includes a person in charge of such factory;

(c) "starch factory" means any factory which manufactures starch.

3. Foodgrains not to be used in Starch Factories: No owner of a starch factory shall use or cause to be used foodgrains for the manufacture of starch.

4. Foodgrains not to be purchased by starch factories: No owner of a starch factory shall purchase or cause to be purchased foodgrains for use in the manufacture of starch in the starch factory.

5. Powers of entry, search, seizure, etc.: (1) Any police officer not below the rank of Assistant Sub-Inspector or any other person authorized in this behalf by the Central Government or, within their respective jurisdiction, by a State Government or the Administrator of a Union territory may, with a view to securing compliance with the order or to satisfying himself that this order has been complied with—

(i) enter upon and search or authorize any person to enter upon and search, any premises, any vehicle or vessel in which such person has reason to believe that any provision of this order has been, is being or is about to be contravened;

(ii) seize or authorize the seizure of foodgrains in respect of which he has reason to believe that any provision of this order has been, is being, or is about to be contravened.

(2) The provisions of sections 102 and 103 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (5 of 1898), relating to search and seizure shall, so far as may be, apply to searches and seizures under this clause.

6. Repeal and Saving: The Indian Maize (Prohibition of Use in Manufacture of Starch) Order, 1959, and the Indian Jowar (Prohibition of Use in Manufacture of Starch) Order, 1965, are hereby repealed except as respects things done or omitted to be done thereunder.

OFFICE OF THE DISTRICT MAGISTRATE OF NADIA

ORDERS

No. 1527J.M.—25th March 1966. -Whereas it has been brought to my notice that rice/paddy is being sent out of this district of Nadia surreptitiously with a view to their ultimate disposal at prices exceeding the price fixed by the Government under the Essential Commodities Act, 1955, and whereas, I am of the opinion that for maintaining supplies essential to the life of the Community it is necessary for the district authorities to obtain information regarding the export of rice from this district;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred under section 20 of the West Bengal Security Act, 1950 (Act XIX of 1950), as delegated to me under section 38 of the said Act by the Government in their notification No. 6210-P/445/50, dated 19th September 1950, I, Shri R. Bhattacheryya, I.A.S., District Magistrate, Nadia, do hereby order:

That no person shall carry with him rice/paddy exceeding 2 kilograms by train unless specific permission from myself or the District Controller of Food and Supplies, Krishnagar, or the Block Development Officers concerned. All movement of rice/paddy by Government or its agents or for purpose of Government will however be exempted from the operation of this order.

The above order shall remain in force for a period of three months from the 29th March 1966 to 28th June 1966. Any person contravening this order shall be liable to punishment under the provisions of the laws of the Land.

Given under my hand and Seal this day, the 28th March 1966.

R. BHATTACHERYYA,
District Magistrate.

No. 1043J.M.—26th February 1966.—Whereas it has been brought to my notice that essential commodities including livestock are being smuggled out of the border areas of the district of Nadia and whereas I am of the opinion that for maintaining supplies essential to the life of the community it is necessary to prevent unlawful trade and smuggling in any Hat, bazar, market, shop or any other place situated within three miles in the district of Nadia from the Indo-Pakistan Border;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred under section 20 of the West Bengal Security Act, 1950 (Act XIX of 1950), as delegated to me under section 38 of the said Act by the State Government in their notification No. 6218-P/445/50, dated 19th September 1950, I, Shri Ramaranjan Bhattacheryya, I.A.S., District Magistrate of Nadia, do hereby order:

That all movements of any commodity (including livestock) article or thing in Hat, bazar, market, shop or any other place lying within a belt of three miles in the district of Nadia from the Indo-Pakistan Border, be prohibited between dusk and dawn;

That movements of the aforesaid commodities, articles or things in vehicles such as tempo, motor car, truck, lorry, rickshaw, handcart, any animal-driven cart and carriage and vessels be prohibited within the said three miles belt in the district of Nadia from the Indo-Pakistan Border between dusk and dawn;

And that shops, bazars, markets, Hats, mart, Arat and other place of business transaction, excepting licensed pharmaceutical shop dispensing medicines, shall remain closed within the said three mile belt in the district of Nadia from the Indo-Pakistan Border between dusk and dawn;

Provided, that, exemption to the said order may be given by a permit in writing issued by me or by the Additional District Magistrate in case of genuine and bona fide movements and transaction.

The above order shall remain in force for a period of three months from 1st March 1966 to 31st May 1966. Any person contravening this order shall be liable to punishment under the provisions of the law.

Given under my hand and seal on this 26th day of February 1966.

R. BHATTACHERYYA,
District Magistrate.

NOTICE

Whereas the immovable properties described in the schedule below (hereinafter referred to as the said properties) were requisitioned by the Government of West Bengal, Land and Land Revenue Department, order No. 53/66-L.A., dated the 10th July 1963, under section 29 of the Defence of India Act, 1962 (Act 51 of 1962), read with the Defence of India (West Bengal Requisitioning and Acquisition) (Immovable Property) Rules, 1963;

And whereas works have, during the period of requisition, been constructed over the said properties wholly/partly at the expense of the Government of West Bengal and it has been decided by the Government of West Bengal that the value of right to use the aforesaid works shall be preserved for the purposes of the said Government;

And whereas as the cost to the Government of West Bengal of restoring the said properties to their condition at the time of requisition as aforesaid would, in the determination of that Government, be excessive having regard to the value of the said properties at that time;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the power conferred by sub-section (2) of section 36 of the Defence of India Act, 1962 (Act 51 of 1962), read with sub-section (2) of section 48 of the said Act and with Government of West Bengal, Land and Land Revenue Department notification No. 6062-Reqn.(D.I.), dated the 11th April 1963, and No. 6872-Reqn. (D.I.), dated the 20th April 1964, I, M. Bhattacharyya, Deputy Commissioner, Darjeeling, hereby give notice that the Government of West Bengal has decided to acquire the said properties and serve this notice on Shri Dinabandhu Sarkar and others, the owners of the said properties.

Director of Public Instruction.

No. 3T.B.—22nd April 1966.—It is hereby notified for general information of authors and publishers that text-books in Hindi for non-Hindi-speaking students of Class V, written in accordance with the syllabus of studies approved by Government in terms of their order No. 1224Edn.(G), dated the 24th March 1965, and Picture Books in Bengali for children of Classes I and II of Primary schools and primary stages of Higher Secondary/High/Junior High Schools/Madrasahs which will largely conform to the approved syllabus of studies, will be received by the Secretary, Text-Book Committee, West Bengal, Writers' Buildings, ground floor, Calcutta, for consideration on or before Wednesday, the 31st August 1966.

Syllabuses as already approved by Government are reproduced below:

Hindi Syllabus for non-Hindi-speaking students for Class V

The simple letters (vowels and consonants) of Devanagari alphabet.—Systematic training in the sounds of aspirates ण and न, ज and य, ब and व and श, ष, स.

The Primer should not be of more than 64 pages. In the first half of the Primer vowels and their Matras, consonants and simple words without conjoint letters are to be used. Conjoint letters are to be introduced in the second-half of the Primer. The lessons should be of gradually higher standard. The lessons should be based on every-day life and environment of the children. Poetry pieces should not exceed one-fourth of the contents of the Primer. These should be composed of simple and easily understandable words, so that the young learners may learn them by heart without much difficulty. Simple stories may be inserted in the lessons to make them more interesting.

Transcription from the Primer is essential for the students, Emphasis should be given on correct pronunciation, formation of simple sentences with words from the Primer, and simple dictation. Illustrative and coloured charts may be used wherever available.

Syllabuses—Language and Literature (Bengali)

Class I (Age group 6 +)

The chief objective in language training at this stage should be stimulation and development of free self-expression in children. Children should be encouraged to speak freely, describe their experinces, tell stories, recite hymns, poems and nursery rhymes and sing simple songs and the national anthems.

Oral Self-expression: (a) Ability to speak clearly, fully and with ease about their life in school, home and village/town. Special attention should be given to correct pronunciation.

(b) Increasing the learner's vocabulary about home life, life in school, and in village/town.

(c) Stories to be told by both the teacher and children.

(d) Mythology, folk tales, fairy tales, nature stories, funny stories and nonsense stories of children in other lands.

(e) Poems, simple and of good literary standard.

(f) Dramatic presentation of stories, folk tales, etc.

Total vocabulary attainable at the end of this class, approximately 450 words.

(g) Construction of bigger sentences according to child's interests.

(h) Acquaintance with words and letters will be through the playway method, and on the basis of likeness between the different letters, e.g., ভ, ম, অ; ব, ন, ক etc., as also on the basis of children's interests.

(i) Conjoint letters should be avoided as far as possible at this stage.

Class II (Age group 7 +)

1. Oral self-expression should be further developed. Children should be able to describe more fully and with greater ease men and things as well as happenings within their experience in school, home and village/town.

Besides oral self-expression, poems, stories, dramatisation and recitation should be the chief features of teaching.

Extension of Vocabulary: Children's vocabulary in relation to their life in the school, home and village should be further developed at this stage. Approximately 350 new words should be introduced.

2. Reading and reproduction of elementary type of short tales, and stories of men and animals, fairy tales, short and interesting sketches and description of natural phenomena. Simple poems suitable for the age-group from the works of standard authors. They should be able to read simple story-books which should be properly illustrated.

The details regarding the procedure of submission of the books are given below:—

(1) Each book will be submitted in six copies. Four of these copies should contain no names of authors or publishers on the cover, inner title page, in the preface or elsewhere. The identity of the author or publisher should in no way be revealed in these copies. The remaining two copies will bear these information. Three of these four copies should be submitted in three different sealed packets each containing one book.

Thus the six copies will be packed in four different sealed packets each indicating on the sealed cover (a) the title of the book, (b) subject and language in which it is written and (c) class for which the book is intended. The sealed cover should contain no other particulars.

(2) An application in the following form should also be submitted along with the books:

(i) Title of the book.

(ii) Class for which it is intended.

(iii) Name and address of the author.

(iv) Name and address of the publisher.

(v) Name and address of the press where printed.

(vi) If the book was previously submitted for consideration.

(vii) Price.

(3) Two declarations as shown below should be sent to the Secretary, Text Book Committee, West Bengal, for record alongwith the submission of each book:

(i) I/We declare that I/we am/are the author(s) of the book entitle..... and published by.....

Dated.....

Signature of author(s)

(ii) I/We declare that no copyright material has been used in the book entitle..... .....necessary permission has been obtained for the copyright material that has been used in the book entitled..... .....

Dated.....

Signature of author(s) or Publisher(s)

(iii) In the case of an author or publisher who is a Government servant, the number and the date of the order in which he/she has been permitted to write or publish the book should invariably be quoted in the application form.

(4) A sum of Rs. 18 (Rupees eighteen) only for Hindi text-book for Class V and Rs. 8 (Rupees eight) only for each Picture book for Classes I and II should be paid as fees. Challans showing deposits with a Government treasury in West Bengal of the sum under head "XXII—Education—Miscellaneous—Receipts" should accompany the application submitting each book to the Committee. No book will be considered unless it is accompanied with a treasury challan. Fees once deposited will not be refunded.

(5) It is desirable that the title of a book submitted to the Committee for consideration should be printed at the top of each leaf of the book.

(6) Book(s) submitted to the Secretary, Text-Book Committee, West Bengal, should be in print.

(7) No name except that of the author and the publisher should be shown on the cover or title page. (No name of editor, reviser or writer of a foreword or preface should be given).

Re: Hindi Text Books

Authors of text-books in Hindi for Class V are also requested to note the following special instructions:

(1) Line drawings in preference to half-tone blocks, and illustrations approximate to the facts should be used.

(2) Paper should be unglazed, hard pressed, opaque and not below 20"×30" (51 cm.×76 cm) 11.8 K.G.—500's White Printing.

(3) Ink used in printing should be good black, evenly distributed and of one colour.

(4) Type should be broad without excessive contrast of thick and thin, "Condensed" type should not be used.

Deviation from these instructions may result in outright rejection of the book.

The office of the Secretary, Text Book Committee, West Bengal, does not hold itself responsible for answering letters regarding books under consideration of the Committee. The titles of the books approved, will be duly notified.

LABOUR DEPARTMENT

ORDERS

No. 1423-I.R./IR/10L-16(C)/65. — 13th April 1966.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 1589-I.R./IR/10L-16(C)/65, dated the 1st May 1965, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Aluminium Corporation of India Ltd. P. O. Jay Kay Nagar, district Burdwan and their workmen represented by the Aluminium Mazdoor Union, P. O. Jay Kay Nagar, district Burdwan, regarding the issue mentioned in the said order being a matter specified in the second schedule to the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), was referred for adjudication to the Fourth Industrial Tribunal;

And whereas the said Fourth Industrial Tribunal has submitted to the State Government its award on the said industrial dispute;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Aluminium Corporation of India Ltd., P.O. Jay Kay Nagar, district Burdwan and their workmen represented by the Aluminium Mazdoor Union, P.O. Jay Kay Nagar, district Burdwan. (G.O. No. 1589-I.R., dated 1st May 1965) (VIII-103/65.)

BEFORE THE FOURTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL, CALCUTTA.

Present:

Shri R. BHATTACHARYA, M.A. LL.B., Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

For the Union: Shri P. Pathak.
For the Company: Shri D. Prakash.

The present reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act arises out of the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 1589-I.R./IR/10L-16(C)/65, dated the 1st May 1965, over a dispute between Messrs. Aluminium Corporation of India Ltd. (hereinafter described as the company), P.O. Jay Kay Nagar, district Burdwan and their workmen represented by the Aluminium Mazdoor Union, (hereinafter referred to as the union), P.O. Jay Kay Nagar, district Burdwan, relating to the following issue:

Issue

Whether the refusal of work to Shri Nand Kishore Singh is justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

Both the parties submitted their written statements. In short, the case of the union is that on 3rd March 1963 (wrongly stated) while Nand Kishore Singh was on duty, he met with an accident whereon he sustained injury. Thereafter he had to undergo a long treatment for about a year. He was not granted fit certificate to join his duties. Subsequently, an application was filed by the workman before the Commissioner for Workmen's Compensation for his disablement and loss of earning therefor. The union wants to say that the allegation that Shri Singh cannot do his duty as Channel Changing Operator is denied. The union wants that the company should allow the workman to join his duty as Channel Changing Operator and even if he is found unfit for the duty, he should be provided with an alternative employment. Shri Singh did not obtain any fit certificate from the doctor. O.P.W. 2 is the Labour Welfare Officer of the company. His material evidence is that Shri Singh never submitted his fit certificate to join his duty and that he did not come to join his duty. He has also stated that the injured person should produce his fit certificate before joining his duties. On this point also there is no dispute. Neither is there any contradicting evidence. Ext. B is the summons issued by the Court of the Commissioner for Workmen's Compensation with an application filed by Shri Singh. In this application, filed by Shri Singh, he unambiguously stated in paragraph 2 that on account of the incident on 23rd March 1963 he had lost some portion of the right foot and that he was unfit for work. The workmen Shri Singh gave a demonstration before me on the date of hearing and I am satisfied that he cannot properly walk. He was practically limping helplessly.

As the time of argument Shri Pathak for the union urged two points only. His first contention was that the company should offer alternative employment to Shri Singh. It was admitted at the time of argument that the worker was not fit for working as Channel Changing Operator. Admittedly, he can do light work which can be performed while seated. The second contention of Shri Pathak was that the company ought to have issued a discharge certificate to Shri Singh and in the absence of such certificate the workman was entitled to all pays up to date of the award.

First of all, I shall deal with the first contention. I am satisfied and there is no dispute that Shri Singh due to the accident has become incapacitated or unfit to do the work of Channel Changing Operator any more.

The company, on the other hand, says that Shri Singh met with an accident on 23rd March 1963. As a result of the injury he became incapacitated and was found medically unfit to work in the factory as Channel Changing Operator. According to the company, the workman could take his settlement from the company and he was entitled to legitimate compensation according to the provisions of the Workmen's Compensation Act. The workman, however, filed an application before the Commissioner for Workmen's Compensation and in that application he admitted that he was unfit for work on account of the injury. The company has taken its stand that it is justified in not giving work to Shri Singh for his unfitness, and if any work was given to him that might result to a fatal accident. The company could not allow Shri Singh to join his duty as Channel Changing Operator for his incapacity. The company cannot provide the workman with any other employment.

In this case the union has not examined any witness on its side. Shri Singh was present at the time of hearing but he did not adduce any oral evidence. Some documents have been exhibited on both the sides. The company has examined two witnesses. O.P.W. 1 is Dr. Durga Pada Roy, the Medical Officer of the company. He has stated that as a result of the accident all the toes of the right foot were lost, and that the tendon of muscles was adherent with the underlying tissues of both the feet. According to this doctor, Shri Singh has become unfit to work as Channel Changing Operator, and to this effect he issued a certificate to the company after examination of the injury on 9th March 1964. That certificate is marked Ext. A in this case. This witness has stated that after an injury the workman is to obtain a certificate of fitness from him and produces it before the company so that he may be allowed to join his duty. In the present case, however, Commissioner for Workmen's Compensation Shri Singh was paid a sum of Rs. 3,360 towards compensation on account of his disability and loss of earning. The question is whether the company is bound, in the circumstances of the present case, to engage Shri Singh in any other alternative employment. Admittedly there is no rule of the company to offer such alternative employment in case of disability. Shri Pathak submitted that from the humanitarian point of view the company should as an act of sympathy offer such employment. The question of sympahy is a different matter. A merciful act is an act of grace. No workman can, as a matter of right, compel the employer to perform any merciful act. No Court of Law can also compel the employer to show mercy or to do a benevolent act. In the present case I cannot ask the company to provide Shri Singh with any other alternative job. Shri Prokash for the company submitted before me that there was no work in the company which could be offered to Shri Singh. I do not find any substance in the first contention raised by Shri Pathak.

Next it was argued by Shri Pathak that the company had not issued any order of discharge or discharged certificate to Shri Singh so that he could know that his services had been terminated. In the premises Shri Pathak has claimed all wages of Shri Singh as Channel Changing Operator up to this day. The evidence shows that Shri Singh is unable to perform the duties of Channel Changing Operator due to his physical disability. Admittedly, the doctor did not grant any certificate of fitness to him. The evidence shows that employment of Shri Singh as Channel Changing Operator may result in a fatal accident. Moreover, the company is not bound to engage a person who has been found medically and physically unfit to do his duty. In the present case I find that the company is justified in refusing work to Shri Nanda due to his disability. The evidence further shows that Shri Singh did not produce any fit certificate. Neither did he come to join his duty. In the present reference the issue is "whether the refusal of work to Shri Nand Kishore Singh is justified". This portion of the issue must be answered in favour of the company. The answer would be "yes". With regard to the second portion of the issue, viz., relief, I am to see whether Shri Singh is to be paid anything. Unless Shri Singh is released from his service and unless a discharged certificate is granted to him, he may not in the ordinary course, get any employment elsewhere. This discharge certificate from the company should have been issued. If the company does not want to offer any other work to Shri Singh or to retain him in his employment, he should be officially informed about it by an official order. Shri Singh is certainly entitled to a discharge certificate. Of course the worker did not approach for any certificate. The claim of Shri Pathak for wages for the period of non-employment cannot, however, be entertained. This is unreasonable and not acceptable. The company did not want to get rid of Shri Singh with any malice or vindictive attitude. The conduct of the company is bona fide and reasonable. As Shri Singh has become disable and unfit for work, the company does not want to retain him any longer in his work. After the injury Shri Singh did not and could not render any service to the company on account of his incapacity. He cannot therefore claim any wage for the period during which he could not perform his duty. The period of non-employment was not due to any act of the employer. In these circumstances, therefore, no order can be passed for payment of wages to Shri Singh for the period during which Shri Singh did not render any service to the company after the injury. The second contention of Shri Pathak also fails. No other point was raised before me.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. General Electric Comany of India Private Limited, Magnet House, 6 Chittaranjan Avenue, Calcutta-13 and their workmen represented by the G.E.C. Staff Union, Magnet House, 6 Chittaranjan Avenue (South), Calcutta-13. (Case No. VIII-205 of 1965).

BEFORE THE SECOND INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL.

Present :

Shri AMBICA PADA BHATTACHARYA,
Presiding Officer, Second Industrial Tribunal.

By order No. 3333-I.R /IR/10L-123/63, dated Calcutta, the 29th July, 1965, Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, referred an industrial dispute between Messrs. General Electric Company of India Private Limited and their workmen represented by the G.E.C. Staff Union, for adjudication regarding the only issue contained in the order of reference.

Issue

Bonus for the year 1963-64.

This is a reference under section 10 of the Industrial Dispute. The dispute is regarding bonus for the year 1963-64 and it arose in the following way. The workmen are represented by G.E.C. Staff Union and the written statement of the said union disclosed the following facts. The company is as old as 1911 and was a branch of Messrs. G. E. C. Limited (England) and was subsequently changed to General Electric Company of India Limited which was further changed to General Electric Company of India (P) Ltd., in 1956. The change of name did not affect the sphere of business. The company is a highly prosperous electrical concern, having its business spread all over India and the world. All sorts of electrical goods are manufactured by the company, as detailed in paragraph 3 of the written statement of the union. The company employs 505 workmen as clerical, technical and subordinate staff in the head office and Brooklyn Stores at Calcutta and about 3,700 all over India in all its branches. The workmen in the head office formed a trade union known as General Electric Company Staff Union in the year 1946. The union is not looked upon in good grace by the company. The workmen of the company are paid wages far below the living wage for each category of workmen. The minimum wages paid comes to a total of Rs. 110 for subordinate staff and Rs. 250 for clerical staff leaving a considerable gap between the actual wages paid and the living wage standard according to the balance diet chart of 3 consumption unit and other essential requirements to reach the living standard of wages. The chart has been furnished in paragraph 9 of the written statement of the union. The union paid bonus in the previous years according to annexure B to the union written statement. During the year 1963-64 i.e. year ended 31st March 1964 the company earned considerable profits. The union claimed bonus for six months' earnings. There were several joint meetings and discussions. The matter was referred to the Labour Commissioner. The union demanded an advance payment of 3 months' wages as bonus during the pendency of the bonus dispute. The company did not pay any heed to it. The Labour Minister, Government of West Bengal, directed payment of bonus at the rate at which it was last paid. The company was in no mood to honour the said directive. The company by a notice, dated the 6th October 1964, declared unilaterally bonus for the year in question at rate much lower than the demand which was not accepted by the union. There was a conference held with the Deputy Labour Commissioner Shri H. M. Ghosh. By a letter, dated the 7th October 1964, the union accepted the amount offered, subject to final adjudication on that question. There had been various proposals and counter proposals over the bonus dispute and several sittings in conciliation. Ultimately the conciliation failed and the matter was referred to the Tribunal for adjudication. The whole history of conciliation has been described in detail in the union written statement and it would be needless to recapitulate the same.

The company filed its written statement challenging substantially all the allegations of the written statement of the union. The company is a subsidiary of the General Electric Company Limited of England. It is admitted that the name of the company was changed ultimatey to the General Electric Co., of India (P) Ltd. The company admits that it employs 537 in the clerical, technical and subordinate staff at the head office and Brooklyn Factory, who alone are concerned in the present adjudication. There are 3,000 workmen in the other offices and factories in India. The company paid bonus in previous years on the basis of bi-partite negotiations and agreements between the company and the union. The company's over-head expenditure is on the increase and the profit position is depleted. The profit position will appear from the balance-sheet and profit and loss account duly audited by a reputable firm of Auditors under the Companies Act. The company offered 10 per cent. of years' earnings i.e., basic and dearness allowance as bonus for the accounting year in question. It is considered by the company as just and proper.

Appearances of the parties are as follows :

For the Company : Shri D. Basu Thakur of Messrs. Bengal Chamber of Commerce and Industries and Shri P. K. Ahluwalia, Secretary of the company.

For the Union : Shri D. L. Sengupta, Advocate, assisted by Shri Anil Das Chowdury, Advocate and Shri Rabindra Nath Basu Mullick, President of the union.

Decision

The issue before the Tribunal is bonus for the year 1963-64. It is admitted that the trading and accounting year of the company is from 1st of April to 31st of March next. The year we are concerned with is from 1st April 1963 to March 1964, i.e. year ended 31st March 1964. There is another undisputed fact, namely, that the payment of Bonus Act, 1965, applies to the year in question. It is not denied by the company that the wages paid to the workmen are far below the living wage. The workmen are entitled to bonus since the wages fall far below the standard of living wage. In fact the company had been paying bonus in the past years and annexure B of the union written statement gives a list showing the rates of bonus in the preceding years. In the year in question 10 per cent of total wages had been offered by the company but the unions' demand is far in excess of the same. The dispute had been properly referred for adjudication since all attempts at conciliation had failed. There are certain points of controversy between the parties in the manner of calculation in terms of the payment of Bonus Act. The controversy ranges from the computation of gross profits till the figure of allocable surplus which is to be arrived at. Under section 4 of the Payment of Bonus Act the calculation is to be made in the manner specified in the second schedule. The second schedule will be taken up item by item and the controversies ranging in the different items will have to be discussed in detail. The first point for consideration would be as to what is the amount of net profit as per profit and loss account. This is item No. 1 of the second schedule. The union submitted four calculation sheets, Exts. 1, 1(a), 1(b), and 1(c), showing different amounts as net profit. The company submitted earlier a computation sheet Ext. G which however was abandoned at the time of hearing and the company professedly relies upon one single computation, namely Ext. B. The net profit is to be gathered from the balance-sheet Ext. A with reference to the profit and loss account. I will look into the balance-sheet for finding out the amount of net profit appearing therein. The relevant pages would be pages 6 and 7. Left hand side of page 6 shows the different items of expenditure and the right hand side shows the picture of receitps and earnings. The balance will appear as the last item on the left hand side of page 6 of the balance-sheet; the heading is profit before taxation carried forward. It shows an amount of Rs. 88,34,455. This is the amount of profit before taxation. Now the question is that under the second schedule in item No. 1 what the Tribunal will have to take is the net profit as per profit and loss account. It is not necessarily the profit before taxation carried forward. We should accordingly turn to pages 8 and 9 of the profit and loss account. There is no separate appropriation account but the appropriation is shown along with certain entries in pages 8 and 9. The balance carried to the balance-sheet represent a figure of Rs. 17,59,532. This is not the net profit as per profit and loss account. It will appear from page 8 that the balance of profit and loss account from previous year had been shown as a receipt for the purpose of the profit and loss account. This is an amount of profit of the previous year. This amount must be deducted from the balance carried to the balance-sheet in arriving at the figure of net profit. The learned representative for the union submits that this figure should also be taken into account. I cannot accept this argument for the simple reason that previous year's profit can never entered into the accounts of the bonus year in finding out the net profit in the balance-sheet. The net profit in the balance-sheet is accordingly be thus calculate :

Balance carried to balance-sheet	Rs. 17,59,532
Minus balance of profit and loss account from previous year	Rs. 17,58,279
	Rs. 1,257

Having accepted the net profit as above, I will proceed to the further calculations. Item No. 2 in clauses (a),(b), (c), (d) and (e) provides for add back of certain figures such as provision for clause (a) bonus to employees. In the balance-sheet a consolidated figure is given at Rs. 77,00,000 and odd under the heading salaries, indirect wages and bonus—local staff (page 6). The amount of bonus to employees will have to be separated from the consolidated figure. The company filed a computation on 23rd November 1965 giving a break up of the above heading. That computation forms part of the record. It shows that the total provision for bonus is Rs. 5,92,666 for employees under the Payment of Bonus Act and Rs. 41,261 a for expatriate staff. O.P.W.1 Shri Ahluwalia, Secretary of the company, in his evidence explained this figure at page 4. His evidence is that Rs. 41,261 was the amount of bonus paid to non-employees under the Bonus Act i.e. employees drawing monthly salary above Rs. 1,600. By expatriate staff those officers are meant whose salary exceeds Rs. 1,600. The Payment of Bonus Act defines the word "employees" in section 2, sub-section 13. It means any person whose salary does not exceed Rs. 1,600 per month. I can rely upon the evidence of Shri Ahluwala in this respect and conclude that Rs. 41,361 had been paid as bonus to expatriate staff who are not employees within the definition of section 2, sub-section 13 of the Payment of Bonus Act. The amount of provision for bonus should be confined to the figure embodying payment to "employees" as defined in the Payment of Bonus Act. The union submitted that the figure of Rs. 41,261 should also to be added back but for the reasons I have already given, the union's contention cannot be entertained. The amount to be added back as "provision for bonus charged to the profit and loss account" is Rs. 5,92,666. Then I will turn to item No. 2, clause (b)— depreciation. In this respect the balance-sheet should be looked into and I should turn to page 6 of the balance-sheet. Depreciation on fixed assets charged to the profit and loss account is Rs. 9,92,897. This is the amount which is admittedly to be added back. The union further claims that the depreciation on investments which is also charged to the profit and loss account to the tune of Rs. 18,760 should also be added back because this also is depreciation. The company's argument is that depreciation on investment is not in substance a depreciation but it is a loss on investment. In this respect the company points my attention to the fact that no depreciation had been claimed by the company in respect of the investment in the income tax return submitted by the company. An officer of the income tax department was cited as a witness. He is P.W.2 Biswanath Bhattacharjee. He is an officer of income tax department. I am not impressed with this argument. There is no evidence of a satisfactory nature to prove that the depreciation charge to the profit and loss account on investment should not be added back. Since this is a depreciation charged to the profit and loss account and item No. 2 of clause (b) of the second chedule speaks about adding back of depreciation ithout any qualification, this amount of Rs. 18,670 should also be added back. Shri Ahluwalia on behalf of the company submits that this item of depreciation should not be added in view of the fact that at the time of deduction of prior charges on account of depreciation nder section 6, clause (a) of the Payment of Bonus ..ct as admissible in accordance with section 32 of the Income Tax Act, the depreciation on investment is not allowed as a deduction. Section 6, cluase (a) is differently worded and as I have already pointed out item No. 2, clause (b) of the second schedule speaks about depreciation without any qualification or restriction of the meaning of the same. The word depreciation appearing in this item does not speak about depreciation that is allowed by income tax or is admissible under section 32 of the Income Tax Act. I cannot accept that depreciation on investment would amount to loss of investment, specially, because investments have not been sold during the year and as such the question of loss does not arise at all.

Next I will turn to item No. 2, clauses (c), (d) and (e); they speak about direct taxes, developmnt rebate, reserve and any other reserves. Item No. (c) is direct taxes. The amount to be added back is Rs. 60,00,000 appearing at page 8 of the balance-sheet. Item No. (d) is development rebate, the figure is Rs. 33,000 (where there is no controversy), appearing at page 8 of the balance-sheet. Item No. (e) is in respect of any other reserves, the total of such reserve is Rs. 20,00,000 appearing at page 8 of the balance-sheet. The total of item No. 2 is accordingly Rs. 96,37,233.

Next I will turn to item No. 3, clause (a), i.e., bonus paid to employees in respect of previous accounting year. The amount of such bonus is Rs. 6,49,642.

Now I will turn to item No. 3, clause (b), i.e., donation in excess of the amounts admissible in the Income Tax Act. There is controversy about this figure. The profit and loss account at page 6 shows the amount of donation and subscription under the single heading and the total figure is Rs. 42,843; out of which Rs. 1,000 is in respect of National Defence Fund which is to be admittedly excluded. In this conection the company's statements in Exts. B(4) and B(5) are to be considered along with the union's contention that the entire amount of Rs. 41,843 is to be added back as donation under item No. 3, clause (b). It is significant to note that item No. 3(b) speaks about adding back of donation in excess of the amount admissible in income tax. The subscription are not donations in all cases. The balance-sheet mentions subscription along with donations and gives an amalgamated figure. The break up figures are accordingly relevant for our purpose. Ext. 4(b) gives that list of subscription and the total amount of subscription is Rs. 37,098. The different items are also described with the expenditure on the right hand column. Various chambers of commerce and various associations and councils and journals are subscribed to by the company. These are subscriptions and they are revenue expenditure. The company is under an obligation to subscribe to certain journals and associations and by subscribing to the same they derive certain benefits. The expenditure on this account is certainly a revenue expenditure. It is not donation, as such the amount of subscription should not be added back. O.P.W.1 Shri Ahluwalia, Secretary of the company gave evidence on this point. Ext. 4(b) is the list of donation which are of a chartiable nature. The total amount of donation is Rs. 6,746. I will accordingly accept the figure of Ext. B(5) out of which Rs. 1,000 is donation in respect of National Defence Fund. A sum of Rs. 4,746 is therefore to be added back under item No. 3, clause (b). There is admittedly nofi gure under item 3, clause (c) for our present purpose. The union claims that under item No. 3, clause (d) of the Second Schedule the figure in the balance-sheet under heading "Loose Tools Consumed" showing expenditure of Rs. 3,91,133 should be added back as capital expenditure within the meaning of clause (d). Clause (d) speaks about capital expenditure other than capital expenditure on scientific reasearch etc., and capital loss should be added back if those items are charged to the profit and loss account. It is true that "Loose Tools Consumed" is charged to the profit and loss account but the question is whether the expenditure on this account is a capital expenditure as characterised by the union. The evidence of Shri Ahluwalia will clarify as to the nature to which "Loose Tools Consumed" are put. Those loose tools are required for the runing of various machineries used in the manufacturing process. Shri Rabindra Nath Basu Mullick, P.W.1, the President of the G.E.C. Staff Union, gave evidence and according to him the the Loose Tools consumed are current assets and for acquiring the same, the expenditure is capital expenditure. He however admits that the purchase of raw materials is not a capital expenditure. The evidence is clear on the point that Loose Tools are required for the running of the factory and those tools are supplied to the different machineries in the said course of manufacture. Both parties relied upon the book on accountancy by Williams Pickles, III Edition. At page 189 capital expenditure has been described as out lay resulting in the course or acquisition of an asset or increase in the earning capacity of a business. Revenue expenditure, on the other hand, is such outlay as is necessary for the maintenance of the earning capacity including up-keeping of the fixed assets in a fully efficient state. Thus the loose tools which are used for the up-keep of the various machineries which are fixed assets cannot be described as increasing the assets or earning capacity of a business. Loose tools are required for the purpose of maintenance of the machineries in good working orders.

The learned representative for the union draws my attention to F.R.M. de Paula's, The Principls of Auditing page 96 and wants to contend that loose tools must be considered as fixed assets. Page 96 of the above treaties deals with the mode of revaluation of assets. It has been observed that as the working lives of various items coming under this head in many cases are very short and replacements, renewals and additions are constantly having to be made, the only really satisfactory way to deal with these assets is to make a revaluation each year, in which case this item is dealt with in the same very a stock-in-trade. The basis of valuation is not the current realizable or replacement value of the tools, but cost less as aduquate allowance for wear and tear. From the above it cannot be concluded that loose tools consumed entail capital expenditure. The expenditure on account on account of loose tools is a revenue expenditure and not a capital expenditure. That being so, the the item cannot be added back under clause (d) as contended on behalf of the union.

Next I will turn to item No. 3, clause (e) which speaks of adding back of losses of or expenditure relating to any business situated outside India. The union contends that "Home Service Organisation charges" shown as expenditure in the balance-sheet at page 6 of a sum of Rs. 6,39,106 should be added back as expenditure relating to business situated outside India. The evidence of Mr. Ahluwalia is to be looked into in this respect. At page 7 of his evidence he has explained the nature of service rendered by the Home Service Organisation in respect of which the expenditure had been incurred. The evidence runs thus:

> "It is a technical service fees rendered by our parent company, the General Electric Co., Ltd., U.K. They gave us technical details of manufacture of various goods. . . . This liability has been taken up since the merger in 1963".

He further added that during the course of the year technical advances were made to the parent company and those advances were incorporated in different manufacturing techniques depending upon local conditions. These Home Service Organisation charge had been approved by the Reserve Bank of India.Ext. A(2) is the Directors' report for the year ended 31st of March 1964. It is not the unions' case that this company is running any business outside India and the expenditure under heading "Home Service Organistion charges" is an expenditure relating to that business situated outside India. The expenditure is in respect of the business which is run in India and the parent company renders certain services in rspect of which the charges are paid. This is not an expenditure relating to any business situated outside India. The said amount is not therefore to be added back.

Now, I will turn to Item No. 4; the first item is income profits and gains credited directly to reserve other than capital receipts, capital profits, etc. The union contends that page 2 of the balance-sheet Ext. A shows the following item as credited directly to reserve. Item is quoted thus:

Add—Acquired from G. E. C. India Manufacturing (P) Ltd.	.. ..	Rs. 8,50,258

This is the amount which according to the union is credited to reserve and according to the union it is an income, profit or gain of the company. I am unable to accept this contention. G.E.C. of India Manufacturing (P) Ltd., was merged with the G.E.C. of India (P) Ltd., and now an amalgamated company is run under the name of General Electric Company of India (P) Ltd. This is an admitted fact and this will appear from the evidence of Mr. Ahluwalia at page 9. In consequence of that merger the reserve of Rs. 8,50,258 had been acquired from the G.E.C. India (P) Ltd., The merger of the two companies resulted in an amalgamation of assets and liabilities. The reserve had been acquired and similar liabilities had been shouldered by this company. It is not an income, profit or gain of this company. It would not be correct to say that the company had made certain gains, profits or income which had been credited to reerve. That being so, the amount cannot be added back as it is not an income, profit or gain which is being credited to the reserve. It is significant to note in this connection that page 3 of the balance-sheet shows the losses in consequence of the merger. The union further adds that at page 2 of the balance-sheet a sum of Rs. 95,812 had been credited to reserve by transfer from the provision for doubtful debts. The transfer from provisions to the reserve cannot be said an income, profit or gain and as such it cannot be added back under item No. 4, clause (i). There is no other clause in item No. 4 to be considered for or present purpose.

Next I will turn to item No. 6 of the schedule regarding deductions. Clauses (a), (b) and (c) do not come up for consideration in this case. Clause (d) is pressed into us on behalf of the Company and it is urged that the amount of Rs. 1,80,702 paid on account of gratuity should be deducted as it is an expenditure debited directly to reserve. In this connection the company draws my attention to pages 8 and 17 of the balance-sheet (Ext. A). During the year staff gratuity was provided for Rs. 50,000. The total amount including the balance of previous year standing as provision on this head, would amount to Rs. 2,59,011. During the year ending 31st of March 1964 the balance of staff gratuity provision is Rs. 71,309. Accordingly a sum of Rs. 1,87,702 had been actually paid during the year as gratuity. The company wants to add that this expenditure should be deducted under item No. 6, clause (d). The argument is fallacious. There had been provision for staff gratuity from previous year and that provision was expressedly created out of profits of previous years. The balance of provision at the end of 1963 was Rs. 2 lacs and odd as already stated. During the year also out of the profits Rs. 50,000 had been provided. After meeting the actual expenditure of gratuity, still there is a provision of Rs. 71,309 left as balance at the end of the year in question. This payment was debited to provision created out of profits. It is not debited to reserve as contended to by the company. There is a great distinction between provisions and reserve. It is enough to say that this is not a debit to reserve but it is a debit to provision. The amount will not be deducted as contended by the company.

The company invokes the aid of clause (f) of items 6 as well in support of the claim that the refund of direct tax paid for previous accounting year should also be deducted. The sum which had been refunded is Rs. 29,708. In company's calculation Ext. B this amount has been deducted. I do not think that this deduction can be allowed because the profit and loss account has been charged with it and foot-note (2) is not fulfilled. Since the amount has not been credited to the profit and loss account the question of deduction does not arise. The objection in respect of schedule 2 put in on either side is thus disposed and I calculate the amount of gross profit to be Rs. 1,02,63,170 under item No. 7.

Next we shall have to consider section 6 of the Bonus Act regarding deduction of certain sums from the gross profits as prior charges. Section 6(a) provides for deducation of any amount by way of depreciation admissile in accordance with the provision of sub-section (1) of section 32 of the Income Tax Act. In the company's calculation a sum of Rs. 7,41,860 had been deducted as depreciation under section 6(a) of the Payment of Bonus Act. Ext. B(3) is a summarised statement of admissible depreciation showing all details of calculations. There is no such calculation sheet filed on behalf of the union. Ext. C is the certificate of the Auditors to the effect that the normal depreciation allowance for the company for the year ended 31st March 1964 would amount to Rs. 7,41,860. The union has taken a figure of Rs. 6,23,000 in their calculation. The union relies upon the earlier calculation Ext. G of the company in a chart which had been discarded by the company as erroneous. No reliance can be placed upon a calculation sheet which is admitted by the party preparing it to be erroneous. The union has accordingly no basis for calculation of the depreciation. The company's calculation whose correctness is certified by the auditors should therefore be accepted. The deduction on account of depreciation under section 6(a) is accordingly Rs. 7,41,860.

Section 6(b) of the Payment of Bonus Act provides for deduction as follows :

> "Any amount by way development rebate or developmet allowance which the employer is entitled from his income tax under the Income Tax Act."

The company's calculation sheet Ext B shows a deduction of Rs. 43,036. The union's calculation also shows the same figure. There is accordingly no controversy regarding this item.

Next I will turn to section 6(c) which speaks about deduction of any direct tax which the employer is liable to pay for the accounting year in respect of his income, profits and gains during the year. Section 6, sub-section (c) runs thus :

> "Subject to the provisions of section 7, any direct tax which the employer is liable to pay for the accounting year in respect of his income, profits and gains during that year.

This is the amount which is to be deducted from the gross profits as an important item to prior charges. Direct tax has been defined in section 2, sub-section12, as meaning any tax chargeable under No. (i) the Income tax Act, (ii) The Super Profits Tax Act, 1963; (iii) The Companies (Profits) Surtax Act, 1964; and (iv) The Agricultural Income Tax Law; and any other tax which, having regard to its nature or incidence, may be declared by the Central Government, by notification in the Official Gazette, to be a direct tax for the purposes of this Act.

There is therefore little scope for doubt that the liability of the employer for direct tax will have to be calculated under the Income Tax Act. The Tribunal virtually sits as an income tax officer for calculating the amount of direct tax. It may be that the income tax officer might arrive at a different figure in his estimation but nevertheless the Tribunal is called upon to calculate the direct tax according to the income tax act and the other taxes referred to in section 2, sub-section 12. Section 7 of the Payment of Bonus Act in describing the method of calculation of direct tax made certain provision which have direct reference to the Income Tax Act. Section 7 further provides that tax is be calculated at the rates applicable to the income tax for that year. I must therefore overrule the objection of the company that the calculation should not be in accordance with the provisions of Income Tax Act. No other mode of calculation is warranted by law. Next I proceed to make the calculation. The company's calculation Ext. B shows that a sum of Rs. 60,00,000 has been shown for deduction. The union in their calculations had taken a sum of Rs. 53,08,300 as the amount of direct tax. The balance-sheet makes a provision of tax of a sum of Rs. 60,00,000. Section 6(c) speaks about direct tax which the employer is liable to pay in respect of his income, profits and gains during the year. The liability is to be calculated by the Tribunal with reference to law on taxation applicable to that partiuclar year. Admittedly there had been no assessment of income tax as yet for that year. The company submitted returns for the particular year. The union examined an officer of the income tax department (P.W. 2 Biswanath Bhattacharjee) to prove the return for the year in question. It will appear from the evidence of P.W.2 that the net profit prior taxation has been shown by the company at Rs. 82,88,324. According to the return the amount of tax payable is Rs. 42,51,412. The witness was recalled by the union on a subsequent day and on that day the witness stated that the company paid Rs. 42,51,412 as advance tax in the financial year 1963-64. The company further paid Rs. 9,43,131 as surtax. Now the return submitted by the company cannot be accepted by the Tribunal nor can the Tribunal be guided by the advance of income tax paid. The amount of direct tax is to be calculated on the profits by the Tribunal for the purpose of the Payment of Bonus Act. The company submitted certain calculation sheets Exts. D and D(1).

The union also submitted calculation sheet of income tax liability in all the computations Exts. 1 series. The profits before taxation has been taken as the figure upon which the tax liability is to be calculated. There is no controversy in respect of the same. Certain items are to be added back. The company as well as the union are at one that the depreciation as per profit and loss account has to be added. The amount of depreciation is Rs. 992,897 on fixed assets and Rs. 18,670 on investments. The union contends that the depreciation on investment is not to be added. I cannot agree with this depreciation as per profit and loss account is to be added and both the figures should be included in my bonus calculation under schedule II. I have added the amount of depreciation on both heads, the total amount being Rs. 10,11,567. Regarding the other items, namely, unclaimed credit balance, customs duty refund, rebate from suppliers, there is no dispute at all between the union and the company. The following figures should therefore be added as admitted by both parties.

	Rs.
Unclaimed credit balance ..	28,276
Customs duty refund	1,576
Rebate from suppliers	1,41,475

Regarding"miscellaneous expense disallowed" the company had deducted rupees on lac, while the union has taken the figure of Rs. 41,843 i.e. the amount of donations according to the union. The income tax may disallow certain miscellaneous expense. The figure cannot be assessed. An arbitrary figure cannot be taken. Then there is a question of deduction. Depreciation admissible under Income Tax Act is to be duducted That amount is Rs.7,41,860. Sales Tax is to be deducted. That figure is Rs.2,00,842. Bonus paid for previous year is to be deducted. It is Rs.6,49,642. Loss on investment is to be deducted and the amount is Rs.1,00,850. Development rebate reserve is also to be deducted; it is Rs.43,036. The total amount is Rs. 17,36,230. The calculation of income tax is tabled in the next page.

	Rs.	Rs.
Profit before Taxation		88,34,455
Add: Depreciation provision	10,11,567
Unclaimed Credit Balance	28,376
Customs Duty Refund	1,576

		1,00,22,195
Deduct:
Depreciation admissible to I/T	7,41,860
Sales Tax	2,00,842

Sales Tax at the rate of 11.37 per cent		9,42,114
		52,04,414

The total amount of direct tax is accordingly Rs.52,04,41.

One important item on which serious controversy ranges between the parties is in respect of the third Schedule, item No. III i.e. the question of 6 per cent. of reserve. The company is entitled to deduction of further sum under the third Schedule in terms of section 6, clause (d). The relevant provision is as follows :—

> "6 per cent. of it reserves shows in its balance sheet as at the commencement of the accounting year, including any profits carried forward from the previous accountirg year .....".

Explanation runs thus :—

The expression "reserves" occurring in column (3) against item Nos. 1 (iii), 2 (iii) and 3(ii) shall not include any amount set apart for the purpose of—

(i) Payment of any direct tax which, according to the balance-sheet, would be payable ;

(ii) meeting any depreciation admissible in accordance with the provisions of clause (a) of section 6 ;

(iii) payment of dividends which have been declared but shall include—

(a) any amount, over and above the amount referred to in clause (i) of this Explanation, set apart as specific reserve for the purpose of payment of any direct tax ; and

(b) any amount set apart for meeting any depreciation in excess of the amount admissible in accordance with provisions of clause (a) of section 6.

Now the question is what is the amount of reserves in respect of which 6 per cent. return is deductable. According to the company they are entitled to 6 per cent. on the reserves as per balance-sheet, namely capital reserve, depreciation reserve, general reserve, dev lopment rebate reserve, reserve for doubtful debts and balance of profit and loss account from the previous year and in addition to the aforesaid reserves the company is entitled to a return on certain provision for taxation and for dividend which had been available to the company for being utilised as reserve. Note 4 of Ext B of the company's computations give the relevant break-up figures. On the other hand, the union urges that no return is available to the company on the provision for taxation and dividend as calculated but it is admitted that the company is entitled to 6 per cent. return on capital reserve, depreciation reserves, general reserve, development reserve, reserve for doubtful debts and the profit and loss account of the previous year. The balance-sheet at page 2 will show the admitted reserve to which the compiany is entitled to return of 6 per cent. There is no dispute regarding any of the figures of reserves except reserve for doubtful debts. The reserves may be detailed hereunder :

	Rs.
Capital reserve ..	8,60,792	(admitted)
Depreciation reserve ..	1,74,172	(admitted)
General reserve ..	35,29,982	(admitted)
Development rebate reserve	26,000	(admitted)
Balance of profit and loss account of the previous year	17,98,275	(admitted)

Regarding the reserve for doubtful debts the company puts the figure of Rs.6,66,382 in the computation while the union has given the figure as Rs.4,75,624 which is the reserve for doubtful debts as per last account. I cannot follow the method of calculation by which the company has arrived at the figure Rs.6,66,382. It will appear from the balanec-sheet at page 2 that the reserve or doubtful debts as per last account was Rs.4,75,624 i.e. the amount of reserve for doubtful debts. During the year Rs.95,812 had been transferred from provision for doubtful debts to the reserve. This amount was not available as reserve at the beginning of the year and as such no return can be given thereon. The union figure is therefore to be accepted. 6 per cent. of the admitted reserve would be Rs.4,09,490. The company claims not only 6 per cent. on the aforesaid reserve but 6 per cent. on certain provisions regard ng taxation and dividend. I will turn to Ext. B, pages 6 and 7. According to the company provision for taxation standing on 1st April 1963 was Rs.1,04,17,000. There had been some advance payment of tax from time to time, so that a certain amount out of the provision had been available to the company to be utilised as reserve. A similar argument is made regarding the provision for dividend. I am afraid the company is not in a position to treat the same provision as reserve. The provision is made against tax and dividend and it cannot be read as reserve. 6 per cent. is allowed in respect of reserves shown in the balance-sheet. These are the exact words used in clause III of the third Schedule. Since it is not shown in the reserve as balance but is shown as provision, no return thereon can be claimed. The explanations which I have quoted above will make the position abundantly clear. The expression reserves used in item No. III has been explained and it has been clearly laid down that it shall not include any amount set apart for purpose of payment of any direct tax..... .....payment of any dividend which have been declared. The amount of provision set apart for payment of tax or for the payment of dividend does not come within the mischief of the expression "reserves". In the said explanation the expression reserves shall include any amount over above the amount referred to in clause (i) of the explanation i.e. in respect of payment of any direct tax set apart as specific reserve for the purpose of payment of any direct tax. In order that the amount may be treated as reserve the amount must be set apart as "specific resevre" for the purpose of payment of any direct tax. There is no such "specific reserve". In respect of dividend there is no provision similar to this. Thus having regard to the explanation given to the expression reserves occurring in column 3, item I (iii) the company is not entitled to say that the provision for taxation or for dividend in excess of actual tax paid should be treated as reserves on which 6 per cent. will be payable as return. I negative the contention of the company having special regard to the said explanation. The company is entitled to 6 per cent. on the reserves admitted by the union and enumerated by me hereinbefore.

The company is entitled to certain other admitted deductions under the third Schedule. 8.5 per cent. return on paid up capital on 1st April 1963, the total amount is Rs.1,25,00,000. 8.5 per cent. on the said paid up capital would be Rs.10,62,500. The amount of available surplus will have to be calculated, from what has been discussed hereinbefore. The allocation surplus would be 60 per cent. of the availabl e surplus. There is a great degree of controversy with regard to the annual wages of employees under the Bonus Act who would be entitled to the bonus that would be declared. The company submitted a certificate signed by Shri P. K. Ahluwalia, Secretary of the company,wherein it has been stated that the total wages of all employees drawing salary up to Rs.1,600 per month is Rs.99,77,892 and that the salary of employees getting more than Rs.750 per month on being treated as Rs.750, the total amount of said wages would be reduced to Rs.93,15,875. He has further certified that the employees who are not entitled to bonus under the Payment of Bonus Act have not been included in the above figures. Thus the total wages for arriving at the percentage of bonus would be Rs.93,15,875. This figure is challenged by the union. It would be impossible to secure production of all the records of different units of the company spread throughout India in different places. The certificate of wage bill is therefore accepted for arriving at the percentage. I am unable to hold that the responsible officer of the company would make a false statement before this Tribunal. The union wanted to examine certain records after oral evidence had been concluded. I passed orders for said inspection but as all the records were not in the Calcutta office the records could not be inspected and the parties were blaming each other for the same. That is however a closed chapter. No useful purpose could have been served by inspection of records of Calcutta alone. The company has branches spread throughout India and records at those places could not have been available. I do not draw any adverse inference agaist any party on account of what had been happened. Moreover the figures in the balance-sheet should be presumed to be correct under section 23 of the Payment of Bonus Act. Unless the Tribunal is satisfied that the statements and particulars contained in the balance-sheet or the profit and loss account are not accurate, no step under section 23 need be taken to find out the accuracy of such statement. The union has not also made any application under section 23, sub-section (2) of the Payment of Bonus Act.

Having disposed of all the contentions raised by both parties, I proceed to declare the bonus on the following calculation.

	Rs.	Rs.
Net profit as per profit and loss account		1,257
Add back provisions for—
(a) Bonus to employees	5,92,666
(b) Depreciation	10,11,567
(c) Direct taxes	60,00,000
(d) Development Rebate	33,000
(e) Other reserves	20,00,000	96,37,233
Add : back also—
(a) Bonus in respect of previous year	6,49,642
(b) Donations	4,746	6,54,388
		1,02,92,878
Deduct :
Refund of Direct Taxes		29,708
		1,02,63,170
Less: Depreciation		7,41,860
		95,21,310
Development Rebate		43,036
		94,78,274
Direct Taxes		52,04,414
		42,73,860
Less: 8.5 per cent. return on paid up capital on 1st April 963 i.e. Rs.1,25,00,000		10,62,500
		32,11,360
6 per cent. on Reserves		4,00,490
Available surplus		28,01,870
Allocable surplus at the rate of 60 per cent.		16,81,122

The bonus payable is thus 18 05 per cent.

From the above calculation it is found that the allocable surplus is Rs.16,81,122. On the said allocable surplus the percentage of bonus as calculated above comes to 18.05 per cent. The employees are entitled to bonus at the rate of 18.05 per cent. of their wages for the year ended 31st March 1964 This is below the maximum of 20 per cent. and above the minimum of 4 per cent 10 per cent bonus is said to have already been paid. The employer is entitled to deduct the amount of bonus already paid from the amount of bonus payable by it to the employees in respect of the accounting year. This is the Tribunal's award which is to be implemented within 30 days of its publication in the "Calcutta Gazette"

Pioneer Match Factory, 16 Dum Dum Road, Calcutta-28 and their workmen represented by Pioneer Match Factory Mazdoor Union, 22/1 Kali Charan Ghosh Road, Calcutta-50, regarding the issues mentioned in the said order being matters specified in the second and the third schedules to the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), was referred for adjudication to the Fifth Industrial Tribunal;

And whereas the said Fifth Industrial Tribunal has submitted to the State Government its award on the said industrial dispute ;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. Pioneer Match Factory, 16 Dum Dum Road, Calcutta-28 and their workmen represented by Pioneer Match Factory Mazdoor Union, 20/1, Kali Charan Ghosh Road, Calcutta-50. (Case No. 329 of 1964).

BEFORE THE FIFTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present :

Shri A. K. DE, District Judge, Presiding Officer, Fifth Industrial Tribunal.

Present for the Company : Shri J. R. Jain, Labour Adviser of the Company.

Present for the Union : Shri Matish Roy, President of the Union.

The Government of West Bengal, by its Labour Department, order No. 6148-I.R./I.R./11L-349/64, dated the 11th November 1964, has referred an industrial dispute in respect of the issues stated below between Messrs. Pioneer Match Factory, hereinafter called the factory, and their workmen represented by Pioneer Match Factory Mazdoor Union, hereinafter called the union, for adjudication under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act.

2. On 22nd September 1962 the Tribunal on a reference by the Government of West Bengal, under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act made its award in respect of the minimum wages and leave facilities of the workers of its factory. The workers not being satisfied with what was awarded by the Tribunal, submitted a charter of demands on 3rd February 1964 (vide Ext. 1). Efforts at settlement having failed the Government had made the present reference.

3. It is stated by the union that the factory is a very highly prosperous one employing nearly 300 hands out of which 50 per cent. are temporary, though a good number of them have served for a year or 240 days. The nature of work done in this factory is permanent. In other Match factories in the locality workers are declared permanent after 6 months' service. There is no system of making workers permanent in this factory. Without it, efficiency of workmen cannot improve. The union demands that a system of making workers permanent should be introduced in the factory. The union further states that there are only 6 festival holidays in the factory though in other factories the workmen enjoy 12 to 15 festival holidays in a year with full pay. They demand that the workers are to be declared to be entitled to as many festival holidays as in similar concerns in the region. The further statement of the union is that there are piece-rated, daily-rated and monthly-rated workers in the factory, and that there are at present eleven departments in the factory where the workers are paid on piece-rate system. It is stated that the workers should be divided into categories such as unskilled, semi-skilled and skilled and that the wages of such workers should be fixed, and that there should be a minimum guaranteed earning for the piece-rated workers. It is said that the daily-rated workers earn a minimum of Rs. 2 per day and that the monthly-rated workers get Rs.50 a month, and that the average daily earning of piece-rated workers is Rs.1.25 p. per day. It is said that the present wage-structure of the workmen is lower than that in similar industries in the region, and that it is low and not adequate even for maintenance. It is prayed that the pay scale should be fixed in consideration of the workers' skill and nature of duties. The union prayed that all temporary workers who have completed 6 months' service should be declared permanent and that all categories of workmen should get 15 days festival holidays in a year with full wages, and that the minimum earning of piece-rated workers should be fixed at 3.25 per day, and that a peice-rated worker should get a minimum of Rs.2.50 p. for days he would be kept unemployed by the management failing to give him work. It was further prayed that the workers should get dearness alowwance, and that the pay and dearness allowance on revison should be given retrospective effect from the date of reference of the dispute to the Tribunal.

4. The factory in its written statement answered all the demands of the union. It is stated that the factory is a loosing concern and is incurring financial loss for the last few years, that the wage-structure in the factory is in accordance with the award of the Tribunal made in 1962, that the said award is subsisting and binding on the workmen, and that there has been no change of circumstances requiring revision of the said award. The factory further stated that the nature of manufacturing process carried on in this firm is such that categorisation of different workers into skilled, semi-skilled and unskilled is not possible as almost all the workmen are unskilled or low skilled, and that this factory is not comparable with any other Match factory in the region they being large units producing large quantity of match boxes. It was further stated that earnings of workers of this factory are loss because of inefficiency of the workers and their wilful neglect of duty, and that any revison of it would tantamount to putting a premium on the indolence of the workers. The company stated that there should be no revision in the number of festival holidays as any addition in the number of paid festival holidays would add to the burden on the company and would bring about its ruin, and that when production was the prime need of the country, it should not be hampered by increasingthe number of holidays. It was stated that the Standing Orders of the company governed the "permanency" of workers, and that it is not possible, in view of the market condition or availability of raw materials, etc., to maintain a fixed number of workers, and that the existing rates of wages are adequate and call for no revision. It was stated that the claim for restrospective effect of wages was not tenable in law, and that permanency could only be granted to those who worked against permanent vacancies and completed a probationary period.

Issues

(1) Wages for all categories of workmen.
(2) Permanancy.
(3) Festival holidays.

(4) Whether there should be a minimum guranteed earning for the peice-rated workmen ? If so, what should be the rate of such earning ?

5. In this proceeding both parties filed written statement gave evidence and submitted their arguments orally. The Tribunal will first take up for consideration the issue of festival holidays.

6. At present there are 5 festival holidays on Ashtami, Nabami and Dasawara days of Saradia Durga Puja, and on the Independence Day, the 15th August, and the Republic Day, the 26th January. The union wants 15 festival holidays in a year on full wages. They rely on the evidence of Dhirendra Nath Nandy, P. W. 6, General Secretary of Esavi Match Majdoor Union to support their claim. P. W. 6 stated that in the Esavi Macth Factory there are 14 paid festival holidays. O. P. W 1 Shri B. G. Benani, a partner of this factory, stated in tis evidence that Narsing Match Factory used to grant 7 paid festival holidays to their workmen. He added that that factory had closed down about a year back having incurred loss. The learned representative of the factory referred to the case reported in 1964 (I) L. L. J. page 12. He contended that the number of paid holidays in the factory should not be increased. The case relied on by the factory referred to the case reported in 1963 (I) L. L. J. page 543. It was observed in the latter case that it is now generally accepted that there are too many public holidays in our country and that when the need for industrial production is urgent and paramount it would be advisable to reduce the number of holidays in industrial concerns. It was noticed in that case that other State Governments have shown a tendency to reduce their holidays. Keeping the views expressed in the above two cases in mind the Tribunal considers this issue. It is quite evident that the number of paid festival holidays in this factory is too few. It is in evidence that a sizable portion of workers in the factory are middle-aged females. When the neighbouring factory is granting as many as 14 paid festival holidays it would be just that the workers in this factory should have at least 8 festival holidays, i.e., they should also have paid festival holidays on Doljatra Day, Kali Puja Day after the Durga Puja, and Kajogari Lakshmi Puja Day. The Tribunal decides according.
